Christmas Party For OES Chapter

Chadwick chapter, No. 37, Order of the Eastern Star, held its annual Christmas party, with exchange of gifts, Tuesday evening.

A large Christmas tree and baskets of holly decorated the chapter rooms. Herman Johnston was escorted and honored in the east. He recently was given the 33rd honorary degree in Knight Commandery, court of honor and spoke for the good of the order.

Mrs. Norman Kenney became a member by affiliation. Christmas carols were sung, a solo was given by Mrs. Ivan Stewart and special Christmas music by a ladies quartet were enjoyed.

A special degree, carrying out the 49th theme, was given the retiring worthy matron and worthy patron, Mrs. D. M. Eby and Jason Frizzell, and gifts presented by Mrs. William Lewis, newly-elected worthy matron, Gail H. Jones, newly-elected worthy patron and courtesy group. Mrs. Fred Rawlins sang a solo. Mrs. Eby and Mr. Frizzell thanked all the officers and committee members of the past year for their help and cooperation.

Public installation of new officers will be held Thursday evening, December 29, at 8:00 o'clock in the Masonic temple.

North Santiam Unit Has Christmas Party

North Santiam—Mrs. Louis Scofield was hostess and Mrs. Edwin Ruby co-hostess for the North Santiam Extension Unit's annual Christmas party at the Scofield home.

A covered dish dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, followed by games. Prizes were won by Mrs. Carl Bethell, Mrs. Everett Kaiser, and Mrs. Edwin Ruby.

A gift exchange and social hour with group singing of Christmas carols completed the evening.

Present were five guests, Mrs. Ethel Archibald, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. Ray Morgan, Mrs. Carl Vaughn, and Mrs. Peggy Fletcher and 23 members.

by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline, leg o' mutton sleeves, a shirred bodice and long train. The fingertip veil of white lace was arranged from a coronet of seed pearls. For her flowers, the bride carried a bouquet of white gardenias and pink rosebuds with a shower of ribbons caught with the pink rosebuds.

Miss Beverly Karsten, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was in peach taffeta and she carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations.

Misses Joyce Edgell and Glynys Barge were the bridesmaids, both wearing identical gowns. Miss Edgell in orchid and Miss Barge in aqua taffeta. Both carried bouquets of white and pink chrysanthemums.

Warren Reed High was best man for his brother, and ushering were a group from Mr. High's fraternity, Phi Kappa Psi, including Robert Zeller, William Sorenson, Donald Mace and Richard Daggett.

To Live in Corvallis
Mrs. King wore a copper crepe gown with brown accessories and corsage of white gardenias for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. High was in a dark wine gown with matching accessories and corsage of the gardenias.

The reception was in the Carrer room of the church. The bride's table was set with pink candles and the wedding cake encircled with pink and white flowers.

Mrs. Alfred LaBranch, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Edmond Talbot, a cousin from San Diego. Mrs. Ralph King was at the coffee urn and Mrs. Wilbur Flood presided at the punch bowl. Both are aunts of the bride. Serving were Miss June Treat of Corvallis, Miss Beverly Main, Miss Diane Jenks and Miss Joan Fitts. Miss Marijo Ogle passed the guest book and in charge of gifts were Miss Norma Rigby and Miss Maxine Kine.

For going away the bride wore a dark brown satin dress with fuchsia coat and brown accessories.

The couple will be at home in Corvallis, both attending Oregon State college.

Hoags Honored on Golden Wedding

Independence — More than 150 friends signed the guest book at the reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hoag on their golden wedding anniversary in the parlors of the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoag were married Dec. 20, 1899 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Calbreath, at Parker. Soon after their marriage they moved to Hoquiam, Wash., where Mr. Hoag was a merchant until 1910. They then returned to Oregon and both taught school until 1929 when they left the classroom and moved to their farm near Monmouth. In 1943 they retired and moved to Independence.

Both are still very active with Mr. Hoag taking a leading part in the work of the choir of the Methodist church.

