New Year's Parties Interest Now

Christmas day now a happy memory, folk are turning their attention to New Year's and the second holiday week-end. New Year's eve brings three big dancing parties, those of Subscription, Tillcum and Carousel clubs.

Party Before Dance
Among affairs preceding the Subscription club dance will be the party for which Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Young are to entertain at the Shepard residence. Among out-of-town guests will be Mr. Shepard's sister, Miss Helen Shepard, who is here from Minot, N. D., for the holidays.

Breakfast Due
Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Madison are to be hosts for a New Year's breakfast, planning the affair Monday, January 2, at their home between 9 and 11 o'clock.

Invited to the breakfast are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Emmons of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister and Mr. and Mrs. Vinnie Bell, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Linden, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Arens, Judge and Mrs. Rex Kimmell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneinde, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bowes, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding.

At Huntington Home

Honoring their daughter, Miss Shirley Huntington, who has returned to the States from Honolulu for a holiday visit, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington are to be hosts Wednesday evening at a buffet dinner at their home. A group of 26 friends of the Huntingtons and their daughter has been invited. Miss Huntington has been in the islands the past three years in Red Cross work.

THE SALEM Writer's club met with Mrs. Blanche Jones for their December meeting. Members contributing original writings were Mrs. N. F. Anderson, Miss Renaka Swart, Perry Reigleman, Mrs. J. C. Singleton and Morton Peck. Others present were Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, Mrs. Flora Enders, Mrs. E. M. White, Mrs. Morton Peck and N. F. Anderson. Mrs. Jones' daughter, Mrs. R. J. Gould of Seattle, was a guest. Mrs. Thomas Facey was elected to membership.

FRIEDA CARLSON entertained a group of friends Thursday evening prior to the Rainbow formal. Those attending the party were: Dorisjean Shafer, Edithanne Simpson, Lorraine Eckersley, Shirley Dean, Ruth Watts, Mary Margaret Will, Wanda Feren, Ted Forces, Lawrence Miller, Chuck Stanb, Ray Pearson, Paul Harris, Dale Nason, Dick Wilson, Gary Lawrence.

IN EUGENE for Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. George R. Duke and children, Julie and Tommy spending the holiday with relatives there.

The thrifty housewife will make the holiday turkey serve as many meals as possible, varying the dishes so that no member of the family will complain of monotony. Even the bones of the bird can be used to advantage to make a simple, delicious rice vegetable soup.

Vegetables other than those mentioned in the recipe may be used, a bit of tomato, left-over cooked peas, additional onion minced into the strained stock. Serve with plenty of crisp crackers or melba toast, and be sure that the soup is very, very hot!

Rice Vegetable Turkey Soup
Ingredients
Bones of 1 turkey
1½ quarts cold water
1 carrot, sliced
1 stalk celery, chopped, a few celery leaves
1 teaspoon chopped onion
1 sprig parsley
Salt to taste (about 1 teaspoon)
1 cup rice
1 cup chopped celery
1 cup sliced carrots
Seasoning as desired
Method
Make a stock of the turkey bones, cold water, sliced carrot, stalk of celery, onion and parsley by simmering all together, covered, about 2 hours. Strain the stock and add the seasonings, the chopped celery, carrots and uncooked rice. Cook until the rice is done and the vegetables are tender.

Betrothal Told

Dayton—Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Cooksley, of Sweet Home are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Nigel Shockley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shockley, of Sweet Home.

Miss Cooksley lived in Dayton with her parents, while her father was serving the United Brethren Evangelical church here and attended high school. They moved to Sweet Home in 1948 and she graduated from the Sweet Home high school with the class of '49. She is now attending George Fox College at Newberg.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Junior CDA Group Lists Activities

Star of the Sea troop, Junior Catholic Daughters of America, completed a busy pre-holiday week Saturday, the bi-monthly meeting and Christmas party was held at Miss Josephine Schlageter's home on North 24th street. Sales of the Catholic Digest were turned in with Josephine Schlageter's team winning the December contest by selling the most magazines.

