

Acheson Admits Arms Aid Row

Washington, Dec. 15 (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson Wednesday first denied and then confirmed that the United States and her Atlantic pact allies still are disputing over conditions for sending U. S. arms aid to Europe.

Acheson had denied at a news conference that negotiations covering terms for sending arms aid to Europe have hit some snags.

He reversed himself after an hour-long conference with British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks on difficulties that have cropped up during negotiations since Nov. 3.

The department announced that W. Averel Harriman, roving ambassador in Europe, has been named U. S. representative on the North Atlantic defense financial and economic committee. The committee was set up last month by the North Atlantic council to advise on the financial and economic aspects of the defense plan.

Gets Death Choice of Gallows, Firing Squad

Ogden, Utah, Dec. 15 (AP)—Ray Dempsey Gardner faces a mandatory death sentence Friday, following his conviction for the rape-slaying of 17-year-old Shirley Jean Gretzinger.

The jury of 12 men took just an hour Tuesday night to return a verdict of guilty, with no recommendation of leniency.

When the 28-year-old ex-convict and mental hospital inmate stands before Second District Judge John A. Hendricks he will be given his choice of death on the gallows or before a firing squad.
