Folk Dancing's Fun Say the Members of the Norwegian Leikarring Group

In Salem as elsewhere throughout the country, folk dancing continues to be a big interest and hobby for a large number of people.

On of the active local organizations for folk dancing is the Leikarring group of the Sons of Norway lodge who have made quite a reputation for themselves.

Almost weekly this group meets for practice and appears frequently before other organizations to give special entertainment, all for the fun of it.

The Leikarring group is a colorful one, the members wearing bright red caps and jackets. The women always don black skirts and the traditional white aprons.

With their costumes, the women, too, wear the so-called national pin in Norway—a type of brooch, and their jackets have the colorful braided trim. The costumes are all hand-made by the women and are of hand-woven materials. Each of the white aprons would be a story in itself with its traditional lace insertions.

Any big smorgasbord would not be complete without the Leikarring group there to give the special entertainment.
