

3 4-H Clubs at Bush School

Three 4-H clubs in cooking, clothing and entomology projects have been organized among boys and girls attending Bush school, James Bishop, city extension agent, reports.

The "Kitchenaires," a cooking club led by Mrs. S. P. Houser, 333 East Miller, has six members with Sharon French as president; Georgia Kyle, vice president; Beverly Stein, secretary; Barbara Lafky and Jeanette Dunsnoor. The club will meet February 9 at the leader's home after school and demonstrate the making of an omelet. Making of cocoa, biscuits and cinnamon rolls were demonstrated by the girls at their last meeting.

The "Green Shamrock" clothing club has Mrs. Mildred Bridge as leader. Jean Hubbard is president, Janet Curry, vice president; Rena Bridge, secretary; Karen Flory, reporter, Janet Hubbard and Crystal Church, song leaders. Other members of the club are Sharon and Barbara French, Shirley Hunter, Kay Knickerbocker, Marilyn Murphy, Marene Sitlinger and Arlene Weaver. The girls are making needle cases, pin cushions, articles in weaving, and a luncheon or head scarf.

Boys from Bush school enrolled in the two entomology clubs of the city 4-H program are Bill Durig, Douglas Galloway, Bill and Max Reaney, Layton Webb and Lee Golden. Identifying insects, preparing killing jars and other collecting materials have kept the boys busy during the winter in preparation for field trips when weather permits.

Brazilian Says Coffee Prices May Increase

New Orleans, Feb. 9 (AP)—A Brazilian with large coffee holdings said today that the present shortage is "real" and prices probably will go even higher.

Osvaldoerera De Barros, here on business, said the shortage "definitely has not resulted from an effort to create an artificial shortage by market manipulations."

He blamed a dry season for the shortage.

Morse Still Disclaims Being Party Regular

Salt Lake City, Feb. 9 (AP)—Sen. Wayne L. Morse, R., Ore., likes his party's platform for 1950—what there is of it—but he'd like to see it on firmer ground.

But he also wants it known that his indorsement of the platform doesn't mean he's turned to "party regularity."
