Miss Richter Wed, Monmouth

Monmouth—The wedding of Miss Nola Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter of Monmouth, to Clare R. Millhouser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Millhouser of Independence, was performed at the First Baptist church in Monmouth, Friday evening, December 9, with Rev. H. D. Wiebe, pastor of the church, officiating.

Two rows of guests with large bouquets of chrysanthemums and pink snapdragons were used to decorate the altar. Soloist was Ila Schunk who sang, with Ruth Schultz accompanying. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with veil. The bride carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid and white streamers.

The maid of honor was Miss Georgia Richter, sister of the bride, and she wore a gown of pink satin and carried gardenias. Keith Moore was best man and ushers were Milo Graber and Harold Enyblom of Independence.

A reception was held following the wedding in the church basement which was beautifully decorated. Mrs. Rose Mary Moore cut the wedding cake. The bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon College of Education and the bride is now attending that school. Following the school term the couple will leave for a honeymoon trip to California.
