Meets Wife for First Time Since Months Before Wedding

Vancouver, Dec. 29 (CP)—It does sound impossible, but: Italian-born Tony Cianflonae met his wife Nina, 19, here Tuesday night for the first time since eight months before their wedding.

The explanation, which we shouldn't tell so soon in this story, is simply the fact that Tony and Nina were married last July 31 by proxy.

Tony, 22, said his fond goodbye to Nina in Nicastro, Italy, in November, 1948. He left to take up a new life in Canada at the home here of his grandfather, Jasper Nicoter.

But before he left, he promised his dark-eyed Italian sweetheart he would get her over here as soon as possible. The love they shared chopped the immigration tape.

On July 31, Tony, in Vancouver, married Nina, in Italy. His uncle in Nicastro represented him at the ceremony and took the vows for him. The proxy marriage was necessary to enable Nina to come to Canada in accordance with immigration laws.

The wedding had the sanction of the Roman Catholic church and the blessings of the Canadian diplomatic corps in Italy.

Tuesday night Nina arrived, thanks to the dollars Tony has saved since working as a laborer in the Vancouver Waterworks department. Right away, they held their wedding reception at grandfather's home, five months after the wedding.

Asked if she liked Canada, Nina laughed: "Si, si, si." Translator Mary Iaci said this means: "Oh wonderful, crazy to come, love it."

Mrs. Brutke Home

Amity — Mrs. Herman Brutke and baby daughter, Robin Lenore, were home from Memorial hospital in Salem. The little girl weighed 8½ pounds and was born December 24. She is the third child of the Brutkes. Another daughter is Joyce, who is 13, and Dennis, the son, is 10. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Barner of Amity.

Rats Gnaw All Baby's Fingers

Abilene, Tex., Dec. 29 (AP)—Rats gnawed all 10 fingers and thumbs from the hands of a three-months-old Abilene child, it was reported here today.

The incident occurred last Saturday when Mrs. Rito Martinez left her daughter, Carmen Martinez, in her small apartment while she visited another apartment.

When she returned she found the little girl's hands were bleeding profusely and a small mongrel dog, the family's pet, was licking the wounds. Mrs. Martinez said she believes the dog frightened the rats away.

The father of the child later found two large rats in the house.

O'Dwyers End 9-Day Florida Honeymoon

Key Largo, Fla., Dec. 29 (AP)—New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer and his bride will fly home today to end a nine-day Florida honeymoon.

The couple planned to board an Eastern Airlines plane at Miami's international airport at 3:30 p.m. (EST), for the four-hour flight to Newark, N.J.

O'Dwyer and the former Sloan Simpson were married at Stuart, Fla., December 20 and have cruised along the south-east Florida coast since then. He will be sworn in January 2 for another term as mayor of New York.

Dallas Mayor May Seek Polk Legislative Post

Dallas, Dec. 29—Mayor Hollis Smith of Dallas will probably be a candidate for the republican nomination to the Oregon house of representatives from Polk county if Lyle Thomas, present representative, does not seek another term in 1950, the mayor indicates in a statement.

Ching Calls for Pension Study

Washington, Dec. 29 (AP)—Now is the time for a real study of the whole pension and welfare problem, says Federal Mediation Chief Cyrus S. Ching.

Ching's business is settling labor disputes and preventing them from occurring if possible. He believes that uncertainty over what congress is going to do about expanding the present social security plan, plus discrepancies and weaknesses of employers' welfare-pension plans, could lead to costly labor troubles.

"It would be well to take our bearings," Ching counseled in a statement last night, "and devise a national policy which will help us to set our future course with deliberation."

Jakarta New Name of Batavia

(By the Associated Press) Jakarta—the name the United States of Indonesia soon will give to Batavia, its capital city—means strong or important city. This is the ancient Indonesian name.

In 1819 Dutch Governor General Jan Pieterszoon Coen took the town of Jakarta and gave it the Dutch name of Batavia. It has kept that name up until the formation of the new republic.

The new nation's capital is not to be confused with the city in central Java with a similar name — Jogjakarta — which means pleasant city. Jogjakarta is the seat of the Sultan of Jogjakarta and served as the capital of the Indonesian republic up until the republic was merged in the United States of Indonesia.

Betty Lou Marbury's Condition Excellent

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 29 (AP)—Betty Lou Marbury, a 10-year-old picture of courage and faith, lay resting today from an operation that took her diseased right hand.

She had hoped the prayers of the nation would save it, but she gave it up with the firm belief it was "the will of God."

The cute little Brownsville, Tenn., farm girl's condition was described as good. She was being attended by three special nurses.

The amputation, necessary to save her life, was done yesterday. A malignant bone tumor was the cause of the plucky youngster's trouble.

Doctors here and in Boston were consulted before it was decided that to remove the hand, between wrist and elbow, was imperative to keep the malignancy from spreading.

Sisters Are Together For Seasonal Reunion

Silverton—A holiday reunion of four sisters, the former Fur-rue "girls", is being enjoyed in a pre-New Years stay of a few days at the Corvallis home of one of the group, Mrs. Clara Loe, all formerly of Silverton.

Driving to the Loe home Tuesday were Mrs. Ed Overlund, Mrs. C. J. Towe, both of Silverton, and Mrs. Jalmer Ellison and her small daughter, Sharon, of Mulino.

The women plan for an annual visit each year at the home of one member of the four.

Hervey Allen, Author, Dies

Miami, Fla., Dec. 29 (AP)—Hervey Allen, world-famous author of "Anthony Adverse," died of a heart attack at his winter home here yesterday. He was 60.

The noted author's body was found on the bathroom floor and Dr. Franz Stewart, heart specialist, said he apparently was stricken while preparing to shave.

He frequently worked late at night and slept late, so no alarm was felt when he failed to appear in the morning. Mrs. Allen found the body about 1 p.m. (EST).

Intimates said they had known since 1939 that he had a "bad heart" but he refused all suggestions that he see a doctor.

He attended the customary rounds of Christmas festivities with his family, including one gathering the night before his death.

Allen had maintained a winter home here since 1933. He had a summer home at Cazenovia, N.Y.

Sweet Home Boy Killed in Auto Crash

Los Angeles, Dec. 29 (AP)—Freemont Sloniger, 9, Sweet Home, Ore., was killed and five other persons injured yesterday when their car plunged out of control against a Griffith park cliff.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sloniger, two sisters, Flori, 12, and Karen, 8, and Driver Ray Donley, 53, suffered minor injuries.

The elder Sloniger said brakes on the new convertible gave out on a sharp turn.

Demos Organize Recall

Seattle, Dec. 29 (AP)—Washington democrats announced officially last night they would not participate in the recall movement against republican Governor Langlie.
