Lewis Faces Fact Finders-United Mine Workers Presi Lewis Faces Fact Finders—United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis (left), Union Secretary-Treasurer John Owens (center), and Welly K. Hopkins, UMW counsel, confer at the hearing table in Washington at they faced presidential fact finders seeking an analysis of the soft coal crisis. (AP Wirephoto)

Paul Miller, Hit by Coal Strike, Only Gets by After Bad Luck

By JAMES HOLTON

Lake Lynn, Pa., Feb. 10 (P)-Just about everyone in this mining town is pitching in these days despite the coal strike to help the Paul Miller family—they've had the toughest luck of anybody.

To the Millers—Paul, Harriett and four surviving children hunger is just another chapter in a tragedy that began two years ago.

Their neat, four-room frame ful bad. 'Course, long's there's a Their neat, four-room frame home burned to the ground in 1948. With it went everything the Miller was asked what he would tell President Truman if the Millers owned b clothes on their backs.

Miller, a coal miner, started all over again. He bought an old house and tore it down Then he partially rebuilt it— rather crudely, he admits—on the site of the old house.

Last August, four - year - old died of a ruptured ap-

Two months later Mary Eliza-beth, 10, was stricken with te tanus and spent 38 days in the

In the meantime, recurring coal strikes and "holidays" pared down Miller's usual $80-a-

Came 1950. Miller, along with most min ers in this area, worked just three days a week and stopped when the miners began their "no contract no work" strike.

There was no extra food in the Miller larder. Last year hadn't permitted any saving. The few dollars he earned vanished fast.

Couldn't he get some other kind of work?

cause nobody has money to pay for them.

Miller applied for relief. He was turned down.

The state department of pub-The state department of pub-lic assistance places a lien against property owned by a re-lief recipient. Miller owns his rebuilt shack, but he nothing in the way of a deed to prove it.

The Salvation Army provided several food slips. "Without them we'd have starved, I guess," said 35-year-old Mrs. Miller.

The government provided the miners with surplus potatoes waves Going to Hawaii and the Millers got 100 pounds. Washington, Feb. 10 navy announced today wife declared. "I'm trying to save them, so I can only give the children three potatoes betweed them to take to school for lunch."

navy announced today that 73 enlisted Waves are to leave San Francisco tomorrow for duty at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

"I know this sounds terrible but I tell them that maybe the other children will share their lunches with them. And they do,

The other Miller children are Paul Jr., 12; Harry, 8, and Ro-ger 9 months.

How do the Millers feel about their plight? Miller, speaking slowly, com-

"I can't say much except I want to go back to work aw-

Reduced!

Round Trip Fares SAN FRANCISCO $1495 LOS ANGELES $2415

Reds to Lose Right to Teach office of education said today that communists have surrenderof free people."

There is no justification, there fore, said education commissioner Earl J. McGrath, for knowingly hiring teachers "whose commitments are contrary to the foundation principles of freedom But in his annual report to the federal security administra-tion, McGrath warned against the effort to keep communists out of the schools lead to thought control and limitations on acahe had an opportunity to talk to him about it. The 37-year-old digger murmured only:

"I'd sure like to go back to ple while repelling others.

ly. She said:
"I'd tell him right away that iy, one said:

"I'd tell him right away that I didn't like him using this Tafteducational campaign "focused Hartley law. That's not helping the miners. And it sure isn't gotton to settle the steller of the settle that the said of the settle that the sett ing to settle the strike. avoid another war "which would
"I don't like sending my kids wipe out our civilization." to school practically to beg food, Additional federal aid to schools, is needed, he said, espebut I think my husband is right chools, is needed, he said, espein not working. I'm in back of cially in the poorer states, to halt im."

She turned to a little stove in ation in the quality of education."

what he described as "deterior ation in the quality of education." the corner.
"Would you like some coffee

"Would you like some coffee

" she began. "Oh dear, I forgot. We haven't had any this week. The neighbors give us things like that when they can spare it. But they're having a tought time of it, too." McGrath said a shortage of teachers and school facilities has imminent, brought an "emergency crisis which will mean educational pri-way Media vation to many of our children."

Jean Wallace Faces Sentence

Los Angeles, Feb. 10 (P)-The Dumped or Sold for 1c drunken driving Christmas eve, the night officers say they found terday after a trial in which she contended policemen offered to drop the charge if she'd "be nice" to them. That's what the U.S. produc-

TRAILER SPACE

While the weather is nice. Now is a good time to find a good location for your trailer house. We have one of the best locations in town to park trailers, have all laundry facilities. With plenty hot water. New Hamilton dryer. Rest rooms are heated with thermostat control and are kept very clean. Showers. We're one block from city bus, two blocks from Erickson super market, five blocks from new Washington school, one block east of 99-E highway. A very pleasant and quite location. We'll be looking for you. Children welcome. Two blocks N. of underpasa, one block east. Highway Ave. Trailer Park.

