With each contender taking the bout as a stepping stone to higher positions in the fist world, Dick Wolfe and Lou Nunes are expected to give all they have in Wednesday night's 10 round engagement at the armory.

Nunes claims the state welter title and it would take a knock-out on the part of Wolfe to shake the crown loose. Both have worked diligently for this appearance with Nunes predicting he will reverse the decision which went to Wolfe two weeks ago after 10 rounds of persistent shelling.

Mel Eagleman, a tireless worker, has been assigned the six round semi-windup against Tony Dacci. The latter, a smooth boxer, doesn't carry too much of a punch. Eagleman is favored to win.

A heavyweight bout will feature the preliminary card with Jerry Tompkins and Bill Downey, each weighing more than 200 pounds, slated for four rounds.

Al Cliff, improving steadily, will trade wallop with Johnny Schuster of Salem in a mid-weight tussle.

Another four rounder completes the card which opens at 8:30.

Wire Circuits Still Operate To Miami Books

Miami, Fla., Dec. 14 (AP)—The Miami Herald said today two wire circuits were still bringing racing information to this city and that all gambling activities in Key West have been ordered shut down.

The Herald said Miami bookmakers were still on a "time bet" basis and results came in over two circuits which, Western Union contends are outside the jurisdiction of the Florida railroad and public utilities commission.

One wire is a Morse circuit direct from Chicago, the Herald said. The second is a printer circuit from New Orleans servicing radio stations WINZ, WMIE and WTTT, the newspaper said.

Western Union unplugged the wires Monday at the commission's orders.

Bomber Enters Ring Wednesday 'For Fun' Again

Detroit, Dec. 14 (AP)—Retired Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis resumes his "for fun" exhibition program before a home town crowd tonight.

And the expected 12,000 house at Olympia stadium is likely to be more than casually observant.

Joe's two bouts tonight, of five rounds each against two rivals, follow upon his eighth-round knockout victory over Pat Valentino in Chicago a week ago.

That bout kicked up a lot of fuss. NBA Champion Ezzard Charles also kayoed Valentino in eight.

Once Beaten Gridders Called Best Pros Ever

By HERB ALTSCHULL
Philadelphia, Dec. 14 (AP)—Are the Philadelphia Eagles the greatest football team in history? There can't be, of course, a flat "yes" or "no" to that one, but chances are that if you take the affirmative position, you'll find as many—if not more—experts on your side as the other.

Old timers who recall the exploits of Bronko Nagurski, Red Grange, Jim Thorpe, George Gipp and the like, might disagree, to put it mildly.

But they'd have to argue with the men who should know—the coaches of the National Football league teams.

Almost to a man the NFL coaches pick the Eagles as the greatest defensive team of all time.

What makes the Eagles great? There is no single answer, but it is generally conceded the fact that there is no weak link in the line or backfield places the Eagles ahead of any other football team.

Earle (Greasy) Neale, the Eagles' able coach, looks at it this way:

"Other teams may have better men at some individual positions, but they don't come close to matching our boys right down the roster."

In the backfield the Eagles have such offensive standouts as Steven Van Buren, Tommy Thompson, Bosh Pritchard, Clyde (Smackover) Scott, Frank Ziegler, Jim Farmer and Jack Myers and such defensive stalwarts as Frank Reagan, Pat McHugh, Russ Craft and Humbert. And big Joe Muka fits in both groups, in addition to being a fine punter.

In the Eagles' defensive forward wall, winner by a wide margin of team honors in the league, you'll find such stand-out ends as Pete Pihos, Jack Ferrante, Neill Armstrong and Humbert. Tackles like Al Wistert, Vic Sears, Mike Jarmoluk and Jay McDowell, guards such as Cliff Patton, Frank Kilroy, Piggy Barnes and Mario Giannelli.

At center Alex Wojciechowitz, considered by many the best center in the past 25 years, has been ready for defensive work and Chuck Bednarik, two-time All America, for offensive. On the sidelines, out with injuries much of the season, was Vic Lindskog, rated by Los Angeles coach Clark Shaughnessy as the greatest of them all.

The Eagles left here yesterday for Los Angeles where they will play the Los Angeles Rams for the league championship Sunday after wrapping up their third straight eastern division title.

This has happened only three times before. Green Bay and the New York Giants each scored three straight. The Bears won the western division title four straight years, from 1940 through 1943.

The Eagles lost only one of 12 league games this season to the Chicago Bears, 38-21.

Boudreau Wants Gordon to Come Back to Tribe

New York, Dec. 14 (AP)—Hardware Merchant Joe Gordon of Eugene, Ore., was due to get a long distance phone call today from Harvey, Ill.—but not about hardware.

Boss Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians said here last night he was heading for home and as soon as he arrived he was going to telephone Gordon. He wants to know definitely whether Joe plans to play second base for the American league baseball team in 1950.

Gordon has asked the club to release him so he can remain on the Pacific coast, playing for a Coast league team. "I want Gordon back," said Boudreau. "I hope he tells me he will play at least another year."

Cards Defeat Woodburn, 34-33 on Cooney Toss

The Sacred Heart high school Cardinals nipped the Woodburn Bulldogs, 34 to 33 in a whirlwind finish on the St. Joseph floor Tuesday night. The game was a non-league affair.

The Cardinals nursed a 19-15 half time lead but the Bulldogs caught up and with approximately 10 seconds to play in the final period led 31-30. Clark Ecker of the Cards was fouled and he made good on two attempts from the gift line to put his club in front.

