

Evergreen Chapter Elects New Woodburn Star Heads

Woodburn—Mrs. Mabel Harper was named worthy matron of Evergreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, at the annual election of officers at the Masonic Temple, and Earl C. Housewart was elected worthy patron.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Mabel Dixon, associate patron; Mrs. Minnie Richards, secretary (re-elected for the 39th year); Mrs. Estella Anderson, treasurer (re-elected); Mrs. Freda Burt, conductress; Mrs. Lois Wengenroth, associate conductress; and Mrs. Florence Butterfield, re-elected member of the board of trustees.

Hubbard—The annual meeting of Hubbard Cemetery association was held in the Legion hall. The only director present was George Lettler, who presided. Mrs. A. F. deLespinasse was appointed secretary-treasurer, pro-tem.

A new board of directors was elected consisting of Dr. A. F. deLespinasse, Garfield Voget, Miss Frances Weaver, Mrs. A. J. Smith and Leland Koehner. An amendment to the by-laws was made to allow the directors to elect the secretary-treasurer. The new board will meet Friday evening, December 16 at the home of Dr. deLespinasse, at which time a secretary-treasurer will be elected.

All records from the date of organization, June 1882 to 1948 were at hand. Records from 1948 to date are in possession of the caretaker, George Zeek, to be turned over at the board meeting Friday, Manton Carl will retain power of attorney for the association if and when necessary.

The members decided to have a general clean-up day as soon as weather permits when all able-bodied men and women of all workable ages will be called upon to give the first clean-up. deLespinasse will place the call as soon as work can be done on the grounds.

Work toward the clean-up and improvement was started with impetus last spring when the newly-elected president of the Hubbard Woman's club, Mrs. A. J. Smith appointed Mrs. deLespinasse on the civic committee, and together they decided upon this project in response to the need.

Members having birthday anniversaries from July to January were presented with birthday cards and each officer received a gift from the worthy matron and worthy patron.

Mrs. Edda Hall, 85, the oldest member of the chapter in years, who now resides in Salem, was present and was also presented with a birthday gift, and the chapter also voted to send a gift to Mrs. Maude Mochele, who is now in a Portland rest home.

No meeting of the chapter will be held December 26 on account of the Christmas holiday. The next meeting will be January 9 and will be "Charter night," when the two charter members will be honored. Mrs. Harper announced Mrs. Maude Scott, Miss Laura Bonney, Miss Gladys Adams, Mrs. Minnie Bissell, Mrs. Lalah Loney and Earl Loney as the refreshments committee for that evening.

A meeting of the advisory board of Rainbow was announced at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 14, preceding the regular meeting of Rainbow.

After the meeting Christmas carols were sung by the entire group, led by Mrs. N. F. Tyler and a "cake walk" by the Social club followed.

Refreshments were served by the past matrons. The tables were beautiful with Christmas decorations. Between 80 and 90 members and visitors were in attendance.

Mrs. Rowe Hostess For Stayton Club

Stayton—The Stayton Garden club will hold its Christmas meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Henry Rowe when each member is requested to bring a Christmas gift which they have grown.

Recommendations for officers for the coming year have been made by the nominating committee which has suggested Mrs. Reba Ingalls for president; Mrs. Louie Stagner for vice president; and Mrs. Marcella Ware, secretary-treasurer. The committee is composed of Mrs. Louise Berger, chairman, and Mrs. Barbara Avey, Mrs. Mary Reynolds, Mrs. Lucy Peabody and Mrs. Nettie Downing.

In charge of the garden center in the Stayton branch of the First National bank of Portland, during the month of November were Mrs. Nettie Downing and Mrs. Bertha McDaniel. Mrs. Ingalls will be in charge of the center in December.

Silverton Lutheran Women Will Elect

Silverton—The Woman's Missionary Federation of Emmanuel Lutheran church, a combination organization of all women's groups in the congregation, will meet for election of officers Thursday evening 8 o'clock.

The missionary topic to be discussed will be presented by Mrs. Stanley Swanson, subject, "Nineth, Black Man of God." Mrs. Justin Dyrud will appear as program vocal soloist, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Dahl, accompanist.

With Mrs. Luther Hatteberg having served for the year as chairman of box work, many articles are finished and sent to the Parkland Children's home with the Christmas donations from the federation members.

Mrs. John Overlund, WMF librarian, will tell of the literature used in the WMF programs. Social hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Max Holland and Mrs. Ed Ostgaard.

Junior Church Guild Plans Holiday Affair

Silverton—Plans were completed for the Thursday evening Christmas party for the members of the families of the Junior Woman's Guild of the First Christian church, at their regular session at the parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Charles Bates. The affair is to be at the social rooms of the church.

Mrs. Lester Hagen of Salem presented the study topic: "Immigrants." Mrs. Clifford directed the worship hour in a recounting of Bible Christmas stories. Serving during the social hour were Mrs. Tom Myers and Mrs. Emanuel Kellerhals jr.