Many of the guests present, as well as a number of those who sent gifts of flowers, were former pupils of the Hoags.

The honored couple greeted the guests in a setting of 50 years ago. Furniture of the style popular at the turn of the century was arranged about the church parlors almost exactly as it was in the room in which Mr. and Mrs. Hoag were married.

The table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with yellow chrysanthemums and white tapers in crystal.

Mrs. Elmer Barnhart, Mrs. Ed Moffit, Mrs. Sada Kelley, Mrs. A. F. Elkins, Mrs. G. L. Russell and Mrs. E. M. Ebbert, the latter three of Monmouth, poured. Taking care of the gifts was Mrs. Garfield Byars while Mrs. Charles Bullock was in charge of the guest book. Serving were Mrs. Amund Fulmer, Miss Lucile Barnhart, and Miss Marcella Jacobs.

Others who assisted with the reception were Mrs. Clark Irving, Mrs. Harold Traylor, Mrs. George DeForest, Mrs. Everett Van Maanen, Mrs. Lynn Huntley and Mrs. E. R. Grantham.

Mrs. Keene Visiting

Silverton—Mrs. C. W. Keene is spending the holiday season at the Spokane home of the family of her daughter, the Henry Glazes. Visiting their mother, Mrs. Keene, for several days this week have been Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Satchwell (Frances Keene) of Gresham, who left later for Astoria to be with a sister of Mrs. Satchwell, the Mike Cosovics (Elizabeth Keene). Also with Mrs. Keene was Mrs. Peggy Scott of Portland, formerly of Silverton, en route to San Jose, Calif., to be with her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, for the holidays.

Wedding in Salem Church

Unionvale — Miss Shirley Agnes Todd daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Todd of Unionvale, and Thomas Allen Huffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Huffman of Dayton, exchanged their marriage vows Sunday, December 18 at 8 p.m., at the First Congregational church, Salem. The Rev. C. F. W. Schulenburg of St. John's Lutheran church of McMinnville read the lines of the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Roger B. Todd of Salem, wore a white slipper satin gown with short train and fingertip veil with sweetheart crown. She carried three red roses with white bouquet.

Lighting the candles were Mrs. Roger B. Todd, Salem, and Mrs. Dale Pederson, McMinnville, wearing identically modeled taffeta yellow formals.

Miss Romona Oaks, maid of honor, was in orchid taffeta, and the bridesmaids, Miss Colleen Coburn and Miss Patsy Huffman, sister of the bridegroom, wore green taffeta. All attendants carried assorted colored chrysanthemums.

M. John Noble, Unionvale, was best man. Ushers were Richard Radcliff of Dayton, Duane Bartsch, Salem, James Miller, Salem and Robert Muhs of St. Helens.

Flower girls were Kathleen and Susan Duzan of Portland, nieces of the bride, in floor length yellow formals.

The reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. Charles Pajala baked the cake and cut it. Mrs. O. B. Crabtree of Newberg served it. Mrs. James Penland poured. Mrs. Ted Lawrence of McMinnville was at the punch bowl. Miss Jeanne Westfall of McMinnville had charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Todd chose a wine suit with black accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a brown suit with green accessories.

Miss Millard Recent Bride

Lebanon — Miss Lois Mary Millard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Millard of Vancouver, Wash., was wed to Russell Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Greer of Lebanon, at an early evening ceremony at the Assembly of God church on December 17.

Rev. H. D. Robeson performed the double ring service before the altar arrangement of yellow snapdragons and candles. Mrs. LaVern Stigel was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Erhard Landstrom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin dress and carried an arm bouquet of long stemmed white roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Eldo Badten, and Mrs. Amos D. Millard, Jr., was bridesmaid.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony.

After a wedding trip along the coast of Oregon and California, the couple will be at home in Lebanon, at 560 West Grant street.

The bride is employed in the offices of the Cascade Plywood corporation and the bridegroom, who served with the 11th Air-born division for 28 months, is an employe of the Santiam Lumber company.
