

Vik Cagers Await Astoria, Take Loop Win from Millers

The oldest high school athletic rivalry in Oregon renews itself on the Salem high floor at 8:15 Saturday night when Salem and Astoria tangle in the 50th game of their aged feud.

The Salem-Astoria series will be all tied up at 25 games apiece should the Vikings come through with a victory tonight. The record now reads 25 wins for Astoria and 24 for Salem.

Coach Harold Hauk's Norsemen continued their torrid pace in the Big Six derby with a convincing 57-41 triumph over Springfield in the southern city Friday night.

Salem was out front all the way. It was 16-4 at the end of the first quarter and 27-11 at halftime. The only Springfield surge of the game came too late. The Millers hit a hot streak to rack up 11 counters in the final 3 minutes of play.

Layton Gilsen, playing on his second game as a member of the Vikings' starting five, again paced the Salem team in the scoring department. Gilsen dropped in four field goals and a trio of free throws for 11 counters.

Top scorer for the game, however, was Springfield's Jim Fort, with 13 tallies.

In the preliminary game, the Salem Jayvees bounced back from two straight losses to overpower the Springfield juniors 42-34. John Conder's 12 counters paced the JV triumph. A Springfielder, George Bilberback, copied top scoring honors for the game with 16.

SPORTSMEN PROTEST APRIL 15TH DATE FOR TROUT SEASON

Portland, Jan. 28 (AP)—Sports fishermen protested here yesterday a proposal to open the trout season in coastal streams April 15.

They told the state game commission, which tentatively suggested the date, that the opening was too early. Last year the date was June 15.

The protests came principally from the Multnomah Anglers and Hunters club and the Izak Walton League of Eugene.

Mert Foltz of the Eugene group also insisted that the steelhead season on the Netucca river should close Feb. 28, as last year, instead of being extended to March 15.

Foltz also argued for a uniform opening date on trout in the Willamette basin. He pointed out that the McKenzie river opening tentatively was set for May 15, while other streams in the area were scheduled for April 15.

Underdog Ducks Upset Huskies in Eugene Clash

Eugene, Ore., Jan. 28 (UP)—The University of Oregon's underdog Ducks upset the University of Washington's Northern division leading Huskies, 57-49, last night in a basketball game before 5129 McArthur court fans.

setbacks and the second defeat for Washington in seven starts.

Forward Paul Sowers' one-handed broke a 17-all tie in the first half to give Oregon a lead it kept.

The usually high-scoring Huskies were effectively bottled by the Ducks' shifting defense which changed from a man-to-man in the outcourt to a zone under the basket.

Oregon catapulted from a 28-23 halftime lead to 43-29 after seven minutes of the second half with Guard Jack Keller and Sowers teaming up for nine baskets.

But Washington's Forward Ladon Henson and Guard Louie Soriano sparked a Husky rally to cut the margin to 46-41 after 11 minutes. With six minutes to go the Washington tide was within four points, 43-47, but couldn't flood the hometown club.

Husky Center Duane Enochs fouled out in the first half, handicapping the Seattleites in the reach department.

Keller took scoring honors with 16 points as Sowers made 13 on the Oregon side. Henson's 14 led the Huskies with Frank Guiness' 13 next in line.

The teams play again tonight to wind up a tandem series.

Demaret Leads Hogan Tourney On Two Strokes

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 28 (AP)—Jimmy Demaret, his golf as fancy as his clothes, defends a two-stroke lead in the $10,000 Ben Hogan open today and sees his luck return.

The Ojai, Calif., veteran who hasn't won a tournament since beating Hogan in the 1949 playoff here, goes into today's third round with a 131, two strokes better than Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C.

Bantam Ben, the comeback man in whose honor they named this event, skidded over par figures yesterday and found himself with a 138, five strokes off the pace but not out of the running.

He had no excuses.

"I felt fine. I just didn't play very good golf," he said in the locker room.