WOOLEN MILL" CLOSE OUTS

No Oregon Potatoes

for sale at one cent a sack.

tion and marketing administra-tion reported today. The PMA added that 277,602 sacks of potatoes were sold to stockmen for feed or distributed to schools and institutions for lunch pro-

The dumping of potatoes has occurred in areas where the agencies have not been able to dispose of the surplus as feed or at one cent a sack, mostly in the Maine potato growing counties

Washington, Feb. 10 (P)-The

40 Men's Worsted Suits

While They Last $2995

35 Men's Covert & Gabardine Topcoats

from $1000 to $2950

50 Pairs Men's Slacks from $500 to $1000

Thos. Kay Woolen Mill Co. 260 South 12th St. "OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAY"

Transplanted Yanks Shift Outlook Under Aussie Life

(Editor's Note: Some 4,000 American veterans of World War II have settled down in Australia. Twenty thousand more are said to be eager to try their luck there. In the following dispatch the United Press general manager for Canada, is on a tour of Australia, tells how the Americans are getting along down under).

By PHIL CURRAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Sydney, Australia, Feb. 10 (U.9)—Ex-GIs are doing all right down under" in Australia, but they have had to shift mental gears.

Of more than 2,000,000 American troops who surged through Australia during World War II, an estimated 4,000 to 5,000 have returned to make their home

President OKs Probe of Trusts

Washington, Feb. 10 (U.E)-President Truman today approved congressional investigation of alleged monopolistic practices by certain firms in the steel, newsprint, chemicals, soap, airline, and theater industries. Chairman Emanuel Celler (D., N. Y.), of the house judiciary committee said after a White House call that Mr. Truman had endorsed the inquiry. Celler said a judiciary subcommittee will investigate:

U. S. Steel corp.
The newsprint industry, which Celler said is monopolized by Canadian firms "with the connied the right to teach "in a nation vance" of U. S. paper compan The E. I. DuPont De Nemours

Co.

The soap industry with special attention to Lever Bros. and its parent corporation, Unilever.

Pan American Airways.
Alleged control of the whis-key-barrel manufacturing industry by distilleries.

The Shubert theatrical hold

Caller would not discuss the subcommittee's investigation demic freedom.

"I'd sure like to go back to orok."

But his wife spoke up quick
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo
"I'd sure like to go back to gation of the teaching profession to see why it attracts some peo-Steel in March

2 Railroad Unions Authorize Strikes Chicago, Feb. 10 (P)-Members of two operating railway unions have voted to strike for a 40hour week, the unions announcway Mediation act a strike could not possibly occur before late labelled a "big noter," or The two unions are the Broth-cx-wife of Franchot Tone faces tors. Together they represent a said most of the chronic sentencing Friday on a charge of drunken driving Christmas eve, 200,000 railroad workers.

Sydney P. Pollack of Irving-ton, N.J., president of the American Australasian ex-serviceerican Australasian ex-service-men's club, estimated another 20,000 ex-G.I's want to return here, but are held up by a lack of shipping. Most either took discharges here or returned under the Australian government's guarantees a job. The biggest beef is the shortage of housing and high rents in relation to income. Eddie Olson, 28, of Minneapo lis pays $13.44 weekly for a three-room furnished apart ment. To make ends meet, his Australian wife works in the postoffice.

scheme which pays 40 per cent of tourist-class passage and

"It's not like it was when Uncle Sugar was able to pick up all the chits," Olson said. On the other hand, George Kesseler, 29, of Naples, Tex., a former naval petty officer, said he didn't think the housing setup was too bad. He said he had built a three-bedroom house of tile and brick.

"My aunt back in Texas built one about the same time," he said. "It cost the same amount and isn't any better than mine." Kesseler's pet gripe is the Australian attitude toward He operates a refrigeration business. "Aussies don't work like we "Aussies don't work like we work back home," he said, "You can't get any production out of your staff. They don't get any kick out of working.

They want to get as much dough as possible for as little work as possible. They're much more interested in a bottle of beer or going to the beach or to the races. The quality of work is good, but it comes slow." The ex-G.I.'s generally com-plained that their Australian incomes do not permit them to ed today.

