Double Wedding

Silverton—Mrs. Eloise Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Otto Schwab, is announcing her marriage, Saturday noon, at Vancouver, Wash., to Dean Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Silverton.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Margaret Kincaid, and Carl Hoffart, who also were married at that time, the Johnsons attending them.

The brides were tailored suits, Mrs. Johnson a turquoise and Mrs. Hoffart, a moss brown. The four returned to Portland for a wedding dinner.

The Johnsons and Hoffarts will continue to make their homes in Silverton. All are prominent here in civic and social affairs and have many local friends.

MEETING of the Past President's club of the American Legion auxiliary, Capital Unit No. 9, planned for this evening at the Onas Olson home, has been cancelled.

Boots and Spurs

Last Friday's Fun night, put on by Jerry Rawlins and his pal, Frank Craik, certainly brought out a crowd—more than 25 participating in the egg and spoon races, apple spearing, stake bending and old maid matched cards. Ed Goeckner's daughter, 9 year old Thirza, handed out the prizes and with the mothers of the boys putting on a lunch of chili, nut bread, and coffee, a very enjoyable evening was marked up.

Horsemen never get over it—the Ray Bartons are in town for the winter. They operate a large wheat farm in eastern Colorado and as soon as the crop is in, head for Salem so they can keep track of the Saddle club mounts and their owners. As most of you will recall he was with the Valley Packing company for about 20 years and for two years was the outstanding trailmaster of the saddle club—trail rides every Sunday and every one different.

Sunday's calf roping was like old times—every roper was out and visitors were in from every corner of the state. In the afternoon, the younger set took over.

It is pleasant to note that Leo Spitzbart's crew has graded the road around the barn where it had been damaged by the freeze. This might be a good time to mention something about the rules of the ring. The first twelve feet out from the wall belong to the faster moving riders. If you are walking your horse, you must keep well away from the wall. When you enter the arena, you do so at your own risk and it is advisable to be on the lookout for riders coming fast in the path allotted to them. The space between the pillars in the north east corner, from the bucking chutes to the first post, is available to parking, if you are in conversation with someone in the gallery but you must not leave your horse riderless in the ring at any time. The barn men have charge of the exercising of all mounts.

Aowakiya Camp Fire met Tuesday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Sam Randle. A birthday party was given in honor of Marilyn June Zeller on her eleventh birthday. After group singing and games, Mrs. Irving Zeller served refreshments.

Girls from the two third grades at Highland school organized a new Blue Bird group with Mrs. Reuben Knittel as their leader, Friday. They elected the following officers: Gail DeSart, president; Patricia Foelkl, secretary; Peggy Huson, treasurer; Susan Roberts, scribe.

REED COLLEGE, Portland—Edgar Posschl, a former resident of Salem, now living in Portland, has been chosen to play the part of Ulric Brendel in Ibsen's "Rosmorholm," the next Reed College dramatic production. The play, under the direction of Reed drama coach, Sanford Wheeler, is scheduled for performance during the month of February.

Edgar Posschl was graduated from Salem senior high school in 1947 and is now a junior at Reed, majoring in chemistry.

Miss Elkins Wed Jan. 20

Monmouth—Miss Helen Elkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elkins of Monmouth was married to James L. Comstock, Thorp, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Comstock of Monmouth, Friday evening, January 20 at 8 o'clock at the Christian church in Monmouth. Jack McElravy, brother-in-law of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The altar was beautifully decorated with pink and white snapdragons with ferns and lighted candles. Eldon Riddell sang, accompanied by Mrs. R. D. Elliott who also played the wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with long pointed sleeves, sheer nylon yoke, and a full circular skirt. Her illusion fingertip veil fell from a coronet made of seed pearls. For her flowers the bride carried white roses and pink bouvardia.

Mrs. Jack McElravy of Eugene, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore pink brocaded satin made similar to the bride's dress and carried an old fashioned nosegay of spring flowers.

Miss Margaret McGonegal, cousin of the bride, and Miss Donna McElravy of Salem were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of blue taffeta and they carried old fashioned nosegays of spring flowers.

Lighting the candles were Miss Donna Comstock, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Patsy Perkins of Monmouth.

Patty Elkins, cousin of the bride, Portland, was flower girl and she wore a white dotted Swiss dress. Jimmy Elkins, also cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Donald Comstock Jr. served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Irvin Zastoupil of Woodburn, Merlin Elkins and Bill Baker of Monmouth.

Mrs. Elkins chose a green crepe dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Comstock wore

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at Thorp, Wash., where both will attend Central Washington School of the Bible.
