Zeigler, and Bernadine, home on their first furlough, from the missionary fields of

It was 20 years ago that Rev. and Mrs. Zeigler, with their two small daughter. Emogene and Darlene, left America for missionary work in the darkest of Africa in the service of the Foursquare Gospel church. Since that time a son, Lewis, and a daughter Bernadine were born. born.

The Zeiglers were married by the late Aimee Semple McPher-son, founder, in Angelus Tem-ple, Los Angeles, Calif.

pie, Los Angeles, Calif.

The highlight of the trip home, was to be here for the wedding of their daughter, Darlene, to Jack Anderson on November 17, 1949, in Angelus Temple, with Dr. Rolf K. Mc-Pherson officiating. Both young people have been missionaries to South America.

The wedding party consisted

The wedding party consisted of Foursquare ministers and relatives of the bride and groom.

All the way from South Afri-ca, a distance of several thousand miles, Mrs. Zeigler brought the wedding fruit cake for her daughter's wedding reception. She had baked, frosted, packed and wrapped it for the long journey. The day of the wedding it was assembled into a beauti ful three-tier confection.

The young couple have gone to Bolivia, where they will work together in the interests of the Foursquare missionary program.

Dorothy Zeigler returned to the United States in 1938, but this was the first time her husband had been to America since he first sailed away with his family. They attended the sou-thern California conference in November and enjoyed a much needed rest.
The three older Zeigler children have received much of their education at the Life Bi-ble school and college in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Zeigler attended the Web foot grade school and the Day-ton high school many years ago
