(Chapter 9)
THE WIGGLE WAGGLE

"Oh, my!" gasped Henry in terrible tear. "You must be one of the Wiggle Waggles."

"Right you are." said the citim cose three loud honks. All the wind has saucer like ears wiggled and waggled like aspen leaves in a breeze. "Come, now. Follow me. He turned into the woods, Henry did not know what to do. If these elves were as wicked as he had heard should he not return to Santa Land as fast as his quaking legs could carry him? Out the other hand, the creature said he had Santa's wand!

"I must go with him," decided Henry. "No matter how danger—ous."

Immediately he started after the Wiggle Waggle. He cheered up when he thought how happy and surprised Mr. Dilly would be when he returned with the wand.

The Wiggle Waggle pushed on through the woods, Henry's feet sank deep into the znow but the Wiggle Waggle seemed to walk on top of the snow and have no weight at all. In fact he went so fast that Henry would have lost him if the Wiggle Waggle seemed to walk on top of the snow and have no weight at all. Now Henry could remember many times lying in his bed at night and hearing strange noises in the black house of Mrs. Snell. Had it beer one of the Wiggle Waggles blowing his nose? he wondered with a shiver.

er. "But, now," went on the elf, "We have all come north because of course you know Santa is having a big party tomorrow. Simply everyone is invited. Everyone except the Wiggle Waggles. We are quite angry about it and mean to pay Santa back."

Wiggle Waggles. We are quite anargy about it and mean to pay Santa back."

This sounded very rude to Henry. He started to say that he thought the Wiggle Waggles should just forget about it and maybe Santa would invite them the next time he had a party. But before he could say this, the Wiggle Waggle darted into a cave. When Henry followed him he very soon saw why Santa felt the Wiggle Waggles should not come to any party of his.

For the Wiggle Waggles appeared to be the most quarrelsome people in all of elidom. What a honking and squalling and waggling of ears there was in that cave! Henry stood perfect!; still and stared about in astonishment.

There were about a hundred blue-nosed, saucer-eared creatures pushing each other around Some were slapping each other, some were kicking, some were honking their noses and howling. "Goodness!" cried Henry. "Why are they fighting?"

The creature who had led him there shrugged his shoulders. "We always squabble," he said matter-of-factly. "Can't help it."

One Wiggle Waggle by the hair. The two of them crashed against Henry was so frightened he started out of the cave. But at that very moment there was an extra loud honking and a deep voice cried. "Be quieted. The biggest and ugliest one the said.

Instantly the Wiggle Waggles quieted. The biggest and ugliest one then said to Henry. 'I am Zezop. What do you want?"
"I — I won't stay long." atammered Henry. "I—I just came to get my wand—Santa's wand, that is."
