

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Monday, Dec. 12, 1949

Pink Featured in Setting At Charlton-Lavers Wedding

An all-pink wedding was that of Miss Vivian Lavers and Robert Patton Charlton, the ceremony being solemnized last evening at 7 o'clock rites in the First Congregational church, Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Lavers of Berkeley, Calif., who came north for the wedding, and Mr. Charlton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Charlton of Salem.

Mrs. Snell Named

Mrs. Earl Snell has been appointed chairman for volunteer services in the Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, it is announced by Charles H. Huggins, chapter chairman.

As chairman of volunteer services Mrs. Snell becomes a member of the chapter board. In the position, Mrs. Snell will have charge of enlisting volunteer workers for the various volunteer services—motor corps, staff aides, home service volunteers, nurses' aides, etc.

Pythian Sisters Elect Officers

New officers were announced for Centralia temple, Pythian Sisters lodge. They include the following:

Mrs. W. A. Stanton, most excellent chief; Mrs. Etta Obershaw, excellent senior; Miss Betty Jean Bergner, excellent junior; Mrs. Harvey Evans, secretary; Mrs. Herman Bergner, treasurer; Miss Shirley Rockafellow, manager; Mrs. Harry Wilson, protector; Mrs. Ralph Wilcox, guard; Mrs. Don Judson, pianist; Mrs. George Thomas, three-year trustee; Mrs. W. J. Peck, two-year trustee; Mrs. A. Neiderberger, one-year trustee; Mrs. C. J. Pugh, degree staff captain; Mrs. D. M. Stanton, past chief; Mrs. H. C. Eggleston, press correspondent; Mrs. A. Rockafellow, installing officer.

Temple members met last week and initiated Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Romanine and Don Judson.

A Christmas party has been planned with the Knights of Pythias and their families for December 21.

Following the business session and initiation refreshments were served, hostesses being Mrs. Laura Johnson, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. Harry Schultz and Hubert Gatts.

Riggs-DaMoude

From Redmond comes word of the marriage of Miss Louise Jean DaMoude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. DaMoude, to James J. Riggs, Redmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Riggs of Grants Pass.

The wedding was an event of November 18 at a ceremony in the First Christian church in Reno, Nev., the Rev. Charles Dahn officiating.

For the wedding the bride wore a suit of winter brown with green accessories and she carried a prayer book with an orchid on it.

Following a motor trip up the coast the couple are at home at Redmond.

The bride was graduated from Salem high school and has been employed at Redmond since last summer.

Engagement Told

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. George Frichtl announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marilene Frichtl, to Theone Pleser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pleser of Stayton. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect and her twin sister, Marilyn, are attending Oregon State college.

Today's Menu

Saturday Snack
Toasted English Muffins with Marmalade
Chocolate Thinsies Beverage

Chocolate Thinsies
Ingredients: 1 square (1 ounce) unsweetened chocolate, 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup finely chopped walnut, pecan, or Brazil nut meats.

Method: Put the chocolate and butter or margarine in a heavy medium-sized saucepan; melt over extremely low heat. Remove from heat, add sugar and stir well. Add the egg and beat thoroughly with a wooden spoon. Add the flour and salt and mix well. Turn into two buttered 8-inch square pans and spread evenly and very thinly with a spatula. Sprinkle with nut meats. Bake in a moderately hot (400 F.) oven for 12 to 15 minutes. While warm mark into 2-inch squares. Cool and break into crisp squares.

OPEN
December 14
The Fern Beauty Shop
455 FISHER RD.
(Formerly Located at 721 S. 12th St.)
PHONE 2-1302

Luncheon and Bridge Party

Among hostesses of the week will be Mrs. J. P. Schimberg and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, who have invited guests for a luncheon party and afternoon of bridge, Thursday, at the Argyle drive home of Mrs. Schimberg.

Guests for three tables have been invited. Christmas decorations will feature the party.

Recital on Tuesday Eve

The Salem Federation of Music clubs will give its second recital of the season on Tuesday evening at the YMCA.

These programs begin at 7:45 o'clock and are open to the public. Parents and friends of those students taking part are especially invited to attend. Mrs. Jean Morrison, chairman for the evening has listed the following participants.

Bobby Richardson, Linda Scheel, Ruth Klempel, Ronnie Potts, Sharon Cushing, Celeste Hennis, Ruth White, Roberta Eyre, Richard Davies, Pamela Lindholm, Ann Hansen, Mary Linda Doerfler, Emma Jean Sadtler, Mary Evelyn Parke, Robert Goddard, Wallace McCoy, Doris Rohland, Thelma Powell, Patricia Whelan.

