Dive to Death Rex Mays, one of the world's leading automobile drivers, hurtles to his death during the 100-mile auto race at Del Mar, Calif., Nov. 6. His car is whirling through the air throwing him onto the track where another car struck him.

Victim Tragedy marred baseball season when Eddie Waitkus, Phillies' first baseman, was shot in Chicago by a girl who was adjudged insane.

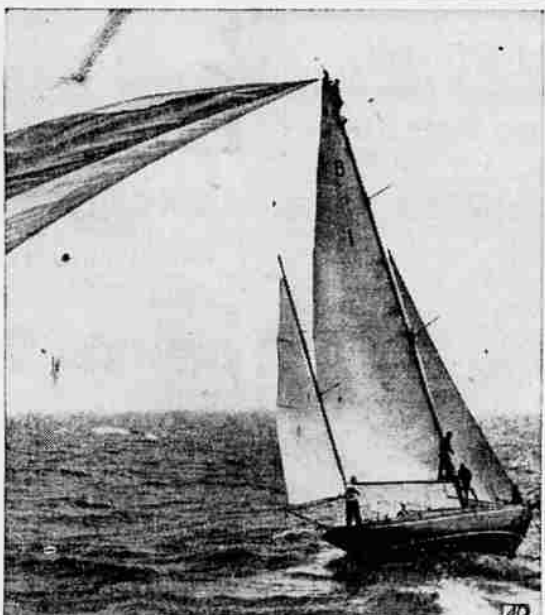

Leahy Lauds Shrine Bowls As Worthiest Grid Effort

By FRANK LEAHY
Of all the post-season games being played throughout the nation none are more worthy of note than the charity all star games to be played on December 26th in Miami, Florida, and December 31 in San Francisco, California.

Better known to football fans everywhere as the North-South and East-West Shrine games, these games are played with the greatest humanitarian purpose in mind. Benefiting from the efforts of college football's star players are crippled children in the United States, Canada, and Hawaii. In 25 years the East-West game has turned in over $1,250,000 to the crippled children's hospital in San Francisco, with 15 other such hospitals benefitting considerably. Although still in its infancy, the North-South game in Miami will be striving to make their total reach $100,000 with this the fourth year of operation. Both contests will be doubly interesting to us, as in addition to the wonderful cause for which they are being conducted, the University of Notre Dame will be represented in both games. San Franciscans will have the opportunity to watch our 1949 co-captains, Leon Hart and Jim Martin, who along with left halfback Frank Spaniel will perform for Coaches Bernie Bierman, Andy Kerr, and Tuss McLaughry on the East team.

These men have a glorious tradition to live up to as in the last two East-West games the "Most Valuable Player" trophy has been awarded to a Notre Dame man. We know that the three mentioned lads will do all in their power to emulate the efforts of John Lujack and John Panelli as they display their abilities in Kesar stadium. Six Notre Dame seniors will be playing for Coach Herman Hickman's North team in Miami as they take the field against Andy Gustafson's Southern representatives. Bill Wightkin, Ralph McGehee, Bob Lally, Walter Grothaus, Larry Coutre, and Mike Swistowicz will be our representatives in that game. I am certain that such capable men will be of assistance to Coach Hickman in a game that should produce one of the outstanding passing duels of modern football history, as the two teams have four of the year's leading forward passers.

Yachtsmen Take Blow Yachtsmen expect all kinds of weather but the Mackinac Island race on Lake Michigan was sailed through a July squall that forced crew of the Rubaiyat to cut a spinnaker guy line to keep from capsizing.

Hogan Confident He'll Return to Pro Golfing

Fort Worth, Tex., Dec. 23 (AP)—Wee Ben Hogan is pretty confident he will return someday to the professional golf tournament circuit. But the great linksman, whose glittering career was halted almost a year ago in a bus-automobile crash, said today he didn't think he ever would be able to play in a tournament that had 36 holes in a single day. "I don't think I'll ever be able to go two rounds in one day in tournament competition," said Ben as he relaxed at Colonial Country club here. "But there aren't many tournaments that have 36 holes in one day anyway."

Ten members of Oklahoma's starting eleven during 1949 were natives of Oklahoma. Tuesday he walked around 18 holes and again shot under 80. "I get awfully tired and sometimes my legs swell on me," he said. "But, you know"—and he grinned at this—"I have to get my weight down."

Webfoots' Mighty Midgets Start Mid-West Hoop Tour

Eugene, Dec. 23—Coach John Warren's "mighty midgets" en-train from Eugene this week-end for a three-game road trip into the midwest bent on improving their won and lost record. The Ducks owe their great rally in the Stanford opener and a large part of the second game victory to some great shooting on the part of the four rabbit-fast guards. Mel Krause accounted for 26 points in the two games and he was closely followed by Bob Lavey with 23, Jack Keller with 19 and Ken Hunt picked up 10 to run the total for the backcourt men to 70 for the two games.

The Ducks split a series with Stanford, winning 58 to 51 after dropping a 70 to 67 thriller in the last two minutes and now face the strong Loyola of Chicago club on December 27 and move on to Iowa City for a game with the Hawkeyes of Iowa on December 28. The third game will also be with Iowa, but the teams will move to Madison, Wis., for the game, half of a double-header which also features Notre Dame and Wisconsin. Warren expressed pleasure with the steady improvement of the Webfoots in the last two weeks. The Ducks have now won half of their last four games and looked considerably better even in the two which were lost. The Ducks owe their great rally in the Stanford opener and a large part of the second game victory to some great shooting on the part of the four rabbit-fast guards. Mel Krause accounted for 26 points in the two games and he was closely followed by Bob Lavey with 23, Jack Keller with 19 and Ken Hunt picked up 10 to run the total for the backcourt men to 70 for the two games.

Emperor Writes Poetry for Free

Tokyo, Dec. 23 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito still is tossing off poems, but he won't take money for them. Recently he sent seven poems to Kaizo, a popular magazine. It was the first time in history an emperor did anything like that. Kaizo's editors were overwhelmed. They offered the emperor 10,000 yen (about $30) for his contributions. The emperor's household officials said "No." They'd take five copies of the magazine instead. The emperor would distribute them to members of his family. One Kaizo editor said the imperial bookkeeper didn't want to bother with the red tape—receipts, book entries, tax statements, etc.—that would ensue. The editors say such talent should not go unrewarded. They are thinking of sending the emperor 10,000-yen worth of fruit.

Punchboards to Face Court Test
Portland, Dec. 23 (AP)—The last remaining legal punchboards in Portland face a court test today. The city filed a circuit court case to determine the legality of question-and-answer boards. Other kinds previously were ruled illegal. City Attorney Alexander G. Brown said he hoped to gain a decision that would make clear "the degree of chance which constitutes a lottery." The question and answer board has been in doubtful status because each punch presents a question and a number. If the customer answers the question within 20 seconds, he wins a prize. The number determines the prize he gets. A trial date has not been set.
