But that was the case Tuesday night when the University of Minnesota scored a 51 to 41 decision over the Orangemen be fore a crowd of 7368 customers. In view of the fact that the campus was virtually deserted of students because of the Christmas holidays, the outpouring of fans Of Gold in 1950 was considered remarkable.

To those who cast an ap-praising eye over the audience, there was some hesitancy to accept the figure of 7368, "If there are no more than that number here where will they put the 2832 others to bring it up to the capacity figure of 10,-200?" But, then it would be possible to squeeze hundreds riore into the student and general admission benches if the occasion demanded.

But back to the ball game. Coach Osborne Cowles of the Gophers tossed an old fashioned zone defense against the Benvers and maintained it throughout And why shouldn't he, since it worked so well. The two men out in front and the three behind bothered the Beavers no end in the first half and al-though they led 7-3 at the end of four minutes, once the visitors found the range they tied the count at 8-all and then forged rapidly to the front to lead 27-14 at the half.

Captain Whitey Skogg and Maynard Johnson, a couple of classy Scandinavian ball hanled the Minnesota attack. Skogg, an expert at feinting his guard out of posi-tion and then going in for easy lay-ins, collected 13 points in the first half. He was held to two free points in the second, but Johnson took over to col-

Ken Storey and Dick Ballantyne provided most of the scoring punch for the Beavers during the late minutes of the second half.

Ability of the Minnesotans to capture Beaver rebounds after the latter's hurried shots, played an important part in the win. This was particularly true during the first half.