Counselors are Emil Bandel, Mrs. Ronald Craven, Mrs. Harvey Gibbons, Charles Hargrave, Mary Talmadge Hedrick, Miss Margaret Hogg, Mrs. E. Donald Jessop, Mrs. Mary Kiely, Mrs. Nettie Larson, Jessie Bush Mickelson, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Victor Palmason, Sacred Heart Academy, Jean Hobson Rich, Mrs. Zena Thomas, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Frederick Wilson, Mrs. Jean Morrison, Miss Ruth Bedford.

Woodburn Woman's Club Entertained

Woodburn—The Christmas meeting of the Woodburn Woman's club was held last week at the library with Mrs. W. O. Green presiding.

Special music was group singing of Christmas carols, led by Mrs. N. F. Tyler who also presented two vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Ringo.

Guests received into membership were Mrs. Harry VanArsdale, Mrs. Willard Atwood, Mrs. Dave Westland, Mrs. Evelyn Layne, Mrs. James Lamb, Mrs. Charles Johnston and Mrs. Roy Kay. Other guests were Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. J. R. Carskadon.

Mrs. E. C. Peyton was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Henry Goode and Mrs. Frank Miller of Donald who gave instructions on the making of Christmas decorations for the home.

A decorated Christmas tree featured the meeting and a large collection of gifts was brought by members for the Children's Farm home at Corvallis.

Members were asked to bring books suitable for children and juniors from 10 to 18 years of age to donate to the junior book shelf at the library at the next meeting. Old or new books are acceptable.

The club room and serving table were attractively decorated in honor of the Christmas season. Presiding at the urns during the tea hour were Mrs. J. J. Hall and Mrs. Louise Pfaffinger. Hostesses were Mrs. E. C. Peyton, Mrs. Frank Covey, Mrs. Robert Treupel, Mrs. C. W. Conyne and Mrs. Frank Wagenveld.

Amaranth Event

Cherry court, Order of the Amaranth, is to meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

On the refreshments committee are Mrs. Louis Lorenz, Mrs. Ward Davis, Mrs. Elmer Boyer, Mrs. James Tindall, Mrs. Roy Tweedie.

Want a Home? to call your OWN?

... And at terms CHEAPER THAN RENT! Of course, you do! Here's how: Simply drop in to the Pioneer Trust Company today and ask about its easy payment FHA Mortgage Loan plan! Make your dreams come true now!

DIAL 3-3136
Pioneer Trust Co.
Incorporated under the Oregon State Banking Laws.
State and Commercial

OSC Mothers Planning Bazaar on Friday

To Sponsor Bazaar—Members of the Oregon State Mothers club are sponsoring a bazaar on Friday of this week, December 16, at the Portland Gas and Coke company, proceeds to go to the state mothers clubs' scholarship fund. In the picture here are some of the committee making Christmas boxes for the bazaar, left to right: Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Sr. (standing), president of the club; Mrs. A. E. Ullman, chairman of the bazaar; Mrs. Harlan Pearson and Mrs. Carl R. Miller. A cooked food sale also is planned in conjunction with the bazaar.

MEMBERS of the education and vocations committee of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club met last week for a dinner at the home of Mrs. E. E. Wooten.

The group made plans for its March meeting of the club when a panel will be presented, also for a field trip later.

It was announced that student loans are available in the club funds for that purpose.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. John Versteeg, club president; Miss Jean Spaulding, Mrs. Mayme Yates, Mrs. David L. Ringland, Mrs. Carl Booth, who assisted the hostess as co-chairman for the committee, and Mrs. Wooten.

Council Meeting

Salem Council of Women's Organizations has slated its December meeting for Thursday afternoon, the session to be at 2 o'clock in the YMCA building.

Members are to take their gifts to go to the Celilo Indians for Christmas, including clothing. Mrs. Robert Hutcheons is president of the council.

BEING welcomed back to the capital following three months' stay in Tucson, Ariz., are Mrs. John S. Benkey and son, Jack. They arrived this week-end.

SLEEPYTIME PALS

PRETTY POLKA DOT PAJAMAS WITH BRUNCH COAT TO MATCH

Try sweetening your dreams with something like this. Twin print polka dot pajamas... the top in white with red or navy dots, the trousers in red or navy with white dots. Add the matching brunch coat and you have a captivating ensemble for leisure hour lounging. Sizes 32-40.

Johnson's
the Store for Ladies
Salem, Oregon

"If she's singing... her gift's from Johnson's"

Parties for Little Girls

Phyllis Jenks, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winstanley Jenks, is to observe her fifth birthday on Wednesday. In the afternoon her mother is entertaining a group of friends of Phyllis and their mothers. Motion pictures will be shown and the traditional birthday luncheon served.