Skits and Scratches

By FRED ZIMMERMAN, Capital Journal Sports Editor

First Negro at OSC?

Although Oregon State has never had a definite regulation against the use of Negroes in athletics, it has been pretty well understood that their competition was not encouraged. Now there is the possibility that Art Shepherd, Benson Tech graduate, playing for Vanport college, may enroll at the Beaver institution next year. Shepherd is reported as being exceptionally fast and a good shot and an outstanding collegiate prospect in basketball. And couldn't Slat's Gill use a man of Shepherd's ability right now? When the University of Indiana recently sent its cage squad west, it included Bill Garrett, the first Negro ever to play for the Hoosiers.

Admits No Handicap

What Michigan State needs on its basketball squad is more one-eyed men and fewer boys with 20-20 vision, judging by the experience of this year's Spartan club. Michigan State won but two games out of its first dozen starts even though 10 or 12 members of the squad have "perfect" vision. The player largely responsible for the two victories through scoring sprees of 17 and 34 points, has only 10 percent vision in his right eye. He is Bill Rapehak, veteran senior forward whose bad eye dates from an automobile accident suffered when but five years old. However, in spite of this handicap he played brilliantly in high school. His 34 points against Marquette was a new all-time single record for the Spartans. He has never worn glasses and makes a specialty of one hand set shots from outside the enemy's defenses, where sharp vision and particularly distance perception through use of two good eyes are highly important.

Storm Damages

Messed up basketball schedules does not constitute the only storm damage during the month of January. There are the golf courses, for instance. "Might as well forget golf for the weekend," remarked Bill Goodwin, local realtor and prominent in the Salem Men's club as he viewed the "beautiful snow" Friday morning. Perhaps some one will develop a golf ball with a brilliant red hue color with a tail attached that will mark the spot where it descends. Such a contraption might look a bit odd sailing through the air but it might keep the club swingers alert. And to think, chambers of commerce have long bragged about year around golf in the Willamette valley!

Legion Junior Baseball

Ignoring the white covering now with us, the junior American Legion baseball committee comes forth with the announcement that an organization session will be held February 27 at the club on South Commercial street. Nothing like getting an early start.

Globe Trotters to Draw

Providing they are not snow bound somewhere at the time, prospects for a capacity crowd in Willamette's gym next Monday night when the Harlem Globetrotters put on their show are about 100 percent. A motion picture film showing the colored boys in their various antics currently going the rounds, has stimulated interest in the performance, no end. While showmen of the first class, the Trotters are all expert basketball players as their .931 average for 22 seasons well indicates. Their high mark came in the 1933-34 season when they won an incredible 152 out of 154 games. The low was in 1941-42, the first war year, when the average dropped to .882. Naturally the personnel of the traveling troupe changes from year to year since a member of the first team back in 1927-28 could not be expected to take part in 150 or more games a season now. Playing night after night, there is no need for practice. Last season the Trotters toured Alaska under army sponsorship and played 14 games within five days with thousands of miles of air travel sandwiched in between. They won all of them, too.

Mt. Angel Coasts To 32-30 Victory Over Molalla '5'

Mt. Angel—A 12 to 2 margin that the local Preps piled up during the first period of competition, paid off as Mt. Angel nosed Molalla at Molalla Friday night, 32-30. The game, a Willamette Valley league affair, kept the Preps on top.

Molalla managed to trim the deficit to a 19-15 basis at half-time and tied it up at 29-all midway of the final period.

PGA Warns Golfers to Quit Tourney Slow-ups

New York, Jan. 28 (UP)—The U. S. Golf association issued another warning today to players who slow up tournaments by deliberating too long over each shot.

Continued cuts in the size of the field for the U. S. open championship were threatened unless the slow players speed up. The number of places available in the U. S. open last year was trimmed in the first move to eliminate stalling.

With Her Aim So Good He'd Have To Be Careful!

