

ANNOUNCED this week was the engagement of Miss Mary Elizabeth Lucretia Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kelly of New York City. The wedding is to be in March in New York.

Joint Reception by OSC and UO Mothers Clubs Thursday Afternoon

To have presidents of both state organizations of Oregon State College and University of Oregon Mothers clubs as residents is the distinctive honor for Salem this year.

In recognition of this honor, a reception is planned for next Thursday afternoon, February 9, at the Morningstar residence of Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, 2990 South 12th street, honoring Mrs. George H. Swift, who is the state president of the UO mothers, and Mrs. Oscar J. Paulson, the state president for the OSC mothers.

The joint affair is sponsored by the two local units of the mothers' clubs, and hours for the tea are between 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

Officers of both clubs have been invited and an invitation is extended through the press to all members of both district vice president and interested friends of both schools to attend.

The weekly at home afternoon will be observed by Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, Tuesday afternoon, Salem and out-of-town friends being invited to call that afternoon.

Hollywood Lions club auxiliary announces its meeting for next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. James Tindall, 1120 Columbia. Mrs. Archie Elliott, Mrs. J. E. VanWynyard and Mrs. Charles Cox are to be hostesses.

Miss Alice Pendlebury, exchange teacher from England at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, is to be the speaker.

Salem Women's Army and Navy League plans a monthly luncheon and social afternoon for Tuesday at 1 o'clock at Chuck's Steak House. There will be special entertainment following the luncheon. Mrs. Frank Keating is chairman for the afternoon.

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay are in Oregon City this evening to attend a community gathering there.

Valentine day, February 14, is the date announced for the wedding of Miss Barbara Richardson and George Bartlett. The ceremony will be held at 7 o'clock in the evening in the First Evangelical United Brethren church.

Miss Richardson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Richardson and attended Salem schools, also University of Oregon. Mr. Bartlett is the son of Mrs. Lena Bartlett. He attended Salem schools and was in the navy for six years.

SORORITY ALUMNAE CLUBS

Several sorority alumnae groups have meetings slated for next week. Chi Omega alumnae are to meet on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Frank Turner, 740 South street. Mrs. Clarence Webber, Jr., as co-hostess. Dessert will be followed by a business session. All Chi Omegas in the city are invited.

Pi Beta Phi alumnae are meeting on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Sprague. Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling is chairman of the hostess committee.

Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will gather for their postponed meeting next Thursday evening. Mrs. George Schwarz and Mrs. Charles Heltzel to entertain the group at the Schwarz residence.

Regular meeting for Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 35, will be Monday evening in Beaver hall at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Ann Gibbons, honored guest, presiding.

ANNOUNCED for the evening of Thursday, February 14, is the annual sweetheart party of the Salem Lions club.

This year's event will be in the Chamber of Commerce, starting with a dinner at 7 o'clock. The affair is informal. Special entertainment is planned and in the program special emphasis is to be given to the leadership held by Lions in the community.

Wesley E. Stewart, Jr., heads the committee in charge, assisted by Leo Reicher, E. Burr Miller, E. Schenck, Leo Henderson, Dr. Earle Delancy, Richard Denton and Dr. F. D. Voigt.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

SALEM will be host to the annual meeting of the United Hop Growers' association next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, several hundred visitors to be here for the three-day event.

Several social affairs are being arranged to honor the visiting women.

A "Whose Here?" luncheon is planned Thursday at the Marion hotel.

That afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, an informal tea will be given at the Marion. Mrs. Gordon Hadley of Independence is chairman of the committee, assisting are Mrs. Roy Glatt of Woodburn, Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Salem, Mrs. Victor Belaire of Moxie City, Wash., Mrs. E. T. Rooney of Sacramento, Mrs. Romeo W. Gouley of Salem.