A spokesman, however, said that does not mean a strike imminent. He said that under procedures of the National Rail-labelled a "squawker." Bill Reitner, 28, of Catskill

The two unions are the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and N.Y., a researcher for J. Walter the Order of Railway Conductor and most of the chronic

Vote of Confidence publican William B Widnall gives out with a bic smile in Hackensack, N. J., as he hails his 2 to 1 election to the congressional seat vacated by J Parnell Thomas as a vote of confidence in the GOP. The district is normally republi-can, but democrats hoped con-viction and imprisonment of Thomas for salary kickbacks would channel some votes their way. (Acme Telephoto)

Railroad Man Hurt In Speeder Collision

Dallas, Ore., Feb. 10-Fred A. Brown, operator of a Southern Pacific speeder, was hospitalized Wednesday night after the collision of his speeder and an au-tomobile at the Uglow avenue crossing. He received shock and bruises,

Joseph Cabral, a companion on the speeder, and C. V. O. Mc-Taggert, driver of the automo-bile, were not injured. Both men live in Dallas. McTaggert is purchasing agent for the Wil-lamette Valley Lumber company.

"Competition is easy be-cause the Australian doesn't like to work as hard as we do," he said. "I think it's easier to make a good stake than it is in the states and to keep it because the taxation isn't so bad despite what you've heard." Charlie Petersen of San Fran eisco, who is studying account-ing and helping a bookmaker on the side, said he also was "do-ing all right." Pollack said there are still 150,000 jobs open in Australia. "Any G.I. who wants can get work," he said. "But he'll have to change some of his stateside ideas, slow down the pace a bit, and get to thinking like Aussies if he wants to be happy. "The war-time glamor and easy dough days are gone and the Yank is no longer a big-timer operator on his Australian income. But it's a com-fortabe life if you make the adjustment."

Salem Letters Ask Congress To Act Favorably on Matter At least 100 letters from Salem urging congress to pass Senate Bill 57, sponsored by the Atlantic Union committee, probably will be on their way to Washington shortly.

A letter signed by Lawrence Osterman, chairman of the congressional action committee of the Salem unit of the Atlantic Union committee, asks that theseletters be sent to members of Elbert Thomas, Theodore F, the senate subcommittee con-Greene, Brian McMahon, Alexadering the bill and to the six ander Wiley, and H. Alexander. the senate subcommittee considering the bill and to the six members of the Oregon delegation in congress.

Senate Bill 57 is in the hands

Fibert Thomas, Theodore F. Greene, Brian McMahon, Alexander Wiley, and H. Alexander Smith, who may all be addressed at Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. Senator of a subcommittee of the senate Thomas is the chairman. foreign relations committee, and

SENATE BILL 57

Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Friday, February 10, 1950-11

similar bills are in committee in the lower house. The proposed measures would equest the president to invite the democracies that sponsor the North Atlantic Treaty to name delegates to a federal convention for the purpose of exploring possibilities of federal union.

Members of the Salem unit letters themselves but to per uade others to.

The Osterman letter calls attention to a forum meeting at the First Congregational church Sunday night, March 12, arranged by the Congregational young adult group. The meeting will hear a discussion between Justice James T. Brand of the state supreme court, state chairman for the Atlantic Union commit tee, and Orva. Etter far west Reconciliation.

Members of the senate subcommittee to whom Salem peo-ple are asked to write in behalf of Senate Bill 57 are: Senators

INCOME TAX Returns Prepared

LEON A. FISCUS 295 Pine St. Dial 35285

Clearance!! 1 Group

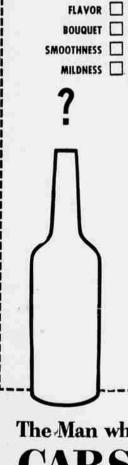

> CLOSEOUT 35.00

Helio Folks — On nice weather now plenty people like get out eat away from their place of living. Wife get sick in tred cooking every meal for many weeks of 'ce and anow fall. She like have me cook fine Chinese not having to even wash dishes after eating. You bring her in my place I fix extra sice Chinese dish for her, she like my food vergood, she like you very good, you sood, ahe like you very sood, you like me very sood, everybady happy. You like having his party my place you let me know. Maybe 20 peoples, maybe 50 peoples, maybe 50 peoples, any amount we fix good first class Chinese dinner very reasonable cost. Anytime. Open every day at nite only from 5 pm. to 2 a.m. next day, Saturday nite staying open til 2 a.m. next day after, following.

Check Your Brand for All 4 Extras! YOU'LL FIND THEM IN CARSTAIRS

EXTRA FLAVOR

The Man who Cares...says CARSTAIRS

White Seal 🖨 TASTES BEST-COSTS LESS!

CARSTAIRS BROS, DISTILLING CO., INC. 86.8 PROOF, 72% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS