

Joeten-Miller studio picture

SPINSTERS CLUB MEMBERS working on plans for the annual charity ball to be given the night of December 25 include these three, left to right: Mrs. Roger Schnell, co-chairman for the event; Miss Suzanne Small and Miss Sally Ann Barr.

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Rainbow Christmas Formal Big Event for Pre-Holiday Week

WITH the big holiday but one week away, the Christmas spirit really takes hold from this week-end on . . . For many there's still the tree to go up and other holiday decorations to be arranged, numerous presents for the last minute gifts and purchases, gift wrapping to do, and planning done for the numerous family gatherings marking Christmas eve and Christmas day—not to mention some 101 other odd little jobs that make the season the crazy, dizzy but very enjoyable one it is each year.

Young folk coming home from colleges and universities begin arriving this week-end, and many affairs will be given in their honor during their vacation.

Throughout the next two weeks there is much informal and gay entertaining—open houses, teas and other impromptu holiday gatherings dotting the calendar.

Tea Planned

Mrs. Fred B. Moxley has invitations out for a tea to be given the afternoon of Tuesday, December 27, the affair to honor her daughter, Mrs. John A. Miller (Edith Moxley), who is here from Columbus, Ohio, to spend the holidays.

Guests are invited to call at the Mission street residence of the Moxleys between 3 and 6 o'clock that date.

Neighborhood Affairs

Mrs. Farley Mogan, Mrs. Roy Scragg and Mrs. Howard Sargent are to entertain at a Christmas time coffee next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Mogan residence as a neighborhood gathering in the Fair Oaks way "horse-shoe." Twenty-one have been invited and Christmas gifts will be exchanged.

Mrs. Albert C. Geagg is to entertain for her annual neighborhood holiday time tea Tuesday afternoon, about 30 being invited at 4 o'clock.

A big holiday season social event for the high school and college group will be the annual Christmas formal of Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, next Thursday evening, December 22, at Crystal Gardens.

A gala evening is anticipated in the newly remodeled and decorated ballroom. Dancing will be between 9 and 12 o'clock with Glen Williams orchestra playing. Revolving lights will be used, and a holiday decorated table will be set up for punch and cookies.

Miss Marilyn Power is worthy adviser for the Rainbow chapter and heads the directorate in charge, the other line officers on the committee including Misses Dorothy Pederson, Shirley Jones, Norma Hamilton and Donna Phelps. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Patrons for the dance will include Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Eby, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Frizzell, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. DeSart, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Gail H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Burres, Mrs. Carl Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry, Dr. and Mrs. F. Kenneth Power, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pederson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Phelps.

Parties Before Dance

Miss Edna Marie Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. B. Hill, and Miss Joyce Armstrong, daughter of the Edwin P. Armstrongs, are to entertain at a coke party preceding the dance, the party to be at the Fairmount Hill residence of the Hills between 8 and 9 o'clock.

Seventy couples have been invited to the affair.

Miss Patsy Snider has invited a group of friends from Leslie school ninth grade for a coke party to be given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Snider, preceding the dance.

Among those planning to be away for the holidays are Mr. and Mrs. Gale Besse. They left today for Quebec, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Besse, formerly of Salem. After New Year's Mr. and Mrs. Besse will go to Albany, N.Y. to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leahy. Altogether, they plan to be gone a month.

Mrs. John P. Maulding (Margaret Jane Cooley) will arrive Tuesday from Eugene to be here for the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mr. Maulding to come the latter part of the week for Christmas.

Among Salem folk heading south for the holidays and a vacation trip are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, who will leave Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Myrtle Ponsford of McMinnville, sister of Mr. Harris. The Harris will visit Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Harris at Redwood City and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Harris at Los Angeles. Mrs. Ponsford is to visit at the Russell Harris home in San Francisco. The trio plan to be gone a month.

Arriving at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift next week will be their son, George Swift, who is doing graduate work at University of Oregon, and their daughter, Miss Jean Claire Swift from San Francisco, both to spend Christmas at home. The son arrives on Monday, Miss Swift on Christmas eve.

