

'Show Your Face'—Hiding his features behind a handkerchief, Herman Bernstein reaches for his hat sent sailing by his 76-year-old accuser, Mrs. Ella Gall (left), who challenged him to "Show your face, so other women will know what a cheap chisler you are!" Mrs. Gall, who hasn't forgotten what Bernstein looked like, came to a Hollywood jail to identify him as the man she says wooed her confidence then beat her and robbed her of $3800 in cash and $1200 in jewels three years ago. Bernstein has served a series of stretches on similar convictions. (Acme Telephoto.)

German Version of Jane, Betty Replies to Marriage Proposals

Hamburg, Germany, Dec. 17 (AP)—A blue-eyed German girl, who says she is blessed with "A bosom like Jane Russell and legs like Betty Grable" has received more than 400 marriage proposals from Americans.

The offers have been flooding the mails ever since Ilse Deringski, buxom Hamburg school teacher, wrote to Mayor Walter Sundegaard of Gettysburg, S. D., outlining her physical endowments and saying she wants a "good American husband."

She said she had replied to three of the letters and was giving the rest to other German girls.

Ilse told reporters today there is one detail to be cleared up before she accepts any of the proposals. She said she is awaiting a final divorce decree from her present husband—a Pole now in the United States.

When she decided her next husband would be an American, Ilse said she shut her eyes and jabbed her finger at a map of the United States. She hit Gettysburg. She then wrote Sundegaard, asking for a good American husband, and describing herself.

Ilse declined today to prove her assertions by posing for photographs in a bathing suit, but she gave her measurements as:

Height, five feet four inches; weight, 118 pounds; bust, 37 inches; waist, 30 inches; hips, 39 inches; thigh, 19 inches; calf, 12 inches; and ankle, eight inches. For purposes of comparison, the figures show:

Russell: Bust 37 1/2 inches; hips 36 inches; waist, 27 inches; height, 57 1/2 inches; weight, 137 pounds.

Grable: Thigh, 19 1/2 inches; calf, 13 inches; and ankle, 7 inches.

Ilse said she has received letters from all over the U. S. mostly from the west.

BEAUTY EXPERT SAYS:

A Girl to Be Glamorous Must Have Long Hair

New York, Dec. 17 (AP)—Girdles and short hair-dos take away a girl's sex appeal, a beauty expert said today. Joyce Slone, adviser to Broadway's beautiful Wally Wanger showgirls, said women should "show a natural curve" if they expect to "attract and hold their men."

"As for short hair-dos," she said, "they're definitely not feminine. They create an air of masculinity. A girl, to be glamorous, must have long hair."

She said girdles and other supports made the figure "too confined."

"They hurt a girl's posture and carriage," she said. "And besides, a girl's natural curves are more attractive to the men. A showgirl's face and figure are her fortune. Few wear girdles."

Miss Slone said the corps of Wanger chorines, who perform in New York's top night clubs, supported her argument.

"A girl's figure must not be too thin or stout," Miss Slone said. "It must be full enough to show curves from every angle, if it be attractive."

Showgirls, she said, always have "rounded figures and are

Pearson Sues For $1,200,000

New York, Dec. 17 (AP)—Columnist Drew Pearson, who originally sued Columnist Westbrook Pegler and others for $500,000 in a libel action, now is suing for $1,200,000.

Pearson obtained court permission yesterday to increase the amount of the suit, after claiming that he and Pegler made an agreement in 1946 not to criticize each other publicly.

Pearson alleged Pegler violated the agreement in his columns of last May 23, June 8 and July 2. The libel action is based on statements made by Pegler in the three columns.

Pegler denies making any non-criticism pact with Pearson.

Pearson's amended action is seeking $300,000 from King Features Syndicate and Pegler; $200,000 from King Features alone; $200,000 from Pegler alone, and $500,000 from Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc.
