

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Friday, January 27, 1950

Miss Lusk To Be Wed Next April

Justice and Mrs. Hall S. Lusk are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Emmons Lusk, to John Gerald Connole of Berkeley, Calif., son of Paul Parnell Connole of St. Louis, Mo.

The wedding is planned for next April.

Miss Lusk attended Smith college and received her degree from the San Francisco College for Women. She is now doing research work for the office of the president at University of California. Mr. Connole is finishing his work at University of California.

Junior Women Are Entertained

Silverton—Mrs. Lowell Hoblitt assisted by Mrs. Bob Morford was hostess to members of the Junior Women's club Tuesday evening, Mrs. Orville Frank presided.

Election of officers was conducted with Mrs. Frank to serve as president for another year. Her assisting officers are: Mrs. Rob Morford as vice president and Mrs. Gerald Smedstad as secretary-treasurer.

The Silverton group of young matrons is extending an invitation to the third district federation of women's clubs to hold the autumn convention at Silverton. The request came from Mrs. Charles W. Nash, district housing chairman, Oswego.

The members accepted the invitation to send delegates to the spring institute, of the third district of federation of women's clubs to be held at the Portland Congress hotel, March 3.

Members are assisting Mrs. Lawrence Osterman of Salem in addressing envelopes for the Easter Seal sale.

The president, Mrs. Orville Frank, will entertain the members at her South Third street home at the next meeting, Tuesday evening, February 14. St. Valentine's day will be featured. A white elephant sale will be given to increase the budget for the year's projects.

MRS. PHILIP BOUEF-FLEUR entertained the Royal Neighbors of America's sewing club at a dessert luncheon, Wednesday. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Alta Kuescher, Mrs. Inez Geer, Mrs. Virgil Gamble and Mrs. Lucia Key.

Others attending were Mesdames Mary Ackerman, Lula Ackerman, Anna Mae Anderson, Margaret Campbell, Ora Harder, Ethel Davenport, Grace Kasson, Margaret Willis, Mable Miles, Leona Witzel, Hazel Elliott, Hatie Rulf, Zula Webb, Laverna Fiala, Estella Walworth, Elizabeth Pugh, Sara Peterson, Dora Pratt, Julia Gregory, Josephine Quamme, Florence Rowe, Frances Hoyt and one visitor, Mrs. Amy Hine.

In addition to the regular business meeting of the officers of the club for 1950 were installed, Mrs. Inez Geer as president, and Mrs. Hazel Elliott as vice president; Mrs. Virgil Gamble, secretary; Mrs. Grace Kasson, treasurers; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

Planz are underway for a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. Earl Burk on February 8 and the revealing of "secret pals."

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

ur; and Mrs. Frances Hoyt, press chairman.

Miss Shirley Wed Jan. 20

Miss LaJune Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Shirley, was married to James Edward Bentley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bentley of Shamrock, Texas, at a ceremony solemnized Friday night, January 20, in the Central Church of Christ, the Rev. M. C. Cuthbertson officiating at the 7 o'clock service.

The altar was banked with ferns and cedar greens and baskets of white stock and carnations. Candelabrum with lighted tapers stood at either side. Miss Barbara Gass and Miss Beverly Pratt lighted the tapers.

Mrs. Lee Waldroop sang the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin designed with low neckline, tight bodice, the floor-length skirt having a white net overskirt with tiny satin bows caught in the net. The illusion veil was fingertip length. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with satin streamers. For the something old the bride carried, in her bouquet, a 146-year-old copper spoon of unusual design that had been given to her mother by her grandmother.

Mrs. Helen Sue Walker was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a pale green net floor length frock and carried a bouquet matching that of the bride.

Virgil Simmons was best man. Warren Perkins and James Boone were the ushers.

The reception following was in the church fireplace room, a large group of friends and relatives attending.

The couple will be at home at 725 South 13th street. The bride attended North Texas State high school at Denton before moving with her family to Salem last August. Mr. Bentley attended Shamrock, Texas schools before entering the January Wedding—Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Bentley (LaJune Shirley) were married January 20 and will make their home in Salem. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Shirley of Salem, Mr. Bentley the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bentley of Shamrock, Texas. (Kennell-Ellis studio picture)

Campus Clippings

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

By GERI BOWLES

With registration and social plans already under way for next term, Willamette is preparing to burn the midnight oil as final week begins bright and early tomorrow morning. The last papers will be written Friday, and most students have planned some activity for the week-end before final registration starts Monday, February 6.

Army

Shower Given

On Tuesday evening a shower was given the newlyweds in the fireplace room of the Central Church of Christ, many friends attending. Hostesses were Mrs. Alysne Dent, Mrs. Viola Carter, Mrs. Bertha Welty, Mrs. M. C. Cuthbertson, Mrs. Juanita Boone, Mrs. Virgil Simmons. Games were played and pictures shown. Pink and white flowers and white tapers decorated the tables.