Honoring Phyllis will be Bonnie Berkhart and Mrs. James Burkhardt; Susan Mohr and Mrs. Harry Mohr; Anne Froman and Mrs. Allison Froman; Marilyn Andrus; Elizabeth Downey; Martha Moore and Mrs. D. C. Moore; Phyllis and Steven Hill and Mrs. T. P. Hill; and Stephen Jenks, brother of the honoree, and Mrs. Jenks.

Party Saturday

Judy Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Walker, celebrated her fifth birthday Thursday, Mrs. Walker entertaining a group in the afternoon, Saturday, in observance of the occasion. In the group were Martha Mogan, Mary and Joan Griffith, Rosalie Ann Collins, Janet Chisholm, Sue Ann Randall and Judy.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Wright and sons, Larry and Bert, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown and son, Larry, came for dessert in honor of Judy's birthday.

MR. AND MRS. Raymond G. Heinonen (Dolores Donaldson) and daughter, Carol Ann, have moved to Medford to make their home. Mr. Heinonen is to be a

Tea Given at Mrs. Sholseth's

A large group of ladies enjoyed the friendship tea given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Sholseth. Pouring were Mrs. Leonard Kincaid and Mrs. R. F. Garinger and those serving were Mrs. H. D. Bradrick, Mrs. Edwin Burton and Mrs. D. F. Moehnke. Beautiful Christmas decorations were used in the rooms.

The program consisted of two groups of accordions numbers by Mrs. S. J. Maerz, and reports by Mrs. L. S. Johnson and Mrs. Axel Jacobsen. Mrs. R. L. Forster, chairman of the Brush College home extension unit, extended a welcome to new residents of the community, in whose honor the tea was given.

Present were Mrs. Emma Solie, Mrs. L. V. Rowe, Mrs. W. L. Lantis, Mrs. Earl Burk, Mrs. Axel Jacobsen, Mrs. Anson B. Ingels, Mrs. Tandy Burton, Mrs. V. K. Burton, Mrs. J. N. Nelke, Mrs. S. B. Leslie, Mrs. Mamie Van Santen, Mrs. I. S. Johnson, Mrs. D. E. Barnick, Mrs. C. J. Colton, Mrs. K. W. Harritt, Mrs. S. J. Maerz and Stanley, Mrs. R. L. Forster, Mrs. V. L. Gibson, Mrs. A. J. Finla, Mrs. Mike Focht, Mrs. C. P. Nelke, Mrs. W. H. Batey, Mrs. Olive Norwood, Mrs. F. Singer, Mrs. O. L. Sargent, Mrs. A. J. Torgerson, Mrs. A. J. Mazak, Ruth Ann Blackwell, Mrs. Edwin Burton, Mrs. H. D. Bradrick, Mrs. D. F. Moehnke, Mrs. G. A. Flesher, Mrs. Leonard Kincaid, Mrs. R. F. Garinger, Mrs. Helen Whitney, and Mrs. J. A. Sholseth.

pharmacist with a drug store there.

NATION - WIDE PROMOTION
FAMOUS-MAKE DRESSES
NOW AT 8.95

Beal Young

Lenbarrs

AS SEEN IN THE DECEMBER ISSUE OF SEVENTEEN

AS SEEN IN THE DECEMBER ISSUE OF MADMOISELLE

AS SEEN IN THE DECEMBER ISSUE OF GLAMOUR

might as well be spring!

Might as well be, you look so gay and pretty in this Spring-minded Persian Bayadere print! Complement catchers: the high round neck, circled of gold at the waist, and the full swirling skirt. In smooth rayon crepe. Red, green, rust. Sizes 9 to 15. 8.95 velvet takes to print!

And you'll take to velvet. It's such a subtle flatterer! Fact is, you'll take to everything about this slender Javanesse print: its elbow sleeves and peg-top pockets, as well as the black velvet collar, buttons and belt. In gold, winter rose or turquoise rayon crepe. Sizes 12 to 20. 8.95

EXTRA! VALUE!

EXTRA SAVINGS!

Compliment your wardrobe with these better fade-proof "up-to-the-minute" styled prints that you'll be more than proud to own. See These "EXTRAS" In Our Window!

Use Our Lay-Away Plan

Yes! You Can Charge It

Kay's
460 STATE

Springtime in your heart with you looking fresh and pretty in this print dress abloom with flowers and fashioned with the slender V-neck, softened bodice and graceful giving skirt you love so much. Rayon crepe in black, grey, navy. Sizes 14 1/2 to 24 1/2. 8.95