Ted Baum, student at Stanford, arrived this week-end to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Baum. Mrs. Frances Baum will arrive at the mid-week from the University of Oregon to be here with her parents for the holidays also.

Hostess to her bridge club on Wednesday evening will be Mrs. Maynard Shiffer. Late refreshments will follow the bridge games and this is the Christmas party for the group.

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae will be entertained for their annual Christmas party on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ervin L. Peterson, 1645 South Summer.

A holiday week bride will be Miss Jean Fidler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fidler, who is to be wed December 27 to James Hosey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hosey of Oak Grove. Miss Fidler has announced members of her wedding party.

The ceremony will be an evening one that date at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. Miss Jean Claire Swift, who is to be here from San Francisco for the holidays, will be honor attendant. Mrs. Wayne Struble of Eugene is to be bridesmaid. Wayne Struble is to be best man and ushering will be two brothers of Mr. Hosey, Charles and David Hosey. For the music, Mrs. Scott Adams of Portland is to sing and Miss Ruth Bedford will be at the organ.

The reception following will be in the church parish house.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newby will be among those away for the holidays. They and their daughter, Miss Shirlee Newby, freshman at Oregon State college, will leave next Friday for Ashland to spend Christmas at their home there. While in Ashland, Miss Newby will be installing officer for the Job's Daughters bethel there. Mr. and Mrs. Newby will then go on south to San Francisco to be among those taking in the annual East-West football game New Year's day. Miss Newby will remain in southern Oregon to visit during the holidays.

Miss Roberta Meyer, who is doing graduate work at University of Washington, is expected home tomorrow to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer.

Mrs. C. B. Spence is to entertain for her drama group on Tuesday for a luncheon and Christmas party.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Getzendaner are to entertain Tuesday evening at a buffet supper at their home to honor their son, David Getzendaner, and the latter's fiancée, Miss Betty Lou Edwards, the young couple to be married Wednesday evening in St. Mark Lutheran church.

The supper at 7 o'clock will precede the rehearsal for the Getzendaner-Edwards wedding, the 20 guests to include members of the wedding party and the families.

Sojourners club is not meeting next week, the next party for the group to be the second Thursday of January.

Joeten-Miller studio picture

OTHERS ON COMMITTEE for the Spinners ball include these four. Seated at left, Miss Evelyn Johnson and at right, Mrs. Travis Cross. In back are Miss Patricia Larson at left and Mrs. Peter M. Gunnar. The dance is to be given at No-Name ballroom.

AMONG holiday affairs honoring the "home from school" group will be the Christmas tea for which Miss Barbara Zumwalt will entertain next Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, more than 100 school friends being invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Zumwalt will greet the guests with her daughter. Assisting about the living room will be Misses Sue McElhinny, Sally Donkin, Margy Acton, Lois Archibald, Lorraine Welling, Jody Hendrie, Katie Siegmund.

Pouring during the different hours will be Miss Lillian Davis, Mrs. Leah Hogue, Mrs. Clayton Foreman, Mrs. Luther Jensen, Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny, Mrs. P. Dixon VanAusdell, Jr.

Miss Mary Lou Zumwalt, younger sister of the hostess, Miss Judy Foreman and Miss Shirley Bier are to assist in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Riches will be hosts Friday evening for a pre-holiday family gathering at their Tillman avenue home, a no-host buffet supper to be served. In the group will be Mrs. J. H. Farley, Mrs. Frank Mogan, Mrs. L. M. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Farley Mogan and daughter, Martha, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lindbeck, Eugene Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Riches and sons, Robert and David.

Sigma Kappa Mothers club will be entertained by Mrs. G. A. Recher for a 1:30 o'clock luncheon and Christmas party Tuesday. There will be a gift exchange. All Sigma Kappa mothers are invited.

