Miss Herrell Tells Betrothal

Independence — The engagement of Miss Marjorie Herrell of Salem to E. Dee Taylor, Jr. was recently announced. Miss Herrell is the daughter of Mrs. Clyde Simpson of Albany. She attended Salem schools and is employed at the state industrial accident commission.

Mr. Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Taylor and is a businessman of Independence.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Installation For Gold Star Mothers

In a formal setting of candlelight and baskets of gold and white flowers, officers of Salem chapter, American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., were installed last week. Due to the weather, Mrs. Magdalena Butler of North Bend, state president, was unable to be present and Mrs. Ben Larkins, past president of Salem chapter, presided.

Mrs. Laura Johnson, also a past president of Salem chapter, was the installing chaplain. The color bearers assisting were M. E. Clemens, chief electricians mate, Naval Reserve, and commander of Marion post 961, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Eugene M. Jarvis, radioman 2nd class, both in the uniform of the United States navy. Light-ing the tapers were Miss Patricia Olson, daughter of the incoming president, Mrs. Lincoln Olson and Miss Doris Lappin, daughter of the incoming corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jake Lappin.

Before the installation Wayne Meusey sang Schubert's "Ave Maria." At the close of the ceremony Raymond Dahlton, accompanied by Mrs. Arlene Toelle, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

During the social hour following refreshments were served from a beautifully set table covered with a gold cloth and centered by a bouquet of daffodils and heather. Serving the guests were the three daughters-in-law of the new president, Mesdames Leo Olson, Thaine Olson and Dale Olson, and Miss Karen Young, daughter of the new first vice president, Mrs. Frank Young Wayne Meusey provided the musical numbers during the social hour.

MISS MARILYN EYERLY, daughter of the Russell Eyerlys, was in Cottage Grove and Creswell from Friday through Sunday, visiting relatives and friends.

Today's Menu

(By the Associated Press)

Company for Dinner

Antipasto
Veal Sauté with Tomato Sauce and Parmesan Cheese
Mashed Potatoes Broccoli
Green Salad Crusty Rolls
Fresh Fruit Beverage
Tomato Sauce

Ingredients: 4 tablespoons olive or other salad oil, 2 medium-sized onions (finely diced), ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon finely crushed dried basil, ¼ teaspoon finely crushed dried oregano, 1 small clove garlic, 1 ten-and-one-half ounce can tomato puree, 1 six-ounce can tomato paste, 1 three-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms.

Method: Heat the olive or other salad oil in a medium-sized deep skillet or in a saucapan over moderate heat; add the onions and cook, stirring frequently, for 5 to 10 minutes or until yellowed. Crush the salt, pepper, basil, and oregano with the garlic clove and add along with tomato puree and tomato paste; cover and cook gently, stirring occasionally, for about 30 minutes. Add the mushrooms, including the liquid from the can, and reheat. Makes about 8 servings.

In using unsweetened chocolate in cakes, cookies, or other desserts remember that one square is the equivalent of one ounce.
