County Selects Old Route

For New Silverton Road

One of Marion county's most controversial issues of the past year, that of routing the new highway from Salem to Silver-ton, was settled by the county court Friday. With the exception of the final 400 or 500 yards into Silverton, the highway will follow its present route, the court decided.

The county had acquired option on a strip of tend which would have run the highway south of its present route. However, the court feels that rebuilding the road over its present route would be more economical.