Among hostesses of the new week will be Mrs. Maynard Shiffer and Mrs. Horace McGee, the two planning a luncheon and bridge party at the home of the former Monday afternoon. Twelve guests have been invited for the holiday event, the party being one of a series planned by the two hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones and son, Ronald, Jr., will be among those to be out of town over Christmas. They will spend the holiday with Mr. Jones' two sisters, Mrs. Anderson Cannon and Mrs. John Withycombe, at Carmel, Calif. Mrs. Jones will leave by train Wednesday, planning to spend two days in San Francisco. Mr. Jones and son will fly south on Friday, joining Mrs. Jones at Carmel. The family will return the first of the week following Christmas.

Miss Sara Ann Ohling, student at University of Washington, and Miss Alice Louise Ohling, who is a freshman at University of Oregon, are expected to arrive Monday evening to be here for the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling.

Arriving this week-end for a holiday visit will be Mrs. A. C. Parsons and sons, Grover Parsons and William Parsons, of Salinas, Calif. The Parsons, former Salem residents, will visit here at the M. M. Macee home and at Woodburn with Mrs. Parsons' father.

Misses Jane and Ann Carson will be home the first of the week from University of Oregon to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carson.

Winter Formal Set

Among holiday week festivities interesting a large group of the high school crowd will be the annual winter formal of the Salem Junior Catholic Daughters of America on the evening of Tuesday, December 27, in the No-Name ballroom. Chet Mulkey's band is to play. The ballroom is to be arranged into a real Santa Claus toyland, "Toyland Frolic" being the theme for the decorations.

Invited as patrons for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Corey, Mr. and Mrs. John Pryzibilla, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Lemmon, Mr. and Mrs. Lade Koutney, Mr. and Mrs. John Branson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lovick, Mr. and Mrs. T. Roguski, Mrs. Margaret Brown.

All former Salem Junior CDA members have been extended invitation to attend the annual affair. Some 150 couples are expected to attend the party.

The members of Our Lady of Fatima troop of the Junior CDA are to be hostesses. Misses Nancy Brown and Doris Rohland are co-chairmen for the party. Miss Peggy Day is chairman for invitations. Miss Betty Stadler is in charge of the program, Miss Barbara VanCleaf is chairman for refreshments. All members of the troop are serving on various committees for the dance. Mrs. Loyd Lemmon is counselor for the troop.

Leaving next Thursday for Jackson, Miss., will be Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mason and their granddaughter, Carolyn Zoe Lowery, to spend the Christmas holidays with the Masons' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Lowery. The granddaughter has been in Salem since the summer.

SPINSTERS club is to be entertained Monday evening at the E. H. Burrell home with Miss Patricia Burrell, Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst and Mrs. Robert Burrell as the hostesses.

At this time final plans will be outlined for the club's annual Christmas night charity ball, and several members away at college are expected to be at the meeting.

Members are asked to take their articles of food for the Christmas basket the club is arranging for a needy family at the holiday time.

The Christmas night ball will be at No-Name ballroom, all proceeds going to the club's project of assisting the YWCA building fund.

Visitors expected to arrive Christmas week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson of Lexington, Ore., who will be guests for a few days at the home of Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny.

No at home day is planned next week by Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, the weekly day to be called off until January 17.

Richard Page arrived Saturday from Palo Alto, Calif. to spend the holidays with his parents, Justice and Mrs. E. M. Page. He is in the graduate school at Stanford.

Spending the holidays in Berkeley, Calif., will be Lt. and Mrs. Stanley Fallander. The Fallanders plan to leave via motor the evening of December 23 and will be the guests of Mrs. Fallander's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall G. Pettis during their stay in California.

McLellan studio picture

WED LAST SUNDAY evening in the First Congregational church were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patton Charlton (Vivian Lavers), pictured here in a candid at the reception. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Lavers of Berkeley, Calif., Mr. Charlton the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Charlton of Salem.

Joeten-Miller studio picture

MISS CLELIA TUKIN, above, recently announced her engagement to Glen Clark. No date is set for the wedding. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turin of Mt. Angel, Mr. Clark the son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Clark of Salem.