Hold Top Offices—Mr. and Mrs. LaVer Applegate this week were installed as noble grands for the IOOF and Rebekah lodges, respectively. The joint installation event was held Wednesday evening. (McEwan studio picture)

Mr., Mrs. Applegate Head IOOF and Rebekah Groups

Joint installation for Chemeketa lodge No. 1, IOOF and Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1, was held at the Odd Fellows temple, Wednesday evening. Special interest in the event is the fact Mr. and Mrs. LaVer Applegate, head of the respective groups, it being seldom that husband and wife are head officers during the same term.

The grand officers installed the elective and appointive officers into their respective chairs. The district deputy president, Mrs. William Beard, and the district deputy grand master, Lloyd Wood, were assisted by the following: Grand marshals, Miss Hazel Price and Ray Webb; grand wardens, Mrs. Vernon Frann and Pete Voth; grand secretaries, Mrs. Mae Cochran and William Drake; grand treasurers, Mrs. Iva-dene Hubbard and William Clade; grand chaplains, Mrs. Jennie Chalmers and George Naderman; grand inside guardians, Mrs. Richard Van Pelt and Clarence Kimball, and grand musician, Mrs. Walter Larson.

The elected officers installed were: Mr. and Mrs. LaVer Applegate, noble grands; Mrs. Luther Melton and Clem Ohlsen, vice grands; Mrs. Clem Ohlsen and Dr. Lloyd Hockett, secretaries; Mrs. William Gardner, financial secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Pepper and Chris Sumpter, treasurers; Mrs. Justina Kildee and Arthur Girod, junior past noble grands.

The appointive officers who were installed are Miss Edlyn Holmquist and Del Downey, wardens; Mrs. Colene Lounsbury and Wilford Beard, conductors; Mrs. M. W. Ready and George Beane, right supporters to the noble grands; Mrs. Lola McFarlane and Fred Paynter, left supporters to the noble grands; Mrs. Clyde Bancroft and Charles Huntington, chaplains; Mrs. Clarence Woelk and Lawrence McClure, inside guardians; Miss Wilda Siegmund and Ernest Finch, outside guardians; Mrs. Blanche Hull and Lloyd Wood, right supporters to the vice grands; Mrs. Charles Neubauer and Fred Schafer, DAYTON—The Dayton Civic club met Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. French, with 19 members and three guests attending. The guests were Mrs. Guy Remme, Mrs. Martha Nogosak and Mrs. James Smith of Florida.

There was a short business meeting. E. W. Budke spoke on the topic of "Modern Medicine." He then introduced Scott Leavitt of Newberg, who spoke on the new hospital campaign which has started in Newberg. With an assistant, they showed movies of modern equipment in the hospitals and compared it with old methods.

Mrs. James Smith gave a short talk on her trip by car from Florida. The Smiths plan to be here for some time.

The committee for the evening included the hostess, Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. Marian Krake and Mrs. Hattie French. Late refreshments were served.

SILVERTON—The planned international relations meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was postponed from Tuesday evening because of the unusually cold weather and slippery pavements until the February meeting, it is announced by Miss Hannah Olson, chairman.

Job's Daughters Install at Independence Ceremonies

Monmouth—New officers of Bethel No. 34, International Order of Job's Daughters were installed into their respective offices at a ceremony in the Masonic hall in Independence.

Margaret Mix, retiring queen of Bethel No. 34, had charge of the installation and acted as installing honor queen. She was assisted by Ann Thompson, Margaret Aynes, Ann Baker, Marilyn Schult, Marilyn Lorenz, Jean Herrig, and Yvonne Breding, all past honored queens.

Tillicum chapter, Order of DeMolay, assisted with the crowning ceremony and Queen Phyllis I was crowned by Richard Hewitt, acting master counselor. Ann Baker, accompanied by Ann Gibbons of Salem, sang several selections. Miss Gibbons also gave two piano solos. A lovely degree was given for Margaret Mix, retiring queen with special music by Louise Bennett.

The following were introduced and honored: Ann Gibben, Salem; Yvonne Breding, Portland; Elizabeth Hargrove, Portland; all present honored queens; Marilyn Schult, Portland; Jean Herrig, Salem, Margaret Mix, Ann Baker, Ann Thompson, and Margaret Aynes, all of Bethel 34; Gladys Hall, supreme marshal; O. M. Peterson vice associate grand guardian of Oregon; past guardians, Jean Hargrove and Mary Schult of Portland, Evelyn Rogers of Independence, Clara Van Loan of Monmouth; past associate guardians, Rex Gildow and Joe Rogers of Independence and L. A. Schult of Portland; Violet Swope, associate matron of Adah chapter, OES; Joe Rogers, associate patron of Ada chapter; Rex Gildow, master of Lyon lodge AF and AM; Clifford Menning, master counselor of Tillicum chapter DeMolay.

The honored queen announced initiation for the January 9 meeting with Margaret Aynes, Peggy Bell and Clara Brown as committee.

Refreshments were served after the meeting with dancing following in the club room.

Short Cuts for All the Girls

Ladylike Glamor—These smart young ladies make the best of their short hairdos. Here Victor Vito has designed: (Left) For Mom, a short brushed-up coiffure; (center) for Big Sis, a ladylike casual hairdo neither sophisticated nor childish and (right) for baby sister, a modified version of big sister's fashionable new haircut.

(AP Newsfeatures) Unless frustrated hairdressers with sharp shears decide that the crew haircut will shine in 1950, we should get through the year with a minimum of shock to our scalps.

Hairdressers have us just where they want us. We can't let our hair grow more than an inch without having it fall into a shapeless mass, so we must go on getting it cut to keep it looking fairly neat.

Frequently hairdressers, in trying to be artistic about their creations act like temperamental painters. One of them creates a "pinwheel" or a "flower-of-the-month" hairdo, and his contemporary decides to outshine him with an "egg-beater" or a "soup-strainer" coiffure.

All the while the poor girls who must wear these creations develop more of an inferiority complex.

It would be nice if hairdressers could design for face-types instead of creating weird abstract designs on any old head that happens to be around. There should be a hairdo this year to suit little Sis, baby-sitter Sis and Mom. You'll just have to shop around until you find a hairdresser who is willing to give you a nice simple hairstyle that suits your face, one that can be handled at home.

Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Friday, January 6, 1950—7

MR. AND MRS. LaVerne J. Young and son and daughter, Don and Gail, are home from a two weeks trip to Hollywood and Los Angeles. They visited Mr. Young's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Palmer, also his mother, Mrs. Rose Young. They took in the tournament of Roses, the Rose Bowl game and the opening event at the Santa Anita races.

SILVERTON—Mrs. F. Glenn McDonald, Woman's club publications chairman, is announcing the January meeting to be Monday at the social rooms of the First Christian church, with a 1 o'clock no-hostess luncheon. Hostesses are Mrs. A. O. Nelson, Mrs. Walt Leisy, Mrs. John Bertelson, Mrs. V. V. Runyan and Mrs. Clay Allen. Mrs. W. H. Woodward, Jr., will present for discussion the topic of the educational theme, "Community Betterment." Mrs. Earl Spencer will be vocal soloist for the afternoon program.