Among those assisting as hostesses at the tea will be Mrs. Dean H. Walker of Independence, Mrs. William Wallace Graham, Mrs. Fred Viesko, Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus, Mrs. Carl Smith, Mrs. Ben Hull, Mrs. E. W. Crosby, Jr., Mrs. Herman Goschke, Mrs. E. F. Willig, Mrs. Howard Eismann, Mrs. Otto Schlotman, Mrs. V. O. Kelley, Mrs. S. P. Linn, Mrs. James R. Linn.

Another social event during the convention will be the "Twilight Party" at Crystal Gardens, Thursday evening, a buffet supper and dance being planned from 6 o'clock on.

Friday evening brings the convention banquet at the Marion hotel.

Formal Military Ball Gala Event for Feb. 18

A COLORFUL SOCIAL event attracting much interest for mid-February will be the annual formal military ball to be sponsored by Marion county chapter of the Reserve Officers' association. Pictured here are some of the committee members and their wives, left to right: Capt. Dewey Rand, USAF, general chairman of the ball; Mrs. Dewey Rand, Major Leonard Hicks, USMC; Mrs. Carl H. Cover and Comdr. Carl H. Cover, USNR, president of the local Reserve Officers' association.

MONDAY opens the new semester for Willamette university students and already plans are under way for varied social events and campus activities during the early spring.

Big event of March will be the annual Freshman Glee, scheduled for March 25.

This year, for the first time, a reception is planned following the Glee. The reception will be given in Baxter hall. The affair is arranged in welcome to Mrs. Harry S. Dorman and Mrs. Lawson McCall, both recent newcomers here from Portland. Mr. Dorman came to Salem as state budget director and Mr. McCall to be administrative assistant in the governor's office.

Guests are invited to call at different hours between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock Friday to meet Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. McCall. Miss Aline Phillips will introduce guests to the line.

Receiving will be Mrs. McKay and the two honorees.

Pouring during the first hour will be Governor McKay's mother, Mrs. J. W. Frazer of Portland, and his sister, Mrs. John G. Cheetham of Portland.

Assisting at the affair will be Mrs. Edward Kortzoborn and Mrs. Ernest Brudl.

Pouring will be Mrs. P. Dixon Van Ausdell, Jr., Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. James C. Stone, Miss Alice Cray Brown, Mrs. Ervin W. Potter, Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson. The tea table will be set with a lace cloth and a silver bowl in which will be arranged yellow daffodils, matching tapers at either side.

Mrs. H. G. Mason and Mrs. Karl Becke left this morning for San Francisco to attend the gifts show in San Francisco. While there they will visit Mrs. Mason's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Griffin. The two plan to return Thursday evening.

The postponed founders day event for all local P.E.O. Sisterhood members will be an event next Tuesday evening, the informal dinner to be at 6:30 o'clock in the First Congregational church.

Members of all five local chapters and all unaffiliated P.E.O. members are invited.

NO EFFORT is being spared to make the military ball a memorable occasion, February 18, and among other committees people and wives assisting with arrangements is this street above, left to right: Capt. Ralph Solum, USAF; Mrs. Ralph Solum; Mrs. Robert Letts Jones; Capt. Robert Letts Jones, USMC; Mrs. Gordon Skinner; Major Gordon Skinner, USAR. The ball is strictly formal and the association members will wear their uniforms. Several Jordan parties are in the planning.

SOJOURNERS club has a busy calendar outlined for February. Semi-monthly afternoon party for the group will be next Thursday afternoon in the Salem Woman's club house, salad luncheon to be at 1 o'clock. Mrs. C. A. Ladd is chairman of the committee for the afternoon and assisting are Mrs. Kenneth Muller, Mrs. Ed Gooch, Mrs. Francis Gaskins, Mrs. J. S. Bonawitz, Mrs. Richard Busch and Mrs. Lee I. Thomas.

