Six Nabbed In Khan Jewel Case

Paris, Jan. 21 (AP)—French police reported today that they had arrested six gangsters, found two slain, and sent out alarms for three more in the $710,000 jewel robbery of the Aga Khan and his beautiful wife last August.

One of the Surete nationale's greatest manhunts was reported to have brought arrests in Paris, Marseille, Cannes, Corsica, and Strasbourg. None of the treasure snatched from the Moslem leader on the Riviera had been recovered.

The tough "Corsican Gang" was staggered if not shattered by the campaign against its members for one of the greatest jewel robberies of all time. Some 40 pieces of rare value were lost in the holdup near Cannes.

Roger Senanendj, called "Big Roger," who from the start had been suspected, was found slain. Also killed was his blonde mistress, Renee Remy, for whom police had been searching since the robbery.

Philadelphia, Jan. 21 (AP)—Discovery of a new drug, called artisono, for alleviating the pain and swelling in arthritis, was announced today at a regional meeting of the American College of Physicians.

The drug has been used successfully in treating patients suffering from mild and severe rheumatoid arthritis. It was ineffective in very advanced cases.

The importance of the new drug, its discoverers said, is that it can be made available eventually in quantity and at moderate cost. It is not toxic.

They predicted artisono would be the forerunner of a group of new synthetic hormone-like substances which it is hoped will be valuable in the treatment of degenerative diseases of the aging. Already, several other derivatives have been synthesized and will be tested clinically.

Announcement of the new compound was made by Drs. Donald R. Fitch and Peter J. Warter of Hahnemann hospital, and Dr. Joseph Seifter, director of the Wyeth Institute of Applied Biochemistry.

CHRIST AND THE SCRIPTURES!

Would faith in the Bible bring order out of the world's chaos? Can modern man safely trust in Holy Writ? What did Jesus say on the subject? You ought to hear this stirring address.

The lad in this picture has been into some kind of mischief, and his dad has called him "on the carpet." His drooping head and downward gaze suggest a consciousness of wrongdoing.

These are always tense moments in parent and child relations, because they involve a meeting of personalities in a situation which might easily serve to strengthen or weaken the parental tie.

This is no occasion for parental anger, arrogance, or bluster. The situation calls for a sympathetic understanding, a calm appraisal, and good judgment based on the moral and spiritual elements in human conduct.

Parents need the wisdom of God and spiritual guidance in dealing with the behavior problems of their children. Mistakes made in these circumstances often lead to unfortunate results.

The counsel of the Church and the inspiration of the Scriptures is offered to every parent who seeks divine guidance in meeting the responsibilities of parenthood.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