Nellie Cooney was in charge of the charity project for the year. The troop dressed and refurbished a great many dolls and stuffed toys for the needy children in Salem.

Plans were made to attend mass and communion in uniform and in a body Sunday.

Joan Collieran, Evelyn Drummond, Josephine Schlageter, Mary Darlene Eitel and Carol Taggart volunteered for Cherub Chapel Christmas day.

The meeting was adjourned to practice Christmas carols. Refreshments were served by Josephine and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Schlageter, during which time gifts were exchanged.

Wednesday evening the troop went carolling at several of the old people's homes in Salem. Mrs. Ted Roguski was chaperone.

Thursday evening the troop presented its radio program over KOCO with Carol Taggart narrator. Chairman Roguski, accompanist and Joan Collieran, soloist. Parents accompanying the girls were Mrs. Rex Morris and Mr. Ted Roguski.

VISITORS at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barton on Locust street for over Christmas week-end was their son, Cpl. Robert W. Barton, USMC, who is a radio and teletype man stationed at Camp Pendleton in California.

AMONG SALEM folk going south for the Christmas holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Val Sloper and Mrs. Thelma Mankertz, who left Saturday for Palm Springs. They will be there a few days then in San Francisco, planning to be gone about three weeks.

These Girls Plan Junior CDA Formal for Tonight

IN PORTLAND for Christmas week-end were Justice and Mrs. E. M. Page and son, Richard, as guests of Mrs. Page's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. George B. Evans and their daughter, Miss Doris Evans, who is home for the holidays from Santa Barbara State college.

Many to attend dance event—Interesting to a large group of the high school crowd this evening will be the annual winter formal of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America, the party to be at the No-Name ballroom. In the picture above are, left to right: Miss Nancy Brown, chairman; Miss Betty Stadler, program; Miss Doris Rohland, co-chairman for the event. Doris Hale Bride-elect

The engagement of Miss Doris Ethel Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Hale, to Phillip Blankenship, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Blankenship, was announced Christmas eve at an open house given by Dr. and Mrs. Morris K. Crothers and Mr. and Mrs. Hale at the Crothers residence.

The day also was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Crothers. A large group of friends called between 7:30 and 10:30 o'clock.

No date is announced for the wedding of Miss Hale and Mr. Blankenship. The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem schools and attended Oregon State college and Maryland College for Women. Mr. Blankenship also graduated from Salem schools and is now attending Portland university as a music major. He plans to attend Willamette university next fall.

The engagement is the second announced in the Hale family, the other daughter, Miss Patricia Hale, having announced her engagement in the early fall to Dean Allport.

Art Work Featured

Aurora—A recent meeting of the Aurora Woman's club featured creative art in the home. There were two speakers, Mrs. Paul Bringman, Portland art instructor, displayed numerous Christmas items made from metallic paper. Mrs. Percy Will introduced Mrs. Nellis Moore of Aurora as a local artist who has won much attention with her natural creative art in ceramics. Mrs. Moore showed a Christmas scene of ceramic pieces which she had made without the aid of a potter's wheel.

Mrs. James E. Langdon Jr., music chairman of the club presented a Christmas pantomime. Taking part were Mrs. John Todd, introductory poem, Mrs. Donald Garrett and Mrs. Langdon, shepherds, Mrs. John Eilers and Mrs. Walter Racette, angels, Mrs. William Lovrie, pianist, Mrs. George Elliott, candle lighter and Mrs. Gerald Beach, songs. Christmas carols were sung by this group, later, Mrs. P. O. Ottoway, hospitality chairman, introduced Mrs. Ellen Eilers of Seaside, a former member of the club, Mrs. J. Smythe, a new club member; Mrs. Michael Bohon of Portland, and Mrs. Jennie Adkins, mother of Mrs. Vernon Eilers, the hostess. Co-hostesses were Mrs. William Dentel, Mrs. Bud Yergen, Mrs. George Eilers, Mrs. J. J. Emrich and Mrs. John Eilers.