On February 17 the club is sponsoring a no-host party for members and husbands, the party to be at the Mayflower. Mrs. O. A. Olsen, Mrs. A. P. Collins, Mrs. Leland Mackrang, Mrs. Stuart Theis, Mrs. Gilbert Groff and Mrs. Robert Corey are the committee for the supper.

Theatre Arts group is to be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. Schrag, 165 North 17th, Tuesday, dessert to be served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. W. E. Kirker to review "Eastward in Eden" by Gardner.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbury will be among those attending events in conjunction with the mid-winter state Elks meeting in Ashland next Friday and Saturday. The Newburys will be there for the week-end also.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bruenig and Mrs. Bruenig have announced the engagement of their daughter Miss Winona Bruenig, to Carl Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jorgensen of Gevada. No date has been set for the wedding.

Dean and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg are entertaining tomorrow afternoon at an informal at home, one of a series they are planning for the Sunday afternoons during February.

Guests will include faculty members in Willamette university college of liberal arts and in the administration department, and hours are between 4 and 6 o'clock.

Hal Hibbard camp and auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, are next Monday evening, Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. There will be a dinner at 6 o'clock, the meetings following. The camp is to install officers.

A visitor at the auxiliary meeting will be the department president, Mrs. Addie Mae Beaman of Portland.

Among Salem folk in Portland Thursday evening for the Portland Realty board's First Citizen banquet, honoring T. H. Banfield, were Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, William Walton, and Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Sr.

Members of the board of Salem Branch, American Association of University Women, will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. L. Calvert, 2105 Washington, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock. The next luncheon for the AAUW is to be February 18.

Members of the board of Salem Branch, American Association of University Women, will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. L. Calvert, 2105 Washington, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock. The next luncheon for the AAUW is to be February 18.

MRs. WHITNEY 100 YEARS OLD. Of interest to a wide circle of friends will be the informal at home affair planned next Thursday, February 9, to honor Mrs. Sarah M. Whitney, who is to be 100 years old.

Friends are invited to call between 2:30 and 5 p.m. and again in the evening between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Whitney's daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, 1405 Fir street.

Preceding the receptions, a family dinner is to be given at the Hagedorn residence for a group of about 50 relatives. Mrs. Hagedorn is being assisted in arranging the affair by her daughter, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Sr. and other relatives.

Eight of Mrs. Whitney's 10 living children will be here for the centennial observance. Two daughters, Mrs. Archie Stivers of Alta, Iowa, and Mrs. James Ennis of Hartley, Iowa, will be unable to attend.

The eight to be here include Mrs. Hagedorn of Salem, Mrs. Nellie Bunn of Portland, Mrs. Fred Lupton of Portland, Mrs. Charles Becker of Portland, Mrs. Lake Price of Cook, Wash., Mrs. Thomas Magers of Portland, Mrs. Stearns Reeves of Cook, Wash., and Pleasant Whitney of Brownsville. Two of the children have passed away, Mrs. William Bunn, late of Los Angeles, and Orrin Whitney, late of Salem and Los Angeles.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Mary Emma Lusk, daughter of Chief Justice Hall S. Lusk of the state supreme court at Berkeley, California, to a young man of Berkeley, California, is announced. He is the son of Paul Farnell Conroy of St. Louis, Mo. An April wedding is planned. Miss Lusk is in research work in the office of Dr. Robert G. Spence, president of the University of California, Berkeley.

SALEM club, Daughters of the Nile, has arranged its February meeting for Monday. Members will assemble at 10 o'clock at the Masonic temple for sewing. The luncheon will be at 12 o'clock.

New officers are to take over at this meeting. Mrs. Russell D. Bright is the incoming president.

On the committee for the luncheon are Mrs. Eldon T. Armstrong, Mrs. Fred Keeler, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Rex Turner, Mrs. D. M. Ely, Mrs. Wayne D. Henry, Mrs. Merle D. Travis, Mrs. M. Johnston, Mrs. W. G. Burris, and four members from Independence, Mrs. Maurice Butler, Mrs. Travis Butler, Mrs. Walter L. Smith and Mrs. Ira D. Mix.

