Ram Trio Named to All-Pro Grid Squad by Press Vote

By FRANK ECK (AP News Features Sports Editor)
New York, Dec. 15 (AP)—Three players from the Los Angeles Rams, western division champions of the National Football league, today were named on the Associated Press All-Pro team for 1949.

The Cleveland Browns, top team in the All-America conference since its inception in 1946, gained two places as did the Philadelphia Eagles, for the third straight year winners of the eastern division in the National league.

The three Rams on the first team are triple-threat back Bob Waterfield, center Fred Naumetz and guard Dick Huffman. The two Browns are brilliant signal caller and passer Otto Graham and sensational pass catching end Mac Speedie. The two Eagles are Steve Van Buren, hardest runner in pro football, and Pete Pihos, terrific end.

In all, the National league gained six places. The other All-Pro from the senior circuit is Garrard Ramsey of the Chicago Cardinals. The other three places went to Chet Mutyryn, 175-pound backfield workhorse of the Buffalo Bills; Arnie Weinmeister, giant tackle of the Brooklyn-New York Yankees, and guard Dick Barwegan of the Baltimore Colts.

The players were chosen after tabulating Associated Press sports writers' reports on the 17

Favor Earlier Starts for Grid Games in Poll

New York, Dec. 15 (AP)—Earlier starting times for college football games are generally favored by sports writers and sportscasters.

An Associated Press poll today showed that a majority of the observers would like to see games started at 1 p.m. and not later than 1:30 p.m.

Darkness and cold were the main reasons given.

major league pro teams in 12 cities.

A significant thing about the first team is that seven of the players were with teams in the final playoffs of the rival leagues.

The San Francisco 49ers, runner-up to Cleveland during the regular season, placed four men on the second team.

Three All-Americans Chosen
Three former All-Americans made the first team. They are Graham, Northwestern ace in 1948; Huffman, 1946 star for Tennessee, and Ramsey, William & Mary star in 1942.

Three players—Van Buren, Speedie and Pihos—were unanimous selections in that they gained votes in every city in which they played during the season.

Phog, Who Favored Higher Hoops, Has Real Altitude

Lawrence, Kas., Dec. 15 (AP)—Phog Allen, who lost his fight to raise basketball baskets two feet, has come up with some skyscraping players by way of rebuttal.

Some are so big it requires two Pullman berths to bed one man comfortably.

Phog's team this year is the tallest in his 33 seasons as head coach at the University of Kansas.

For years he has campaigned to add a couple of feet to the 10-foot baskets. He feels it would "equalize the game" for tall and short players. But with little success in his campaign, he's turning to tall men.

Three of the players in a 13-man traveling squad occupied six berths on an overnight trip to Cincinnati, where they play tonight.

The headboards between Pullman berths had to be removed for Clyde Lovellette, 6 feet 9 inches, and Gene Peterson and Jack Carby, both 6 feet, 7 inches.

The traveling squad also included such lofty fellows as Claude Houchin, 6-5, and Maurice Martin and Bill Hougland, each 6-4.

Major Leaguers Worry Over Radio Broadcast Monster

New York, Dec. 15 (AP)—Big league baseball, worried over the possible effects of new federal broadcasting regulations, was asking today "Have we created a monster that will destroy us?"

The club owners spent the entire day yesterday discussing the new ruling by Attorney General J. Howard McGrath which they themselves fought for.

Now they are concerned lest their farm clubs and the other minor league teams, which are the backbone of baseball, suffer disastrous attendance losses while fans elect to stay home and listen to broadcasts of big league games.

Deadpan Louis Says No Thought Of Regular Bouts

Detroit, Dec. 15 (AP)—Retired Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis toyed with two opponents last night in a pair of five-round exhibition bouts that were more of a financial than a fistic success.

Louis had the same old deadpan expression as he chugged through his chores with Irish Johnny Flynn of Rochester, N.Y.

The former heavy weight king's weight was announced at 225 but he looked to be even heavier than that. Flynn came in at 210 and Toles at 225.

A crowd of 9257 paid a gross gate of $19,778.96.

Asked if he had changed his mind about returning to the ring for some real scraps, Louis replied:

"Nothing that has happened in these exhibition fights has got me to thinking that I should go back into the ring for regular fights."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Now Hospitals Are "Banks," Too!

Doc Simpson was saying, "Hospitals are building up 'bone banks' that work just like blood banks. When bone is needed, the surgeon takes one from a refrigerator, cuts it to the right shape and simply splices it in."

"You doctors are sure making progress," I say, "but tell me, are any of the patients fussy about whose bone they're getting?"

"No sir!" replies Doc. "No more than they worry about whose blood they get. No one yet asked for a bone from a man who went to the same school or church he did."

From where I sit, it would be a better world if we were half as willing to accept other people's ideas and tastes, as we seem to be willing to accept their bone and blood. There'll always be differences. Some like buttermilk, others would rather have a sparkling glass of temperate beer. But underneath we're pretty much the same—deserving each other's respect and tolerance!
