The 123,000 Methodists in the Portland area, which includes Oregon, Washington and Idaho have adopted work in Japan as their responsibility in the foreign field in a three-year program just launched in the nation-wide movement known as "The Advance for Christ and His Church."

Bishop Gerald Kennedy, head of the Portland Area, states "Perhaps never before in history has so much depended on Christians as now. How glad we ought to be that Methodism makes it possible for us to be personally represented in every part of the earth."

In order to meet the ever increasing religious needs of the area through a progressive church program, a number of local projects have also been selected as worthy recipients of special aid through the Advance. By this means, several existing churches which have suffered fire and flood damage, will be repaired, new churches will be established in growing communities, expansion programs will be started, and a mobile unit will be provided for the modern "circuit rider" missionary who will travel the vast mountainous territory of over a million acres in eastern Idaho.

Idanha Church Is Dedicated

Idanha—An important event in Idanha was the dedication of the new community church building. This building has been under process of construction since early summer and not only residents of Idanha but people from many communities have helped, not only by labor but financially as well.

The dedication service was held at 2:30 o'clock and the church was filled to capacity. Henry Hiebert, acting as chairman, was in charge of the program, which follows:

Community singing, led by Sol Warkentin; scripture and prayer by the pastor, Eldon Haley; Detroit high school girls glee club, conducted and accompanied by Charlene Hannan; the poem, "The Builders," by Mrs. Henry Quiring; "God Is Here" by the male quartet of the Dallas Menonite Brethren; historical sketch, Mrs. Rheba Snyder; "Rose of Sharon," trio.

Minute greetings were brought by Eldon Haley, NCC student pastor of the Idanha church, to all present; Warren Knape, NCC student pastor of the Christian church of Detroit, greetings from the pastor of the West Salem M. B. church; quartet, the Warkentin family, dedicatory message and dedicatory prayer by the Menonite Brethren pastor of Dallas; "Winning Men for Jesus," male quartet; offering; closing hymn and benediction.

Although much snow had fallen between Friday evening and Sunday morning, nearly continuously, "cats" belonging to the Hiebert-Savage logging company had cleared roads leading to the church, and ample parking room was available.

The Menonite Brethren of Dallas chartered a school bus which was filled to capacity for the occasion.

Margaret Truman Says Suitor Must Ask Dad for Her Hand

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Margaret Truman said today that when and if the right man comes along he'll have to ask the president for her hand. She couldn't say whether she'd over-ride her father's decision, since she couldn't predict the future state of her heart.

Miss Truman said, however, that she definitely would not marry this year and those who predicted she would were "all wet."

"There isn't even a remote possibility of a wedding this year," she said in an interview. "There is no particular man I'm interested in at present and I see no romance on the horizon."

"If and when the right man comes along, however, he'll have to see my father in the traditional manner. I certainly would want my family's consent, and I doubt if I'd attempt to marry anyone they'd disapprove of."

"But if my father did say no, I'm not sure of what I'd do. It depends on how I'd feel at the time."

Miss Truman, 25, the attractive, blue-eyed blonde daughter of President Truman, was interviewed in her apartment in mid-town Manhattan. She is here studying voice under the guidance of Soprano Helen Traubel.

She said that at present her musical career came ahead of any plans for matrimony.

Asked if anyone had ever proposed to her, Miss Truman blushed and said: "Let's not discuss that."

She said that in addition to the personal satisfaction she gets from her singing, she wanted to make "my father and mother proud of me."

Miss Truman indicated her gross income would be between $60,000 and $75,000 next year, or about equal to her father's.

She said she received $1,500 for each concert at $3,000 for each radio broadcast. During the 1949-50 season she will give 29 concerts and three radio broadcasts. Some of the concert arrangements include a percentage clause. Usually, artists in Miss Truman's category are guaranteed their base fee and draw 60 percent of the gate. In other words, if a house sold $5,000 worth of tickets, the artist would receive approximately $3,000.

Miss Truman said she "would like to" make some records this year. This would add substantially to her income.

In 1944, it measures 35 inches across and is about 40 feet high. In the shade of this tree the Gerig clan hold their annual family reunion each year with over 100 attending this reunion.
