Sympathetic Nation Showers Little Dean, 2, With Presents

Seattle, Dec. 17 (AP)—A sympathetic nation was beating a path to the home of two-year-old Dean Ault today, showering the lad, who faces blindness or death, with Christmas presents and good wishes.

The ault phone was ringing constantly. One call came from New York City where a doctor's son wanted to hear first-hand the account of the cancerous growth which has claimed one of the curly-haired boy's eyes, and is eating away on the other.

Dean's newly-acquired dog, Lucky Lady, the gift of a Canadian mother of five, followed the boy's heels as he romped around the house.

The mailman's sack was bulging.

A little stuffed elephant from Berkeley, Calif.; a train from a local department store; sympathetic letters from such places as Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha and Philadelphia.

"The mailman brought a shopping bag full of mail yesterday," Ault said.

As Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ault fondly watched their son playing with his new pet, a black cocker spaniel pup, temporarily forgotten was the spectre of death or blindness which hangs over the lad.

"I see no sense in going to the Elks' eye clinic in Portland (Ore.)," Ault said, "if we're going to get the same answer." Eminent eye specialists in Seattle and San Francisco have told him the only chance for life for the lad was to have his other eye removed.

"We'll spend Christmas at home," Mrs. Ault said, "and at least have a chance to shop."

Ault, an unemployed one-armed construction cost accountant, said a job was developing for him after the first of the year at Everett, Wash.

Dean's right eye was removed nearly two months ago when a cancerous infection set in, apparently after a fall from a chair. Doctors said the tumor has attacked the other eye and is eating towards the child's brain.

Build Power to Scare Russia, Advises Urey

Washington, Dec. 17 (AP)—Dr. Harold C. Urey believes the only hope of preventing an atomic war is for the Western Democracies to build up so much power that Russia will be afraid to start a conflict "it is sure to lose."

And the only way for the democracies to build up such an "enormous unbalance of power," (the famous atomic scientist said last night, is for the Democracies to form a federal union.

Urey, who helped to develop the American atomic bomb, addressed the Atlantic Union committee, of which he is a leading member. The committee is supporting pending legislation calling on President Truman to invite North Atlantic pact nations to a federal convention. The union he proposes would conduct military, foreign, and international trade affairs for the member states.

That all-important letter to Santa; in it we told him the many things we wanted. We were children then . . .

Now, as adults, we have discovered a new approach to Santa. Wherever possible, we drop little hints about the things we need, in the hope that we'll receive useful gifts.

The first Christmas came while the world was still very young. The people of Bethlehem were looking for the kind of king who would live in a palace. That was the sort of Messiah they wanted.

But God gave them a Child in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger . . . a babe destined to become a spiritual King . . . the kind of Messiah the world needed.

The mark of spiritual maturity is the realization that sacred needs are more important than secular wants. This is the Christmas season. Come to your Church and receive GOD'S GIFT.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
