

Children Prove Sure Shots for News Photos

The Old-Time recipe for good photography—"Take a natural picture of a youngster"—still holds true, as these shots prove. They are three prize winners and a winner of honorable mention in a contest for press photographers on the general theme, "America's Children Today" (sponsored by the editors of the Book of Knowledge). All entries showed children between 6 and 13 in typical scenes at home, school and play. The entire collection of 102 prize panels will tour Europe and representative cities in the United States.

Maurice Miller of the Houston (Tex.) Post won $300 cash and $200 in books as first prize with this shot.

Runnerup: By Bob Doty, Dayton (O.) Journal-Herald.

"Boo," by Al Panzen, Fort Worth (Tex.) Star-Telegram, was named 7th best in field of 1,350.

This shot by James N. Keen, Louisville Courier-Journal, was awarded an honorable mention.

Little Aid for Flax Expected

Flax growers can expect little help from Washington in disposing of the present flax crop, Clay Cochran, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, told a group of 20 flax plant directors and officers Tuesday in reporting upon his recent trip east. Flax operators had looked for a subsidy or some similar assistance but the outlook at present is not encouraging, he said. Flax plant managements are working closely together and the industry has been established on a firmer basis, Henry R. Crawford told the group. Crawford is chairman of the state flax advisory committee. Studies are also being made of improved marketing methods. Crawford held that the first step forward is the production of a better quality.

Named to a committee to meet with state flax men on establishing uniform grades to be obtained through uniform growing methods were Fred Schwab, Mt. Angel; Clinton Christenson, Molalla; and Walter Shelby, Jefferson. The committee will report back to another meeting in March. Approximately 20 flax men were present from Mt. Angel, Jefferson, Canby and Molalla as well as members of the recently named state flax board headed by Crawford.

The annual meeting of the Santiam Flax Growers was held at the Jefferson plant Wednesday starting at 10 o'clock.

'Limpalong Hope' To Enter Rodeo

Palm Springs, Calif., Feb. 8 (AP)—Bob Hope is honorary mayor of Palm Springs but March 21 he will assume the added title of "Limpalong Hope."

The Chamber of Commerce claims he is entering some western style events marking this desert town's annual circus week—a week of rodeos, parades, fiestas, barbecues, western fashion shows, etc.

$2 Millions of Dope Seized

New York, Feb. 8—A cache of narcotics worth $2,400,000 was seized last night—part of it in a telephone booth in the Hotel McAlpin where it allegedly had been left for a customer by peddlers.

The seizure and two arrests were revealed early today by police and federal agents. The prisoners were linked with a dope ring that has been trailed since last November, Polke said.

They were booked as Isidore Halitzer, 31, and Phillip Shear, 31, both of Brooklyn.

The two men were arrested after parking their automobile off Herald Square—33rd street and Broadway—near the hotel. After the arrests, police said, 33½ ounces of pure heroin were found in the car, 13 ounces in a package in the hotel phone booth, one ounce on Shear's person, and 66½ ounces in a Brooklyn apartment.

Police said Halitzer telephoned a customer and told him a package would be left for him in the telephone booth. It was Halitzer's practice, police added, to wait nearby until he saw a customer pick up a package.

Police, who found 1,000 pairs of nylon stockings in the rear seat of the car, said the two prisoners used hosiery in cartons as a cover-up for delivery of narcotics. Halitzer and Shear were charged with possessing narcotics.

New Keizer Lutheran Church Will Organize Sunday School

Keizer, Feb. 8—Organization of a Sunday school department for the recently organized Lutheran church at Keizer will be perfected at the services this Sunday with pupils from three years of age up to be assigned classes under the direction of Mrs. Carl Langeland, superintendent.

Sunday school services will be held at 11 o'clock with announcements to be made Sunday of the evening services and of young peoples' meetings February 19 and 26. Rev. George L. Holmquist, pastor, is making arrangements to show a sound film "Like a Mighty Army" as one of the features of an evening service in the near future, with others to be shown later. The first ministerial act recorded for the new congregation was the baptism last Saturday evening of Mary Dawn Meiser, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Arthur Meiser, 5057 Will avenue. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Gothren, Mrs. Meiser, the paternal grandmother and Mrs. Holmquist. Mrs. Meiser served refreshments.

In spite of unfavorable weather conditions between 150 and 200 persons accepted the invitation last Sunday to attend the open house arranged for the chapel and services at 4505 North River road. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Holmquist, assisted by Mrs. Carl Tonack with Mrs. Carl Langeland presiding at the coffee table. Signatures were obtained of all those attending the first church service and the record book will be preserved for historical references at future anniversaries. Photographs were taken by Mark Gehlhar and moving pictures by Mrs. Holmquist.

Greeting the congregation were Oscar Olson and Carl Langeland with Marvin Langeland and Carl Holmquist, ushers. Businessmen of the community provided flowers with Rev. Holmquist speaking on "God's Estimate of a Man." Music included selections by an a cappella choir with other numbers accompanied by Mrs. Tonack.
