

Miss Fidler Wed Tuesday In Church Holiday Setting

St. Paul's Episcopal church, beautifully decorated with its Christmas wreaths, bank of small Christmas trees at the front and other greens, was the setting for a holiday wedding of Miss Jean Fidler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fidler, was married to James A. Hosey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hosey of Oak Grove.

The processional aisle was aglow with candlelight, a lighted taper set in pine bows being at each pew. Tall candelabrum with lighted tapers also decorated the altar.

The Rev. George H. Swift, rector of the church, officiated at the 8 o'clock rite. During the service, Mrs. Scott Adams (Elizabeth Nelson) of Portland sang "The Lord's Prayer," Miss Ruth Bedford playing the organ music.

Lace and Satin Gown

The brunette bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle length wedding gown of nylon lace over ivory slipper satin. The satin was cut in dropped neckline effect, the overlace continuing, to form a high neckline. The sleeves were long and pointed over the wrists. The full flared skirt was gathered from a fitted bodice. The waist length veil was of the same lace as on the dress and was arranged from a satin cloche trimmed in the lace. The bride carried a white poinsettia on a white Prayer Book.

The honor attendant, Miss Jean Claire Swift, home from San Francisco for the holidays, wore a royal blue ankle length dress, net over taffeta, designed with short sleeves, a double kerchief collar and full gathered skirt. In her hair she wore a band of net matching the gown, also mitts in the same color, and for her flowers carried a bouquet of red poinsettias.

Mrs. Wayne Struble of Eugene was bridesmaid. Her gown in flame red, net over taffeta, was made in the same style as that of Miss Swift, and she wore the headpiece of net, and mitts, matching the gown, and also carried red poinsettias for her bouquet.

Wayne Struble of Eugene was best man. Ushering were Charles and David Hosey, brothers of the bridegroom, and Claybourne Gosser of Portland.

Mrs. Fidler wore for her daughter's wedding a gray-blue gown enhanced with scattered beading on the belt and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose colored gown and corsage of pink rosebuds.

The reception was in the church parish hall. The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth. Large red Christmas candles in graduated size, with holly around the base of the holders, decorated the table, and the wedding cake was encircled with holly. Christmas greens and holly decorated the reception room.

Mrs. Lawrence Brown and Mrs. Inez Smith poured. Mrs. L. M. Davis of Oregon City, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Everett Mitchell of Portland, cousin of Mr. Hosey, cut the cake. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. John P. Maulding of Eugene, Miss Janet Kirk, home from San Francisco for the holidays, Miss Beth Basler of Coos Bay, Miss Nancy Starkweather of Milwaukie, and Miss Charlotte

Curried Rice (For Two)

Ingredients: 1 1/2 cups cooked converted-type rice, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon curry powder, salt (to taste).

Method: Melt the butter or margarine in an 8-inch (approximately) skillet over low heat; add the curry powder and stir with a wooden spoon until well blended. Add the rice and heat thoroughly, stirring frequently. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Here's a new idea for a New Year's eve snack. Arrange an assortment of several different kinds of crackers such as pretzels, whole wheat wafers, cheese crackers, shredded wheat wafers around a layered chese, ham and egg pie. Then at serving time cut the pie in thin wedges—the wedges will lift out perfectly without any stickiness or separation. Guests spread a bite of their portion on a cracker—and happily let the three flavors of the pie blend while they enjoy it!

The pie will keep perfectly for 24 hours or more in the refrigerator covered with waxed paper or aluminum foil—in fact it should be made at least several hours in advance of serving so it will chill and "set" for easy cutting. Here's the recipe:

Midnight Canape Pie

Cheese Layer: Cream together 6 ounces of cream cheese and 1/4 ounces of blue chese. Season with Worcestershire sauce and finely chopped parsley. Add enough milk or cream to make it spreading consistency. Spread in an even layer in the bottom of an eight-inch pie plate.

Ham Layer: Mix together 5 ounces of deviled ham spread and 2 tablespoons of chopped pickles. Spread on chese layer.

Egg Layer: Chop 4 hard-cooked eggs. Season to taste with salt, pepper, mayonnaise and chopped pimiento. Spread on top of ham layer. Cover with waxed paper or aluminum foil. Store in refrigerator several hours or overnight if desired.

To Decorate: Cut slim straight pretzel sticks into small pieces to mark minutes on clock and to form hands of clock pointing to midnight. Cut numbers 1 and 2 out of "curly" pretzels and put on the clock.

BOOSTER CLUB of St. Mark Lutheran church is meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the church. On the entertainment committee are Mr. and Mrs. Theo G. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jaqua, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Max Gehhar.
