

Santa Magician AND THE

(Chapter 19)
A PRESENT FOR HENRY

Henry ran back to Santa Land as fast as he could. Mr. Dilly and Serena were waiting for him in Santa's cottage.

"I've got it! I've got it!" cried Henry handing the wand to Mr. Dilly.

"Thank goodness!" cried Mr. Dilly. "When we woke and found you gone I did not know what to think. I couldn't come after you because Mrs. Claus asked me to stay and watch her cakes."

"Happy dippy," broke in Serena. "You never seen such cakes as they are making for tomorrow's party. Come, boy, there are spoons to lick!"

"No," protested Mr. Dilly. "Tell us first how you found the wand."

So Henry told them about the strange Wiggle Waggle and how he feared them because of their fierce manner.

"Well they can't be very bad since they gave you the wand," said Mr. Dilly.

Then he took the wand and put it in Santa's little black box. He felt wonderfully happy. "Now Santa never need know it was gone," he said thankfully as he shut the box and returned it to the corner. Neither he nor Henry dreamed that it wasn't Santa's wand but the Wiggle Waggle's wand which Zepp had wickedly traded.

Henry was so happy and so surprised he could hardly keep his fingers steady as he pulled eagerly at the ribbon.

But Tweedleknus shouted, "No, no!"

Henry looked up in dismay. "Do not open until Christmas!" Tweedleknus sternly said giving Henry all the same, his very nicest smile.