Hanna Rosa court, Order of the Amaranth, will meet Monday evening at the Masonic temple with Mrs. William Wilson, royal matron, and Don Patton, royal patron, presiding. Charter members of the court will be honored. An invitation has been extended to Cherry court members to attend the meeting. The program and refreshments will be in charge of the men from Hanna Rosa court.

The Santiam area council, Girl Scouts of America, announces a board meeting for next Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Community Chest office here.

On Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, members of the executive committee for next Salem district council of scouts will meet at the home of Mrs. Ward R. Davis, 220 East Wilson.

Regular meeting for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is scheduled for Tuesday evening, February 7. Mrs. William L. Lewis, worthy matron, presiding.

Oregon Grape camp, Royal Neighbors of America, met at the Veterans hall on Wednesday night for the annual installation of officers. The family came here from Portland. Pictured here are Mrs. Taylor and her two daughters, Diane and Judy.

AMONG RECENT newcomers being welcomed to the capital are the Robert Taylors, Mrs. Taylor being the new state insurance commissioner. The family came here from Portland. Pictured here are Mrs. Taylor and her two daughters, Diane and Judy.

REGULAR meeting for Salem Woman's club is scheduled for next Wednesday afternoon in the club house.

Walter Meacham, secretary of the Oregon Trails, Inc., is to be the guest speaker.

The club meeting is to be at 2 o'clock, the board meeting at 1 o'clock.

On Tuesday morning members are asked to meet at the club house to assist in stuffing the 30,000 envelopes for the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Each is to take a sack lunch.

At 2 p.m. Tuesday the weekly program for members and friends will be given at the club house. For this event Miss Edna Mingus is to review "Gentian Hill" by Elizabeth Goudge.

Lebanon—Miss Gertrude Anne Lewis was wed to Joseph Phillip Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, Saturday, January 28, at the First Baptist church.

Pink snapdragons and white carnations were arranged at the altar. Dr. John B. Hauger read the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by Miss Dorothy Whiteley.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Lebanon, was given in marriage by her father. Her street length dress of silver and blue brocade was complimented by gray and blue accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Wilma Lewis, maid of honor for her sister, wore a navy blue dress and blue hat. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Johnny Lewis, brother of the bride, was best man.

The reception was at the home of the bride's parents, attended by 50 friends and relatives. The newlyweds left for a short wedding trip to Portland. Refreshments were served to 32 members and four new visitors. The hostesses were Mrs. Robert Forrester, Mrs. Earl C. Burke and Mrs. Earl Brewster.

Centralia temple of Pythian Sisters sponsored a Valentine party after the business meeting Wednesday.

A surprise handkerchief and Valentine shower was given for Mrs. A. R. Jacobson who is moving away. Valentine games were played. The story of how Valentine's day came to be told by Mrs. Robert Forrester. Group singing was led by Mrs. Don Judson. Refreshments were served to 32 members and four new visitors. The hostesses were Mrs. Robert Forrester, Mrs. Earl C. Burke and Mrs. Earl Brewster.

Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, is to meet in regular session Monday at 8 p.m. in the Salem Woman's club.

Centralia temple of Pythian Sisters sponsored a Valentine party after the business meeting Wednesday.

A surprise handkerchief and Valentine shower was given for Mrs. A. R. Jacobson who is moving away. Valentine games were played. The story of how Valentine's day came to be told by Mrs. Robert Forrester. Group singing was led by Mrs. Don Judson. Refreshments were served to 32 members and four new visitors. The hostesses were Mrs. Robert Forrester, Mrs. Earl C. Burke and Mrs. Earl Brewster.

Home nursing, stressing care of the sick in the home and mother and baby care, is emphasized as a major service for the American Red Cross this winter and as an essential for all homes.

