

Ingrid to Charge Husband Made Her Work Too Hard

Juarez, Mexico, Jan. 28 (AP)—Ingrid Bergman, suing for a Mexican divorce so she can marry her Italian sweetheart, will charge that her husband made her work too hard, Attorney William A. Cocke said today.

Cocke, an El Paso, Tex., lawyer who filed the actress' suit here, said Miss Bergman would charge her husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom, with cruelty.

The petition charges, in part, that Lindstrom "forced her to make pictures when she didn't want to."

"As a result," Cocke said, "she was working all the time and got no rest."

If Lindstrom does not contest the suit, Miss Bergman could shed him in time to marry Italian Film Director Roberto Rossellini on Valentine's day.

Lindstrom was in Hollywood and wouldn't say whether he planned to come here to fight the divorce. He once flew to Rome in an attempt to break up Miss Bergman's romance with Rossellini and lure her back to himself.

Cocke said Miss Bergman's suit alleges that she never saw $175,000 which her husband, acting as her business manager, allegedly received for her work in the picture "Stromboli."

It was while making the picture on the romantic isle of the same name, that Miss Bergman fell in love with Rossellini, the director.

Notice of the film queen's divorce action was published officially today in the Chihuahua state bulletin.

Under Chihuahua state law, neither of the principals in a divorce needs to come to Mexico. Either can remarry immediately after the decree is granted.

Cocke said he expected the decree between Feb. 15 and Feb. 20. But if Lindstrom doesn't contest it, the decree could come on Valentine's day, Feb. 14. The grounds of the suit were those routinely listed in Hollywood courts—incompatibility, non-support and cruelty.

Cocke, who has handled 3,000 Mexican divorce cases, said this was "the most interesting I've ever handled."

Although the divorce petition was not unexpected, the speed with which it was recorded took followers of the romantic triangle by surprise.

Miss Bergman signed the divorce application in Rome before attorneys could work out a settlement for custody of the Lindstroms' 11-year-old daughter.

UN Contracts for $12 Million Building

Lake Success, Jan. 28 (AP)—The United Nations signed a contract yesterday for the second building in its new headquarters group—a five-story $12,000,000 home for its council meetings.

Adjoining the 39-floor secretariat building which the UN hopes to occupy by next January, the new structure will hold chambers for meetings of the security, trusteeship and economic and social councils.

The contract for the new building went to the firm of Fuller, Turner, Walsh and Slatery, Inc., of New York.

Bankers Offer $5125 For Farm Contests

Portland, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Oregon Bankers association will spend $665 more this year for farm contests. The total will be $5,125.

The association said most of the money will go to 4-H club and FFA contests. The bankers' executive and agricultural committees scheduled two conferences on agriculture, one here on March 17 and the other in Pendleton March 24.

Rossellini Gives First Interview

Rome, Jan. 28 (AP)—Italian Film Director Roberto Rossellini told reporters last night that Ingrid Bergman has quit the screen for good but he declined to answer any questions concerning their personal relationship.

He said he "didn't know if Miss Bergman is expecting a child soon and said he couldn't answer when asked when they would be married."

"I will answer any questions about my work," Rossellini said in the first press conference he has held since his romance with Miss Bergman was revealed. "But when you ask me something personal, I will tell you that I do not know and can not answer."

"Is Miss Bergman expecting a child within a short time?" he was asked.

"I don't know. I can't answer," he said. "You know more about that than I do."

Where and when will their marriage take place?

"I don't know. I can't answer," he said.

He was emphatic on one point, that Miss Bergman, who has been living in seclusion in Rome since completion of "Stromboli," has quit the screen for good.

"She is retired," Rossellini said. "That is clear. She is tired. She is not going to make any more films, never."

He said it was "terrible" for Miss Bergman to work "under the conditions she has faced."

He said he was "very content" about Miss Bergman's retirement.

"It means we can have a little peace," he said.

A Swedish correspondent pressed him on the matter of Miss Bergman being tired, because "Swedish women are very strong."

"I don't think so," Rossellini replied.

Always Room For One More

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—It's hard to get seats at Gubichev-Coplon spy trial here in New York. Hundreds are turned away every day.

Yesterday a guard stopped a short stocky man at the door because he had no pass.

"All right then, I go home," he said cheerfully.

It was defendant Valentin A. Gubichev.

They let him in.

American authorities said there had been a "moderate increase" among occupation personnel but all cases were mild and of short duration.

Woman Killed, Eight Hurt in Chicago Fire

Chicago, Jan. 28 (AP)—One woman was killed and eight other persons were injured, some believed seriously, early today when fire swept through a three-story north side rooming house.

Several persons leaped from windows as flames whipped through the brick flat building at 2142 north Clark street. Firemen said at least four suffered injuries after leaping and were hospitalized. Others hospitalized were overcome by smoke. Some 50 persons fled in their night clothes from the burning structure.

Mrs. Helen Ford, 36, died in the lobby of a nearby hotel after firemen removed her and her daughter, Sandra Lee, from their apartment. Both were overcome by smoke.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Portland Budget Balanced

Portland, Jan. 28 (AP)—The city council now expects Portland to squeeze by until the end of the fiscal year in June without running into debt.

The council indicated, however, that voters still may be asked later to approve measures to bring in more revenue.

The Greek historian Thucydides tells of eruptions of Mt. Etna as early as the eighth century B. C.
