Viking Athletes See 1949 As Good Year for Sports

By DAVID BLACKMER
Looking back on the high school's four coaches set records of which they can be proud and their scrap books are bulging with clippings of their many victories and also the story where their teams were not so fortunate.
Coach Harold Hauk's cagers greeted the new year of 1949 with a win over the Corvallis Spartans to the tune of 49-25 on the Spartans' floor January 4. After this drubbing the Viking hoopsters went on to win seven consecutive times before being stopped by the Bend Lava Bears. Nineteen forty-nine is now considered one of the greatest years Salem has ever had on the maple boards as the Haukmen won 24 out of 33 games, tied for the Big Six championship, won the district crown without losing a game, placed all five members of the starting lineup on the Big Six all-star teams, ruined an undefeated season for the Oregon State Rooks, and won fifth place at the state tournament.
Lost by One Point
The Vikings lost a probable state championship by one point. Had the Salem vs. Roosevelt game ended 11 seconds earlier, Salem would have defeated the Roosevelt Roughriders and would probably have won the state crown according to most observers. Roosevelt went on to defeat Pendleton 60-30, LaGrande (62-60) in consolation games and then routed Medford 64-35 to win the fifth place title.
Salem's starting quint of Daryl Girod, Keith Farnam, Tom Pylous, Ben Pitzer and Bud DuVal each copped a berth on the all-star teams.
Coach Burleigh's Viking tank crew won four of their eight dual meets and then copped second place at the state meet held at the University of Oregon. Benson of Portland walked off with first place honors with Salem following a close second.
At this meet, Bob Hamblin who was undefeated in the backstroke during the season, won second place in the individual medley, setting new state records in each. Hamblin's records set were 1:07.7 for the backstroke and 1:25.5 in the 120-yard individual medley meet. Hamblin scored 110 points for the tank team while Captain Bill Allison was runner-up with 78 counters for the team.

Wrestlers Win Fifth
Hank Juran's Viking wrestlers won fifth place in the state meet in 1949 to finish one of their better seasons of the past few years after finishing the regular season with six wins and six losses.
One of the outstanding grapplers was 154-pound Vic Schweitz, who captured the state championship in addition to winning 17 matches, losing none, and tying one. Another state crown was won by Jack Sill, who won 11, lost one, and tied one during the regular season.
Cliff Hutchinson won 12 and lost only 2, while Lawrence Yellen won 10, lost 2, and took second place in the 165-pound weight class at the state tournament.
Salem high school's baseball nine won second place in the Big Six competition while Jim Rock and Gene Garver were standouts for the Vikings. The Salem team was bolstered by Gordy Sloan, Ben Pitzer, Doug Rogers and Keith Farnam, Bud DuVal and Bill Johnson.
In the final stages of the school year the golf and tennis teams coached by Loren Mort and Del Ramsdel respectively staged several matches. Lacking in experience the Viking golf team had only one returning letterman, Dan Callaghan. However, the Viks scheduled a long program and did win a few of their meets. Salem participated in an invitation meet at Eugene and Bob Gordon led the Vikings with a 183 score on the 36-hole course. Kent Myers had a 187, Dan Callaghan had 193, Leon Gordon was close behind with 194 and Sanford Weinstein had 200.

Golf Tournament
Salem played host to the annual state golf tournament at the Salem golf course, in which Grant of Portland won the state championship title.
Very strong in doubles competition, Coach Del Ramsdel's Viking tennis team won the Big Six doubles competition with Dick Tandy and Bob Satter winning the honors. In the sophomore competition at the Big Six meet Dick John and Norman Lee won the second place in the Big Six singles competition. The annual state tennis tournament was slated for the Irvington club in Portland but was cancelled because of rain.
Bringing the sport review to date in the fall of 1949 we see Coach Vern Gilmore's defending state cross country champions from '48 tangle at the state meet in Portland to come out with a knotted tie with Springfield. Bolstered by the fast running of Kent Myers, Don Herring, Dick Adams, Conrad Booze the Viks defended their championship from the previous years. Gridders Have Good Year
Coach Loren Mort's gridsters truly had the best season in the history of Salem high since 1938. Mort's squad would have won the district crown had they not been edged out 19-13 in their final clash with the Eugene Axemen. Salem defeated Albany, Bend, Springfield and Astoria to cop the first leg of the new Mayor's trophy donated by the mayors from both cities.
On the dirty part of the slate Salem bowed before Vancouver in the initial go of the season, Klamath Falls, Corvallis, Hillsboro and Eugene. The Vikings scored 79 points and 90 points were scored against them.
Big Jim Rock was the stand-out of the Vikings in the football season and he copped a berth on the Big Six all-star team in the left half slot. Other Viking grid standouts were Bill Johnson, Doug Rogers, Gordon Bacon on the line, and Gene Garver and Gordy Sloan in the Washington State and Oregon State line up tonight for the first loss-up of the 1950 Northern Division title play. The initial fray pairs OSC's defending Pacific Coast conference title defender with one of the early season favorites to carry off the new hunting.

Also at stake will be Oregon State's hopes of dedicating its new Gill Coliseum with a conference victory.
Oregon, a 14-62 victim of the Columbia Lions last night, tackles the easterners again tonight in the windup of its pre-conference campaign. The Ducks open Friday against the invading WSC five, the same night Idaho moves into Seattle against Washington.
Coach John Warren's Ducks, winners of only two games in 10 pre-season outings, never really got into last night's fray.

lead and boomed out to an 8-0 margin after 14 minutes of play. Halftime tally was 38-24. The closest Oregon approached was seven points—50-43—with nine minutes of the second half to play.
John Azary, the Annie Oakley-eyed guard who counted 34 points in Columbia's two losing efforts against Washington, bombarded the basket for 28 points against the Ducks to tie an all-time Columbia one-game scoring record. Will Urban led Oregon with 18 points.

backfield, Dick Peterson, 1950 captain, also was a standout.
Next year Coach Mort will be greeted by 14 lettermen, one for every position. The educated toe of Sophomore Burt Harp proved to be a main factor in the Viking plans for the coming season. Harp was injured in the last couple of games and was unable to play in the Astoria title.
As we said, you can now see why 1949 was a big year out at the 14 and D street plant with home record books now taken out of the cobwebs to compare them with the 1949 books for enjoyment in the homes of the four coaches.
