Livestock Association—While snow fell in the surrounding hills the Marion County Livestock association held its annual meeting Friday night in Silverton Hills Community club-house, enjoyed a dinner prepared by the wives of members, elected officers and did other association business. The picture above shows the association at dinner. Below, at left, and from left in the picture, are Bob Barnes, Marvin Jahn, and Lawrence Fisher, FFA boys who told about their trip to Kansas City with all expenses paid as winners of the highest honor conferred by the FFA. Fisher represented the Future Farmers of the county. All are Silverton boys. Below at right are Louis Patterson and Marshall Chelders, 4-H boys, showing the Pacific International Livestock trophy awarded for top achievement at the show. It is the first time the trophy has come to Marion county. It was presented by Anthol Riney, 4-H director in the county