An exchange of Christmas gifts featured the refreshments period.

Mary Jean Huston Announces Betrothal

Announced over the week-end was the engagement of Miss Mary Jean Huston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Huston, to Howard J. Blanding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Blanding of Portland.

No date is set for the wedding. Miss Huston is a graduate of Willamette university, having been a May princess during her senior year, and is now teaching at Milwaukie. She is a Pi Beta Phi on the campus.

Mr. Blanding also is a graduate of Willamette and is practicing law in Salem. He is a member of Beta Pi social fraternity and Phi Delta Pi legal fraternity.

Golden Wedding

Aurora—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schatz of route 2, Canby, near Liberal, was celebrated Sunday at an open house in Molalla Grange hall from 1 to 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Schatz were married at Sheridan, Dec. 17, 1899, and have lived near Liberal for 29 years.

Lester Pulley of Hubbard was master of ceremonies for the affair. Among the Canby people attending were Mrs. Schatz sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Huber, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Laugholz and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Giger and Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kinsey of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Jennie Schatz of Yamhill, also were among the guests.

The honored couple was presented with gold watches. The presentation was made by their oldest great-grandson and great-granddaughter. Following the reception at the Grange hall, relatives joined at the Schatz home for a buffet dinner. Mrs. Schatz is a native of Germany and Mr. Schatz was born in Dakota.

HERE DURING the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fowler are their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard (Jean Fowler) of Berkeley, Calif. Mr. Barnard is attending University of California and Mrs. Barnard is at the university library there. Here for Christmas week-end at the Fowler home also were Mr. Barnard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard, Sr., of Seattle. The junior Barnards plan to visit in Seattle a few days before returning to Berkeley.

IN SAN FRANCISCO for a few days is Miss Addy Lane, who left Monday on the Shasta Daylight. She will visit Miss Jeanne Foster and Miss Jean Claire Swift, both of whom have been in Salem for the Christmas week-end.

Scouts Take Portland Trip

Eleven Junior high school Girl Scouts of Salem troop 4 will journey to Portland by train Wednesday. The trip is planned as part of their required work for the traveler and radio badges.

The girls will be interviewed on the Kay West program over KEX at 1:30 p.m. They will also visit the police radio department in the Portland police station.

Since all phases of travel are studied for the traveler badge, the troop will visit the municipal traffic court to observe what happens to traffic violators. They will also inspect the police emergency hospital to see how traffic victims are cared for.

Having dinner in the dining car on the trip home will be a new experience for many of the girls.

Each member taking part in this project earned the money to make the trip as part of the badge requirement.

Girl Scouts making the trip are Roberta Amundson, Joan Bale, Peggy Barker, Jane Barlow, Ann Berger, Charlotte Gruber, Sandra Larson, Loanne Mundinger, Carol Randall, Cathy Robbins, Carol Williams and the troop leader, Mrs. Hal M. Randall. Mrs. Clarence Field goes as an additional chaperon.

LABISH—A lighted Christmas tree and other holiday decorations formed the setting for a dinner at which the husbands of the members of the Labish Garden club were guests. After dinner the men retired to the game room while the ladies sang carols and played games.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Madill at whose home the dinner was served, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hougen, Mr. and Mrs. George Bohm, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spriggs, Elwood, Janice and Mrs. John Obert, Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Omholt, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brines, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lemire, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemire, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Voelisch and daughter, Cheryl Dyanne; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strker, Mr. and Mrs. Jul Faar, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voelisch, Mr. Emil Schotke and Mr. Ivan Lehnher.

VISITORS leaving Monday after spending Christmas here were Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Mann of Walla Walla. They were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Breakey and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Mann.

AT TIMBERLINE for the holiday week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Letts Jones. They were joined there by Sigfrid Unander of Portland.
