

Polk County Clerk Issues Marriage License to Self

Dallas, Jan. 26—Several hundreds of marriage licenses have been issued in the office of Edna M. Pitzer, Polk county clerk, but last week was the first time that one was issued to Edna M. Pitzer.

The clerk was married Saturday in a quiet ceremony to Bruce M. Allen of Prineville with Rev. Cyril P. Hanney, vicar of St. Thomas Episcopal church, officiating. Only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Claus and Mr. Allen's son by a former marriage, Ronnie.

The groom is salesman for the Prineville Machine and Supply company, Prineville, a company that is affiliated with the Gerlinger Carrier company of Dallas. He worked for the predecessor of the carrier company, Dallas Machine and Locomotive Works, here many years ago. Mrs. Allen, who has been in the clerk's office as deputy and clerk since 1928, has not made a definite decision about resigning her position. Eventually, she plans to join her husband at Prineville where they will make their home.

She has three years more to serve on her present term. Should she leave before it expires, the county court will have the duty of appointing a successor. Judge Jack Hayer said Wednesday that the court has no candidates in mind.

Mrs. Allen first entered the clerk's office under Hugh Black, and continued in the office when Carl Graves was elected clerk in 1932. Later she was appointed chief clerk in 1938 and served in that capacity until Graves resigned late in 1942. Mrs. Allen became the first woman clerk ever to serve Polk county on January 1, 1943, when she was appointed by the county court. Since that time she has been elected to the position and re-elected in 1948.