Willamette

Willamette Had the Opportunity

Willamette had the opportunity Wednesday to hear United States Senator Wayne L. Morse of Oregon speak to a filled chapel in Waller hall. Russ Tripp, ASWU student body president and chairman of the Willamette group to re-elect Morse, was instrumental in bringing the senator to the campus. Senator Morse's address was keynoted with the introduction of his slogan for the forthcoming campaign, "Principle Above Politics," and met with substantial interest among university students.

Lou Scrivens

Lou Scrivens of Portland has been honored this month by the Salem Rotary organization in being selected as January Rotarian. Scrivens is one of the several sophomores on the varsity basketball squad and is now serving as temporary basketball captain. He is one of the sparks on the team, which will meet Pacific university tomorrow night in Willamette's gym.

Mark Hatfield

Mark Hatfield, instructor in political science at Willamette, is directing a new public service feature over KOCO every Saturday evening in an effort to air objective commentaries on all levels of governmental activity. The program has already commanded the attention of many and will prove to be of even greater importance as the coming political contests gain momentum.

Freshmen Glee

Freshmen Glee has been changed to March 25 in order to avoid a conflict with six-weeks exams and to give students an opportunity to rest up during spring vacation a week later.

The list of committee chairmen has been completed by Duane Denney, Glee manager, and includes: Dick Louthan, publicity; and Buzz Sawyer, stage manager, both of Salem; Marilyn Whaley, decorations; Prudence Edwards, tickets; Mary Ellen Phillips, ushers; and Dick Ruff, seating and chairs, all of Portland; and Steve Nicks, lighting, Redlands, Calif. A capacity crowd of 2200 is expected to fill the gymnasium this year.

Wayne Hilliard

Wayne Hilliard of Salem will act as president of the Law School student body affairs during the next term as the result of elections held recently. William Hallin of Longview, Wash., will serve as vice president, Jim Ragland of Brooks, secretary-treasurer, and Elliott Motschenbacher of Roseburg, student council representative. James Bodie of Salem is the out-going president.

Prizes are being offered to winners of the Inter-Faith Council's essay contest on the subject, "Our Future's Stake in the Present." The awards will be presented between acts of the Religious Emphasis Week play, "Ghosts," on February 16, announces Jeanne duBuy of Salem, chairman.

Dear Mrs. Housewife:

Apparently you don't mind competition. Like we said, we shop, cook, set table and do dishes for just 99¢ a person (or kids under 10 for 44¢). We're happy to see you at the New Buffet Dinner every night (but Sunday) from 5 to 8:30 P.M. Don't mind trading work for pleasure, huh?

The Holyhouse

Add a little prepared horseradish to mayonnaise to pep up a salad.

Zontians Entertained

Initiation for two new members was conducted at the meeting of the Salem Zonta club Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Karl Becke.

Miss Josephine Baumgartner and Miss Buena Stewart are the two new members. Dr. Helen Pearce, past Zonta International president, officiated at the initiation.

At the business session, the club voted a contribution to the March of Dimes campaign. Plans were discussed for a rummage sale on February 24 and 25 and it was announced members may leave articles for the sale at the home of Mrs. Herbert Winkler.

Plans also were discussed for the inter-city meeting on the evening of February 23 at the home of Mrs. Saul Janz, members of the Albany Zonta club to be guests. Miss Alene Phillips is chairman of the inter-city committee arranging for the event, Miss Lena Belle Tartar as program chairman for the meeting.

Luncheon meeting for the club will come February 9 at the Golden Pheasant.

About 30 attended last evening's meeting. Mrs. James Bunnell and Mrs. Mabel Clark being co-hostesses with Mrs. Becke. Early dessert was served, Mrs. Herbert Winkler presiding at the serving table set with a red cloth and decorated in the Van-etienne theme.

Amaranth Event

Cherry court, Order of the Amaranth, met this past Tuesday evening at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Christenson were initiated into the order.

Special guests for the evening included Mrs. James B. Manning, grand royal matron of Amaranth; James Burrell, grand representative to Australia, and Mrs. Burrell; Harvey Aston, past grand royal patron; Mrs. William Wilson, royal matron of Hanna Rosa court; Don Patton, royal patron of Hanna Rosa

Campus Clippings

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

By CHARLOTTE ALEXANDER

The final spurt for Dads' day preparations is under way. Dads may register at any of the following places: Johnson hall from 9-5; Osborn hotel, 9-11; Eugene hotel, 9-5; John Straub hall, 11-1-30. Tickets will be available for the basketball games upon registering. The Dads' day luncheon will be Saturday, and in the afternoon the dads will be free to attend the dads meeting or go on special tours of the campus.

Senior Ball was a great success Saturday evening. Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Skitch Henderson. The decorations consisted of huge golden numerals "50" behind the bandstand, and panels depicting highlights in the progress of civilization from 1900 to the present. Seen at the dance were Betty Jo Branon, Joanne Fritzmaurice, Doug Carter, Jane Carson and her fiancé, Jim Shaw, Dick Barber, Al Gemmill, Suzanne Huggins.