Sacred Heart took the ball out only to have Undesh of Woodburn intercept and dribble down the floor for a lay-in. That gave the 'Dogs a one point margin.

Just as the buzzer signalled the end of the hectic struggle Terry Cooney cut loose from 30 feet out to ring up a two pointer and the game.

The Cardinals went to the S.H.A. Bees, 41-24.

The Cardinals will go to Eugene Friday for a return engagement with St. Mary's.

Study Proposal For Pro Tennis Show in Salem
Possibility that Salem tennis fans may see top flight net performers in action here in February was seen during Tuesday night's meeting of the Salem school board.

The board considered a request by Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion for the staging of an exhibition match under the sponsorship of Robert Riggs, a New York City promoter. Names of the prospective contenders were not given.

While favoring the project, it was pointed out during board members' discussions that the high school gymnasium floor, where it was proposed to stage the match was far from ideal for such a contest. The low over-hanging balconies at either end made for poor service.

The promoter will provide two complete floor coverings for the court. Suggestion was made that the Parrish floor might be more suitable although spectator space was less than for the high school.

Football Letters Awarded Stayton Varsity and Bees

Stayton—During an assembly held by the high school Tuesday, football letters were awarded to 19 members of the first squad and 23 to the B string.

Captain Dave Brown presented the league trophy to Leonard Smith, president of the student body.

The basketball team continues to use a room with a low ceiling for practice because the gymnasium which will replace the one destroyed by fire early in the fall has not been completed. This situation has handicapped the Eagles in preparing for their games.

It is expected the new gym will be ready for use late in January.

Canby Slips By Stayton, 31-30
Canby—Behind three points with the game in its final moments, Ron Palmer collected two points from the foul line and another pair from the floor to give Canby high a 31-30 decision over Stayton Tuesday night. Stayton led 17-14 at the half.

Stayton salvaged the preliminary by topping Canby's Bees, 40 to 28.

Aumsville won the preliminary by the close margin of 24-23.

Enraged by what he considered unfair treatment on the part of his opponent and the referee, the "Great Atlas" walked off to the showers in Tuesday night's main event rattle match with George Dusette. As a result the affair went to Dusette by default.

After each contender had taken a fall, the pair tumbled from the ring with Dusette having a full nelson on his opponent. The hold was broken by the referee and Atlas stalked away.

Al Szasz and Maurice LaChapelle went 30 minutes to a draw while Mike Nazarian won over Buck Davidson via the one fall route.

Video Gets Veto From PCC Coaches at Meeting
Carmel, Calif., Dec. 14 (AP)—Television—the rival of college football attendance figures—got a thumbs down vote from Pacific Coast football coaches.

Coaches attending the three-day winter meeting of the Pacific Coast conference yesterday approved a statement expressing their opposition to televising football games. The consensus was that it had reduced attendances.

To all indications, video and the abatement of it again will be the featured topic of today's discussions.

Delegates frankly were worried about the possibility television might take the profit out of college football, the sport that carries the financial load for all collegiate athletics.

Vikings Trim Cheesers by 47-25; Eye Eugene Contest

Salem high's Vikings, carrying a four-game victory record, went back to work Wednesday to prepare for the first Big Six League cage game of the 1949-50 season with Eugene Friday.

The Viks collected their fourth in a row Tuesday night when they processed the Tillamook Cheesemakers with a 47 to 25 drubbing. Earlier, the Salems swept aside all opposition in the pre-season Klamath Falls tourney.

Captain Daryl Girod who can't a gift shot, put the Viks

In their first home game, Coach Harold Hauk's squads showed ragged and erratic play, and the game was a constantly slowed by whistling down some 20 fouls by the Tillamooks.

Yet, the Salem play was marked by a fine showing of teamwork, and the lanky Vikings managed to control both backboards during the entire contest.

Captain Daryl Girod who can't a gift shot, put the Viks in the scoring column in the first quarter and from that single point onward, the Cheesemakers were steadily outdistanced.

Deb Davis and Doug Rogers shared high-point honors for the team with nine each, while Jim Rock collected eight, six via the free throw method. Tillamook's forward Bob Riggert checked in ten points.

Riggert and his teammate Bob Dental both left the contest in the final quarter on fouls.

The opening lineup of Wayne Walling and Rogers at forward, Rock at center and Girod teamed with Davis at guard was pulled by Coach Harold Hauk near the end of the second quarter when Salem led, 23-9.

From that point on, Hauk shifted his men, endeavoring to give them game experience and measure their abilities in different combinations.

In the opening game Tuesday night, Loren Mort's Jayvees of Salem high trimmed the Cheese Bees, 35 to 24.

St. Louis School Drops Football, Keeps Cage Team

St. Louis, Dec. 14 (AP)—St. Louis university, whose football glory belonged to the distant past, today abandoned the sport entirely.

The decision was announced jointly by the Very Rev. Paul C. Reinert, president of the university, and Bill Durney, its athletic director.

It followed one of the worst grid seasons the school ever had, both on the field and at the ticket window. The team won two games, tied one and lost six. The football program was reliably reported to have cost St. Louis U. $100,000. About the same amount was dropped in 1948 when the team won four and lost seven.

Basketball, the sport at which St. Louis U. has lately achieved national prominence, will continue, nor will other sports programs be affected.
