Leahy Lauds Wilkinson in Tossing Coaching Orchids

of the post-season games for this year, I should like to take the opportunity to review some of the outstanding coaching per-formances that were turned in during the 1949 season.

My own personal opinion is that Bud Wilkinson is one of the finest coaches in the pro-fession, and in view of his youthfulness I feel that in years to come he will go down as one of football's all time turned in the leading coach-ing performance on the West coast, while Coach Blaik's Army team registered one of the season's biggest upsets by downing defending Nation-al Champion Michigan, and greats.

Once again in the forefront in the coaching business were Lynn Holding victories over the win-Waldorf and Earl Blaik. These two men who have the ability ern, and Southwestern conferentiation.

of coordinating amazing foot-ces, the L.S.U. Tigers, coached ball knowledge with sound by Gaynell Tinsley, will prove teaching methods will always be a most worthy foe for Oklahoma among the high ranking men in in the Sugar Bowl

In winning the Southwestern conference crown Jess Neely of Rice completed one of the standout achievements of the entire season. Being given little con-sideration in the pre-season picks, the Owls fooled the expiers, the Owis tooled the ex-perts as they displayed amazing spirit and determination in de-feating such formidable foes as S.M.U., Texas, T.C.U., and Bay-lor. We could never think of the Southwest without remember-ing the remarkable manner in which Matty Bell prepared his complished by Bud Wilkinson at the University of Oklahoma. The personable Wilkinson guided the Sooners through one of the ir toughest schedules ending up as one of the four major undefeated teams in the country.

Having worked under such despite Charlie Justice being interpretations as unspecified with Notre Dame.

But he went through the year undefeated to prove they were definitely the power of the East.

In the South it was Carl ing the remarkable manner in which Matty Bell prepared his "Walker-less-Mustangs" for the scaon's finale with Notre Dame.

Elsewhere in the country marvelous of the year.

Having worked under such capable men as Bernie Bierman, Don Faurot, and Larry Mullins, it is easy to see that Bud picked up all of the experience these men possessed and combined them with his own brilliance to present a 1949 team which made Oklahoma the number one representative of the split "T" in America.

a subsequent Cotton Bowl bid, despite Charlie Justice being indespite Charlie and Len Casanova, whose Santa Clara Broncos will provide much difficulty for Kentucky in the Orange Bowl.