In line with this national program the nursing services program for Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, is preparing classes. Mrs. Ralph H. Moody, volunteer chairman, of the nursing services committee, is in charge.

Starting February 13, a training course for instruction in the public health department of the county will be given for a week. Area representatives from San Francisco are to be here to give the course.

Following the training for instruction, several classes will then be formed in late February. The courses in no way set up to be professional, but stress the essentials and pointers that should be observed in all homes where the sick are cared for.

Mrs. Moody has enlisted the interest of several women to assist in the nursing services program here.

Mrs. Mike Steinbock heads the local home nursing committee and Mrs. Al Peterson is to serve the committee as general secretary. Mrs. Gordon Shattuck is chairman for nurse enrollment; Mrs. Ernest Knapp, secretary for the nurse enrollment division Mrs. Harmon Yeary representing the public health department; Mrs. Morris K. Crothers, in charge of the art work and window displays promoting the program; Mrs. Ruth Kinniburgh, Mrs. Ernest Rostel, co-chairmen for equipment; Mrs. Eugene Anderson, serving as liaison worker between the committee and the Salem Memorial hospital.

ONE OF THE DEPARTMENTS preparing for an active season in Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, is the nursing service group. Some of the committee members are pictured here in the chapter nursing room. Some of the new nurses are, left to right, are Mrs. Ralph H. Moody, chairman of nursing services for the chapter; Mrs. Mike Steinbock, chairman of the home nursing committee; Mrs. Morris K. Crothers, in charge of art work and window displays promoting the program; Mrs. Ernest Rostel and Mrs. Rex Kinniburgh, co-chairmen for equipment, while the "patient" is Mrs. Eugene Anderson, who officiates as the liaison worker between the home nursing committee and the Salem Memorial hospital.

Tea at McKays'

Prominent on the social calendar for next week is the tea for which Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, will entertain Friday afternoon at the Jerris avenue residence of the McKays.

The affair is arranged in welcome to Mrs. Harry S. Dorman and Mrs. Lawson McCall, both recent newcomers here from Portland. Mr. Dorman came to Salem as state budget director and Mr. McCall to be administrative assistant in the governor's office.

Guests are invited to call at different hours between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock Friday to meet Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. McCall. Miss Aline Phillips will introduce guests to the line.

Receiving will be Mrs. McKay and the two honorees.

Pouring during the first hour will be Governor McKay's mother, Mrs. J. W. Frazer of Portland, and his sister, Mrs. John G. Cheetham of Portland.

Assisting at the affair will be Mrs. Edward Kortzoborn and Mrs. Ernest Brudl.

Pouring will be Mrs. P. Dixon Van Ausdell, Jr., Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. James C. Stone, Miss Alice Cray Brown, Mrs. Ervin W. Potter, Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson. The tea table will be set with a lace cloth and a silver bowl in which will be arranged yellow daffodils, matching tapers at either side.

Mrs. H. G. Mason and Mrs. Karl Becke left this morning for San Francisco to attend the gifts show in San Francisco. While there they will visit Mrs. Mason's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Griffin. The two plan to return Thursday evening.

The postponed founders day event for all local P.E.O. Sisterhood members will be an event next Tuesday evening, the informal dinner to be at 6:30 o'clock in the First Congregational church.

Members of all five local chapters and all unaffiliated P.E.O. members are invited.

February Features Varied Dancing Parties in Salem

THE Valentine dance for members of Alpha Epsilon chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, is an event for next Saturday evening, February 11, the party to be a semi-formal one in the Paul Armstrong school of dance, starting at 9 o'clock.

At this occasion the chapter's Valentine queen is chosen. Candidates for the title are Mrs. Roger Cochran, Mrs. Donald Stiffler and Mrs. Walter Flager.

Mrs. Al Stoddard is general chairman for the dance.

The chapter's regular meeting is planned for next Thursday evening at the West Salem City hall.