Tampa, Fla., Jan. 28 (AP)—Like Calamity Jane who was a pretty fair hand at outshooting the men, Mrs. Ruth Ray of Eugene, Ore., can do a little boasting over males in general and her husband in particular.

She and hubby, Cal, tied for second place at 248 in the 16-year singles competition of the national midwinter trapshoot. Then in the shoot-off yesterday she shattered 25 straight targets.

Maybe it was nerves, or letting wifey have the last say—but the head of the family missed two.

Santa Anita Biz Shows Decline

Los Angeles, Jan. 28 (AP)—Business is off at Santa Anita race track, says the Los Angeles Turf club's controller. The average bettor this year is wagering only $55.75 a day, compared to $59.63 last year.

Then, too, the average daily attendance for the first 20 days of the present meeting is down from 25,155 to 24,823.

Controller Robert E. King told the state assembly interim committee on taxation yesterday that tracks cannot stand another tax dig. But his figures showed that stockholders of the turf club received $1,000 on each $5,000 par value share last year.

Friday night's Marion-Folk league ball game between Sacred Heart of Salem and Stayton was postponed on account of poor travel conditions.

Exam Silence to End as College Teams Square Off

New York, Jan. 28 (UP)—The period of quiet imposed on the college basketball front by examination week will be shattered tonight as crowds jam arenas in every section of the country for one of the largest Saturday night programs of the season.

And, although many conference games are on tap, the night's highlights are likely to come from two non-league doubleheaders—one in Chicago and the other in San Francisco.

One of the Chicago games is a repeat affair between Northwestern and Notre Dame with the Wildcats out to repeat their earlier 66-56 victory over the Irish. But Notre Dame has improved since that game, hitting its peak in a win over Kentucky, and a top-notch scrap was the prospect.

The other windy city game matches DePaul and the Oklahoma Aggies, both highly rated nationally, in a renewal of a rivalry that became famous when George Mikan was performing for DePaul and Bob Kurland for the Aggies. The DePaul Demons were the favorites.

The University of San Francisco Dons, who trounced Southern California last night, 55 to 41, will be out for another scalp at San Francisco tonight against California, while Southern Cal will be trying to rebound against St. Mary's in the other.

Leading games tonight include:
California-San Francisco, Southern Cal-St. Mary's, UCLA-Cal.

Bearcats Face Crucial With Badgers Saturday

One of those "crucial" sessions that bob up now and then in most sports, is due to be hooped off on Willamette university's basketball court at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Coach Johnny Lewis' Bearcats and the Pacific University Badgers will provide the entertainment. If the Badgers, now breathing down the Bearcats' necks, take the affair, the two quints will be tied for leadership of the Northwest conference.

Willamette had had a tough week. Last Monday they suffered their first defeat of the conference season when they bumped up against a red hot Whitman quint at Walla Walla. Then Thursday night they were smothered by the Stewart Chevrolet's of San Francisco. In the meantime the "Cats have been wondering whether they would be able to pass the mid year scholastic tests.

It is probable Coach Lewis will stick with the five men who have started recent games: Dick Brouwer and Ted Loder, forwards; Doug Logue, center; Hugh Bellingier and Lou Scrivens, guards.

Pacific expects to start Dick Morgan and Stan Staniszewski, forwards; Ed Rooney, center;

Webfoots Select Dates for Summer Hoop-Grid Clinic

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 28—The dates have been set for the annual summer football-basketball clinic held by the University of Oregon summer session, it was announced by Dean Paul Jacobson, director of the summer school.

The combined clinic will open on July 10 and close July 21. One week of the football work will be conducted by Jim Aiken, Oregon's head coach, and the other by a guest coach. The same system will be applied to basketball and Oregon's John Warren will split the two week period with another visiting coach.

Dean Jacobson said the visiting coaches would be announced later. In the past Stu Holcomb and Wally Butts of Georgia have handled football and Valad Peterson of Utah and Gordon Ridings of Columbia were in charge of basketball.