Joint Installation Slated For Gervais

Gervais—Robin A. White was elected worshipful master of fidelity lodge No. 54, AF & AM and will succeed Oscar Evans. Other officers elected were Elmer McCloughry, senior warden; Clyde Phillips, junior warden; Arthur Keene, treasurer, and J. P. Aspinwall, secretary (re-elected).

Joint installation with Gervais chapter No. 118, Order of the Eastern Star, has been set for Thursday night, preceded by a 6:30 o'clock dinner.

Canadian Ballet—Members of the Winnipeg Ballet offer a tableau of "Visages," their presentation in the Canadian Ballet Festival at Toronto given by dance groups from six cities.

Forum Seeking Wider Scope

Silverton—At the breakfast program and business meeting of the Silverton Chamber of Commerce, the forum voted to accept the presented changes and additions to the by-laws making more consistent and flexible the dates and occasions including places of meeting.

Cooperation of granges is to be asked in wiring the Soil Conservation rooms in the Washington Irving building.

Errol Ross presented an attractive baseball trophy to the forum members signifying state championship of the McGinnis managed team for the past season. Plans were begun for the coming season's play.

The local chamber of commerce is anxious to bring the state corn show here. But as was announced, next year's place for the show is already planned, the forum hopes to be able to have the 1951 show in Silverton.

On the much discussed Silverton-Salem proposed highway routing, Dr. P. A. Loar told of 701 petitioners signed and filed with county and state officials. Harold Bartsch is forum president and Walter Geren secretary.

State Work Starts Soon at Lebanon

Lebanon—Work is slated to start soon on the Lebanon building to house Linn county's department of state registration for automobiles. The local structure will also be headquarters offering complete information to all county tourists. A similar smaller office is also slated for erection in Albany.

Secretary of State Earl Newby was quoted as saying the reason for two such offices in Linn county is the large number of automobiles numbering about 30,000 in the county, and prospects for 35,000 in the near future.

The Lebanon office was the original one sanctioned by Newby. He made the announcement during a visit to this city several months ago when he and a group from the Salem office viewed several sites and lunched with local business men and city officials.

Charity Gun Shoot For Lebanon Elks

Lebanon—The local Elks lodge will stage their annual turkey shoot at the Lebanon Gun club grounds Sunday, announces John Smith, exalted ruler. All proceeds from the day's shooting will be used for charity, he said.

Prizes being offered during the day include turkeys, chickens, hams and bacons.

Shooting will commence at 9:30 a.m. and will last throughout the day. Lunch and shells will be available at the club house located on the grounds.

The gun club is one mile west of the city on Oak street.

Ample parking space is provided for cars on the grounds parking lot. Spectators are welcome, Smith said.

Mrs. Beulah Reed has gone to Washington state to visit relatives in Tacoma and Seattle and will be gone a week.

Court Marion Holds Party

Mt. Angel—The annual Christmas party was held following the regular meeting of Court Marion, Catholic Daughter of America, when 150 members were present for the exchange of gifts, a late supper, and a program at the lighted Christmas tree, with Christmas carol singing by the membership at the close of the entertainment. A comical pantomime, "Meller-Dramer," was presented by the hosts committee.

Mrs. George Antoine gave the reading, assisted by the Mesdames Clarence Ebner, Andy Wachter, Victor Hoffer, Louise Vachter, Mathilda Simon, Dean Huffautter, James Erwert, Norbert Butsch, Maurice Sausser, Clement Butsch, Dorothy Etsel, Francis Schmidt, Tony Bigler, Ivo Bauman, Derald Zollner, Leona Kleinschmidt and W. J. Kloft and Miss Theresa Dehler. Santa Claus for the evening was Mrs. Alice Kroll, Miss Pat Connell was accompanist at the piano, and the co-chairmen were Miss Henrietta Saalfeld and Mrs. Victor Hassing. Rev. Father Damian Jentges, pastor, and Rev. Fa'ther Hildebrand Melchior, chaplain, were special guests.

At the business session Mrs. Al Lulay, grand regent, announced that Mrs. J. A. Kaiser will compile data on the number of converts in Court Marion and other information requested by Mrs. Jean Sander of Tillamook. Share the Faith chairman, Mrs. Alois Keber, war relief chairman, reported 16 packages were sent to Europe in the past month.

Eight of these were "Toys for Toys," sponsored by both the Mt. Angel Council, Knights of Columbus, and Court Marion, CDA. The other eight packages included old good clothing for grown-ups and children, food and soaps. Letters of Christmas greetings, thanks and appreciation were already received by Mrs. Keber from three institutions overseas, telling of the great joy at receiving that warm clothing and food.

Mrs. Fred Baumgartner has volunteered to drive her car or name a driver during January for the Benedictine nuns, teaching Christian Doctrine at Chema-wa on Sunday mornings.

Mrs. Ed Hoffer and Mrs. J. J. Penner are co-chairmen for the banquet which the Mt. Angel Council Knights of Columbus are sponsoring for Sunday evening, December 18, after their initiation here that day. They will be assisted by the Mesdames Mark Purdy, Richard Foltz, Otto Wellman, Victor Hoffer, Gene Hoffer, Val Eberle, Alois Keber, Albert Diehl, Joseph Walker Sr.,