Another Valentine dance for the evening of February 11 is the annual sweetheart formal of the H-Y club, the party to be in the No-name ballroom.

Feature of the evening will be an announcement of the selection of the 1930 H-Y Sweetheart, candidates for the title being Misses Joan Marie Miller, Alice Girod, Marilyn Power, Ginger Currier and Pebble DeSart.

The dance annually is the big event of the mid-winter for the high school group.

The regular program in the series sponsored by the Oregon organization of Daughters of the American Revolution will be heard over KOAC Monday at 2 p. m. Mrs. G. R. Carter, member of Crater Lake chapter, Medford, has planned the program on "Jacksonville," and the script will be presented by a former DAR pilgrim, Miss Shirley Jean Howard of Portland.

Among Salem folk in Portland Thursday evening for the Portland Realty board's First Citizen banquet, honoring T. H. Banfield, were Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, William Walton, and Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Sr.

Members of the board of Salem Branch, American Association of University Women, will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. L. Calvert, 2105 Washington, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock. The next luncheon for the AAUW is to be February 18.

MRs. WHITNEY 100 YEARS OLD. Of interest to a wide circle of friends will be the informal at home affair planned next Thursday, February 9, to honor Mrs. Sarah M. Whitney, who is to be 100 years old.

Friends are invited to call between 2:30 and 5 p.m. and again in the evening between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Whitney's daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, 1405 Fir street.

Preceding the receptions, a family dinner is to be given at the Hagedorn residence for a group of about 50 relatives. Mrs. Hagedorn is being assisted in arranging the affair by her daughter, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Sr. and other relatives.

Eight of Mrs. Whitney's 10 living children will be here for the centennial observance. Two daughters, Mrs. Archie Stivers of Alta, Iowa, and Mrs. James Ennis of Hartley, Iowa, will be unable to attend.

The eight to be here include Mrs. Hagedorn of Salem, Mrs. Nellie Bunn of Portland, Mrs. Fred Lupton of Portland, Mrs. Charles Becker of Portland, Mrs. Lake Price of Cook, Wash., Mrs. Thomas Magers of Portland, Mrs. Stearns Reeves of Cook, Wash., and Pleasant Whitney of Brownsville. Two of the children have passed away, Mrs. William Bunn, late of Los Angeles, and Orrin Whitney, late of Salem and Los Angeles.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Mary Emma Lusk, daughter of Chief Justice Hall S. Lusk of the state supreme court at Berkeley, California, to a young man of Berkeley, California, is announced. He is the son of Paul Farnell Conroy of St. Louis, Mo. An April wedding is planned. Miss Lusk is in research work in the office of Dr. Robert G. Spence, president of the University of California, Berkeley.

A GROUP PROMINENTLY identified with the joint reception to be given by Salem units of the Oregon State College and University of Oregon Mothers clubs next week is this one above. Left to right are: Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, at home of Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, will entertain Friday afternoon at the Jerris avenue residence of the McKays. Pictured here are some of the committee members and their wives, left to right: Capt. Dewey Rand, USAF, general chairman of the ball; Mrs. Dewey Rand, Major Leonard Hicks, USMC; Mrs. Carl H. Cover and Comdr. Carl H. Cover, USNR, president of the local Reserve Officers' association.

ONE OF THE DEPARTMENTS preparing for an active season in Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, is the nursing service group. Some of the committee members are pictured here in the chapter nursing room. Some of the new nurses are, left to right, are Mrs. Ralph H. Moody, chairman of nursing services for the chapter; Mrs. Mike Steinbock, chairman of the home nursing committee; Mrs. Morris K. Crothers, in charge of art work and window displays promoting the program; Mrs. Ernest Rostel and Mrs. Rex Kinniburgh, co-chairmen for equipment, while the "patient" is Mrs. Eugene Anderson, who officiates as the liaison worker between the home nursing committee and the Salem Memorial hospital.