William L. Shirer, author of the Berlin Diaries, spoke to the students and townspeople on Wednesday evening. His topic was "Where Are We Going?" Also guest speaker on the campus was Senator Wayne L. Morse, who spent some time on the campus Monday and Tuesday. Senator Morse spoke to the journalism and political science students, and the campus Young Republicans. At the Republican meeting, his topic was "Politics and Their Effect on College Students."

Freshmen women with a 3.00 or above will be entertained at the annual Smarty-Party, Tuesday, given by the Mortar Board. Smarty-Party is a traditional event, and is designed to recognize good scholarship among freshmen women.

Oregon's new $1,500,000 Science building is to be located between the men's pool and the physical plant. It is said it will be ready for use by the fall of 1951.

Dr. Gordon Wright, history professor at the University of Oregon, has been selected as one of the three men of the western half of the country, to attend a conference at Princeton university. The discussion for this court; William Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Booster, Mrs. Don Patton and Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore, all of Hanna Rosa court. Following the meeting, refreshments were served, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fryberger and Miss Grace Thapp in charge.

For Newcomers

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, who recently moved to Salem from Portland to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts are to entertain informally Saturday evening. Guests have been invited to call between 5 and 7 o'clock to greet the Taylors. Mr. Taylor is the newly named state insurance commissioner.

Today's Menu

(By the Associated Press)

SUNDAY DINNER

THE BRIDE COOKS

Tomato Juice
Poppyseed Crackers
Broiled Chicken Broiled Potatoes
Creamed Spinach
Baked Bananas and Cranberries
Bread and Butter
Cupcakes Beverage

BAKED BANANAS AND CRANBERRIES

Ingredients: 2 firm all-yellow or slightly green-tipped bananas, 2 teaspoons butter or margarine (melted), salt, 1/2 cup whole cranberry sauce.
Method: Peel bananas, cut in two crosswise and place the 4 halves in a small shallow buttered baking dish. Brush with the melted butter or margarine and sprinkle lightly with salt. Pour the cranberry sauce over the bananas and bake in a moderate (375°F) oven for about 12 to 15 minutes or until bananas are cooked through. Makes 2 servings. Note: If the cranberry sauce is molded heat and melt before turning over bananas.

Bacon drippings are excellent to use for pan-fried tomatoes. Make a cream sauce from the drippings, after the tomatoes are cooked, and serve over the slices.

Sojourners Are Entertained

Sixty-six members and several guests attended the semi-monthly dessert and card party for Sojourners club Thursday afternoon at the Salem Woman's club house.

Clever decorations carried out the March of Dimes campaign idea. "Warm Springs" was the general theme and dime-headed miniature swimmers were shown diving into the little blue pools.

New members welcomed were Mrs. George Denton and Mrs. James Bedinfield.

Guests included Mrs. John Benish of Eau Claire, Wis., who is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Lewis; Mrs. Erwin Duerksen, Mrs. Lowell Steen, Mrs. Leonard Krygier, Mrs. Eric Melle, Mrs. H. H. Brainerd, Mrs. George LeTourneau, Mrs. Bruce Thompson, Mrs. C. W. Lofgren.

Honors at cards went to Mrs. O. A. Olsen at pinocle and Mrs. James Heldman, Mrs. Ed Goeckner, Mrs. William Foster and Mrs. Frank Ward at bridge.

Mrs. Howard Post was chairman of the committee of hostesses for the afternoon.

SILVERTON—Mrs. L. Hall is announcing postponement of the card party to have been given by Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary, Monday evening, January 30 to the following evening, Tuesday, January 31, at the legion hall. The affair was deferred because of the meeting of Marion county council and assembly Monday evening at the legion hall, Salem, with Capital post and unit No. 9 as hosts groups.

SILVERTON—Mrs. C. W. Keene returned home from Spokane Thursday forenoon from an extended holiday vacation visit at home of her son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glaze (Margaret Keene), and two small daughters.

When you put soup away in the refrigerator be sure to cover that container tightly so as to eliminate evaporation.

ASPIRIN
AT ITS BEST WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER
AT 10¢

St. Joseph
ASPIRIN

1 1/2 grain tablets eliminate need for cutting. Orange flavored, so easy to take.

AIM for the heart...

on Valentine's Day. You never miss when you send a card from Margwen's. See our complete selection now.

Margwen's
440 N. Capitol
Ph. 28600
OPEN FRI. 'TIL 9 P.M.

Super Separates—The brief peplum jacket with 3/4 sleeves, shirt collar and pearl buttons is worn with a permanently pleated skirt of nylon.

Hunting Pink—Like a huntsman's coat is this scarlet wool sack coat with black velvet collar designed by Vera Maxwell for wear with everything.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brentano of St. Paul announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Brentano to Martin Joseph Krupicka, son of Mrs. M. Krupicka of Woodburn. No date has been set for the wedding.