

Candlelight Wedding at First Presbyterian Church

At a candlelight ceremony solemnized Monday evening in the First Presbyterian church, Miss Dorothy Denniston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Denniston of Eugene, was married to Charles E. Johnson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson of Salem. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin read the double ring service at 8 o'clock. Christmas greens and poinsettias decorated the church.

Auxiliary Officers Entertained

Annual Christmas party for the officers and chairmen of committees for Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, was an event of last evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding.

A no-host dinner started the evening's festivities and there was a gift exchange, a special gift from the group being presented Mrs. Spaulding. The home was beautifully decorated with greens and other Christmas favors. Mrs. Donald Madison, Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. Anson Ingels and Mrs. John B. Wood were the committee for the arrangements for the dinner and party.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Donald Madison, Mrs. Anson Ingels, Mrs. John B. Wood, Mrs. Robert Wyatt, Mrs. Merle Travis, Mrs. E. W. Richey, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. Anna Hunsaker, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Ted Borkman, Mrs. A. D. Apperson, Mrs. Myrtle Eckles, Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Clara Poland, Mrs. F. A. Williams, Mrs. Clare Brabec, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Sr., Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. George Manning.

Soloist for the wedding was Mrs. Richard Johns, Jr., with Mrs. Ralph Dobbs playing the organ. Lighting the tapers were two of the ushers, Richard Johns, Jr. and David Johnson, brother of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown. It had the long bodice, long sleeves and a long train. The yoke and skirt were trimmed in lace and the skirt fell over a hoop. The illusion veil was fingertip length, arranged from a half-cap. The bride carried a white Bible with white orchid and streamers caught with tissue narcissuses. Sister Attends

Only attendant for the bride was her sister, Mrs. Keith Finney of Tacoma. She wore a chartreuse taffeta gown made similarly to that of the bride's gown, except it had short sleeves, and she wore long mitts matching the gown in color. Her flowers were a bouquet of tiny pink roses with a lighted candle in the center.

Burrel Birch of Eugene was best man and ushering were Richard Johns, Jr., William Barker and David Johnson. The bride's mother wore a blue crepe gown with gray accessories and pink rosebud corsage for her daughter's wedding, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in black with white accessories and corsage of gardenias.

The reception also was at the church. Mrs. E. V. Slate of Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, poured. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Albert Denniston, Eugene, aunt of the bride. Assisting with the serving were Miss Frances Reanier, Mrs. Kenneth Strohecker, Portland, and passing the dream cake was Miss Betsy Alymer of Vancouver. Miss Irene Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, passed the guest book and in charge of gifts were Miss Florence Jones and Mrs. Clifford Reed.

For going away the bride wore a wine suit with gray accessories and the orchid she carried at the service. Following a trip to the coast the couple will be at home in Corvallis until Mr. Johnson completes his work at Oregon State college. The bride is a registered nurse at Salem Memorial hospital.

Parties Given
Preceding her marriage, the bride was honored at two parties. Mrs. Charles H. Johnson entertained a group at her home for the bride, other guests including Mrs. Chester Luther,

Betrothals Are Told

The holiday time has brought many engagement announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Travis of Mt. Angel are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lola Travis, to Ernest Zielinski, son of Mrs. Dorothy Zielinski and the late Charles Zielinski. The news was revealed at a family gathering Christmas eve at the Travis home. No plans are announced for the wedding. The bride-to-be is on the stenographic staff in the state library and Mr. Zielinski is engaged in farming. She attended Mt. Angel schools and he attended the Salem schools.

Frederickson-Phelps
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Philips are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Lee Phelps, to George L. Frederickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Frederickson. No date is set for the wedding. Miss Phelps is a student at Salem high school and Mr. Frederickson is employed here.

Derksen-Veer
Among engagements being announced during the holiday week is that of Miss Violet Veer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Veer, to Russell Derksen, son of Mrs. Mary Kunkel. No date is set for the wedding.

The nurses at Salem Memorial also entertained for the bride. Those attending the party, given at the home of Mrs. Clifford Reed, were the honoree and Miss Frances Reanier, Mrs. Jean Hill, Mrs. Don Schuler, Miss Florence Jones, Mrs. Oscar White, Mrs. Iva Baltes, Mrs. P. F. Cushing, Mrs. P. W. Hale, Mrs. Theo. Daum, Mrs. George Donaldson, Mrs. D. E. Walker, Mrs. Dale Cresswell, Mrs. Stanley Jobe and the hostess.

Boots and Spurs

One of the finest and most successful Christmas parties again was put on by George Arbuckle and his committee. Starting with the grand entry, led by Walter Leth, 82 riders formed almost three lines around the arena, which was beautifully decorated with fir bough, Christmas ornaments, tinsel, wreaths and balloons.

The next event was a children's walk, trot and canter which was won easily by Judy Seamster on Sara. Second place was awarded by the judges to Gail Dorr on Blackie. Mary Rouch placed third on her good looking sorrel. The event following was a chicken scramble with the same contestants competing in a rabbit catching race.

Time was taken out while Santa entered the ring and presented a very pretty half Arab gelding to Gladys Seamster. The horse is a son of Ward Wells dressage Arab, Sharik, that every one has seen perform at the Cherryland Horse show.

The events continued on with stake bending, dart throwing, chicken carrying and the presentation of gifts by Santa, nee, Elmer Lorance of Silverton. After the horses were put up, the group adjourned to the west entrance where Mrs. Homer Smith Jr., Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. Esther Ward and Mrs. Fred Ellis had arranged a buffet lunch that made the evening's entertainment complete.

Not a little interest is shown in the cow cutting contests or practice held twice weekly in the stadium. The star performers are the horses. O. D. Stevenson on Judy Ann, Homer Simms on Little Joe, Ralph Stangeby on Ruth, Van Wieder on Star Dust, Tom Allen on Sandy and Grant Farris on Silver Flex, put in about two hours of practice in the approved method of working range cattle. Incidentally, these cattle are from the 4-W Ranch of Art Waldport, a former Saddle club member. Two new

Dinner in a Jiffy

Baked Corned Beef Hash, Eggs Buttered Broccoli, Chili Sauce Salad Bowl, Bread and Butter Ready-Mix Cake with Orange Coconut Topping, Beverage Ready-Mix Cake with Orange Coconut Topping

Ingredients: 1 package ready-mix white cake, 1/4 cup butter or margarine (melted), 1/2 cup brown sugar, grated rind of 1 medium-sized orange (about 1 tablespoon), 2 table spoons strained orange juice, 1 one-quarter pound can moist-packed grated coconut.

Method: Mix and bake cake according to directions for an eight or nine inch square pan. Just before cake is finished baking prepare the topping: Put the butter or margarine in a medium-sized skillet and melt over low heat. Remove from heat and add the brown sugar, orange rind and orange juice, mixing well and smoothing out lumps. Add coconut and mix thoroughly so coconut is an even color. As soon as cake is baked spread topping over top and place under broiler until lightly browned; watch carefully so as not to burn, having cake several inches from source of moderate heat—browning should take from three to five minutes.
