The Glamor Gifts

(AP Newsfeatures)

When shopping for last-minute glamor gifts for family and friends, give something appropriate. Don't take just any old thing because time is getting short. You can make wise selections by making a list of things you want for each person on your list. You'll find it is simpler to shop when you know what you want. Here are some suggestions:

FOR GRANNY . . . Just because she's a grandmother don't think she won't adore a beautiful compact that she can fill with her favorite powder. Or how about a travel case filled with creams and lotions to perk up her weary face after a trip? Bath sets containing scented soaps and toiletries are other top-of-the-tree favorites. A good hair brush and comb always is welcome. One packed in a knitting box offers double appeal.

FOR MOM . . . You can splurge on her. She'll adore a gift certificate to a beauty salon, a vitalator machine for beauty massages, a home permanent wave, perfume in special bottles, cologne, special beauty kits containing favorite cosmetics or a compact with jewel trim—perfect for evenings out with Pa.

FOR BIG SIS . . . Sachet pillows for lingerie and sachet hangers for special dresses will make a big hit with Sis. A box-office beauty kit is a compact carry-all for make-up at home, office or on the campus, a wallet containing a lipstick and compact, a nosegay of violets concealing four lipsticks, a Christmas stocking containing everything for the bath from dusting powder to fluffy milk bath petal wafers are useful and practical. Budget priced are liquids which are painted over the lips to keep lipstick from smearing, lipstick with mirror attached, a pink tinted heart of soap with a bottle of perfume nestled atop it, manicure cutlery set containing cuticle scissors, nail file, tweezers and cuticle pusher—in a zippered case.

FOR TEEN-SIS . . . Start her off right with delicate colognes, perfumes and sachets, a debutante-type kit of make-up essentials, a set of various nail polishes and manicure essentials (a budget nail polish and lipstick combination comes with a round plastic base and a built-in finger rest). A fun compact is available with a horseshoe, wishbone or four-leaf clover motif, solid perfume in a bracelet compact to dangle from her wrist, a comb and brush set for her vanity table.

Girl Scouts Fete Retiring President

Mrs. Spaulding Honored—At a recent meeting of the incoming and outgoing officers of Santiam area council, Girl Scouts of America, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, the retiring council president, was honored by members of troop No. 4, Salem, an orchid being presented her. Preceding the presentation the color guard of the troop performed. In the picture, left to right: Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller, Albany, the incoming council president; Mrs. Spaulding, Carol Randall, Joan Bale and Ann Berger of troop 4. Other scouts also remembered Mrs. Spaulding with gifts in appreciation for her work with the group. (Jesten-Miller studio picture).

WOMEN'S auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church is meeting Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the parish hall.

Reports will be given on the Episcopal church triennial convention held in San Francisco this past summer by the women who went from here as delegates to the auxiliary convention held in conjunction with the church event. The reports will be given by Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. George Corwin, Miss Marjorie Harris and Miss Elizabeth Porter.

The nominating committee also will report. Tea will follow the business and program.

Officers for Guild Elected

Officers for the Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church were re-elected at the meeting of the group, Tuesday afternoon. They include Mrs. Paul Gemmill, president; Mrs. W. C. Gabriel, vice president; Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Sr., secretary; Mrs. Eugene Foster, treasurer; Mrs. John Langrell, Mrs. Elmer Smith and Mrs. Earl Andresen, directors.

A large group attended the guild event in the church parish hall, husbands and friends being guests for the luncheon. Holly wreaths, red candles, figurines and the manger scene featured the Christmas decorations. Mrs. H. H. Henry, Mrs. Gemmill and Mrs. Wilson were in charge of the table decorations.

Mrs. George Rossman was a special guest and gave a review of the book, "The Big Fisherman." Many additional members and guests came in after the luncheon to hear the program.

Mrs. Custer Ross was general chairman for the meeting and was assisted by Mesdames A. J. Rahn, Louis Lachmund, E. J. Scellars, P. J. Russ, Ralph H. Cooley, Carl Hansen, George W. Maurer, Miller Hayden, E. H. Kennedy, William H. Lytle, C. B. McCullough, Lee Warnick, Don Roberts, T. H. Galloway, Frank Minto, Gerald Fisher, L. W. Miles, Mrs. Ethel Webb, Miss Virginia Nowlen.

Gold Star Mothers

Salem chapter of The American Gold Star Mothers, Inc. will meet Thursday for their Christmas party at 8 p.m. in the VFW hall. The members will not exchange gifts but will bring a gift for the hospitalized veterans at the Roseburg and Camp

Club Party At Hagens

A party is planned at the E. J. Hagen home for Sunday evening, members of Mrs. Hagen's bridge club to entertain for their husbands with a buffet dinner at 5 o'clock. Holiday decorations will be featured, including a bronze Christmas tree on the buffet and other holiday favors.

Employes Group Planning Party

Highway chapter, No. 1, State Employes association, has planned its Christmas party for next Tuesday evening, December 20, at Chuck's Steak House, dinner to be served at 7 o'clock. There will be dancing and special entertainment. Between 75 and 100 are expected to attend.

Pupils from Chemawa Indian school are to give the special entertainment. Each one attending is to take a gift for a child, these presents then to go to the Shrine hospital for crippled children. Miss Ruth Rawlings and A. J. Head are co-chairmen for the party.

LIBERTY—The Liberty Woman's club will hold its annual Christmas party on Thursday, December 15 at the home of Mrs. Harold Lane on Skyline Road.

There will be a no-host dinner at noon, and a gift exchange. All members are asked to remember the stuffed toys for the children of Fairview Home. All ladies living in the Liberty district are welcome. They are invited to come and get acquainted.

Anyone wishing to send magazines to Fairview Home is to bring them to the party and they will be taken to the home with the gifts.
