

Valentines All, One of Them to Be Chosen as the 1950 Hi-Y Sweetheart at Dance Tonight

A SOCIAL event of interest for Monday evening will be the annual formal dinner dance sponsored by the Salem Shrine club for members and their wives.

The party is to be at the Marion hotel, the social hour at 7 o'clock, the dinner to be at 8:30 o'clock. Wolff's orchestra is to play for dancing and there will be floor show entertainment during the evening.

A large group will attend, the party being the highlight social event of the winter for the Shrine club.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

THE coming week brings a number of parties—bridge affairs teas and at homes.

Mrs. Eugene Laird is to be hostess for two parties next week, inviting guests for luncheon and bridge on Thursday and again on Friday at her home. Mrs. Howard Ragan is assisting the hostess.

Guests asked for Thursday are Mrs. Rollie O. Lewis, Mrs. Donald Burter, Mrs. William E. Healy, Mrs. Hobert Jackson, Mrs. Tom Bagan, Mrs. P. C. Anderson, Mrs. Ed Gooker, Mrs. C. A. Ladd, Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. Carl W. Nelson, Mrs. Lynn Miles Mrs. Robert Davidson, Mrs. Howard Ragan.

Bidden for Friday afternoon are Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker, Mrs. William D. Galloway, Jr., Mrs. William Johnston, Mrs. Howard Hooten, Mrs. Russell E. Pratt, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Charles F. Felke, Mrs. Roy Todd, Mrs. O. T. Manfield, Mrs. Farley Hogan, Mrs. Howard Sargent, Mrs. Harry Logan, Mrs. Emmons Hostess.

Mrs. Carl W. Emmons is to be hostess for two parties next week, complimenting Mrs. Paul Ragan, a former.

Mrs. Emmons has arranged a luncheon and bridge party for 1:15 o'clock on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon at her home, places to be marked for 10 each day. Guests will include a group of doctors' wives and the parties are first a series planned by Mrs. Emmons.

Dr. and Mrs. Romniger and four sons came to Salem from Salt Lake City. He is associated with Dr. Emmons in the women's clinic.

Club Group

Mrs. Douglas McKay has invited members of her bridge club for luncheon and afternoon of cards on Thursday.

In the group are Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Corvallis, Mrs. L. W. Bauman, Sr., Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. Richard Slater, Mrs. William S. Cole, Mrs. Dorothy Stouffer, Mrs. W. W. Baum, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. Harry U. Miller and Mrs. McKay.

Two Couples Hosts

Among those entertaining at social affairs this next week are Mrs. Rex Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson who have invitations out for an at home.

The affair will be given at the Putnam residence, Sunday, February 19, between 3 and 6 o'clock.

This group of entertainers has been invited to call during those hours.

Mrs. Albert C. Graag is to be hostess for an informal tea on Monday afternoon, honoring Mrs. W. C. Luethers, Mrs. Luethers and little son are here from Denver to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Driggs. Guests are bidden to call at 3:30 o'clock for the Monday tea.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm are to entertain Monday evening for their dinner and bridge group.

A charmingly arranged tea was the one for which Mrs. Douglas McKay was wife of Oregon's governor, was hostess Friday afternoon at the McKay residence. A large group was bidden to call between 2:30 and 3:30 o'clock.

The affair was given in welcome to Mrs. Harry S. Dorman and Mrs. Lawrence McCall, two newcomers in Salem. Mr. Dorman is the state budget director and Mr. McCall is administrative assistant to Governor McKay.

Welcoming guests at the door was Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr. Introducing guests to the line was Miss Alene Phillips.

Receiving the guests in were Mrs. McKay in a blue lace gown, and the two honorees, Mrs. Dorman in plum velvet and Mrs. McCall in a taffeta gown of champagne shading into brown.

Assisting about the living room were Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Corvallis, Miss Dorathia Steusloff, and the McKays' two daughters, Mrs. Wayne E. Hatley and Mrs. Lester D. Green, the latter of Eugene.

The nosegay theme was used in the decorations. Bouquets of pastel flowers in nosegay arrangements were scattered in the reception room. The tea table, covered with an embroidered cloth, had two silver candelabrum sets in the center at the back and holding scented pink taper. Small nosegays of violets and pink and red carnations, set in pink and red tulle frills, were arranged around the candelabrum and encircled two colonial figurines.

Pouring was Governor McKay's mother, Mrs. J. W. Frater, and his sister, Mrs. John G. Cheatham, both of Portland; Mrs. Earl Snell and Mrs. Hall S. Lusk for the second period, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Miss Elizabeth Lord for the third hour.

Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. William S. Cole, Mrs. Harry U. Miller, Mrs. Richard Slater, Mrs. E. M. Page invited guests into the dining room.

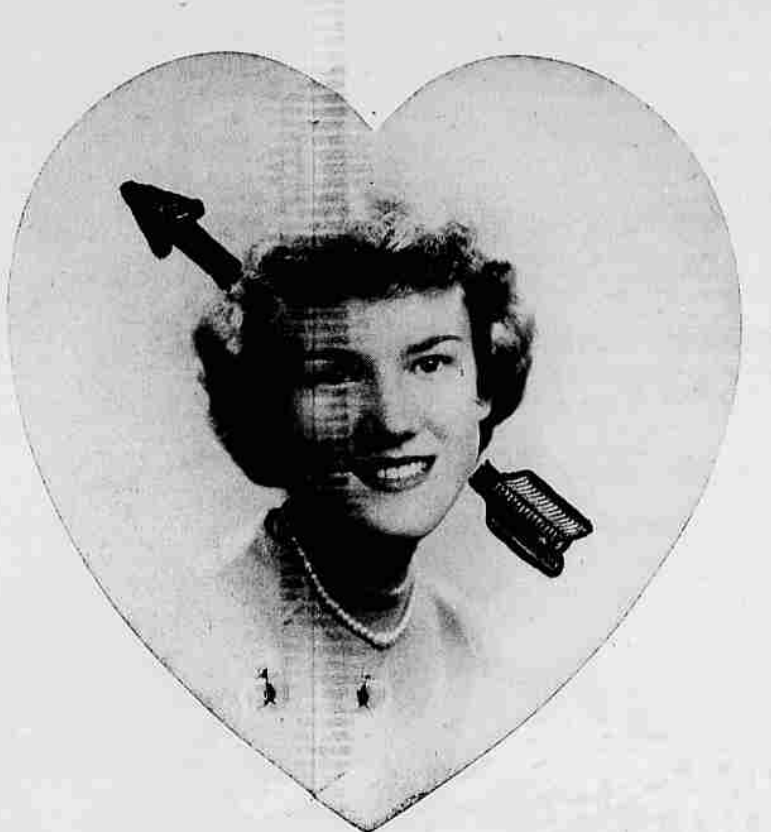

Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Earl Latourette, whose husband is the new justice on the supreme court, Oregon City; Mrs. Dea City; Mrs. M. J. Independence, and Mrs. W. F. Gaarenstrom of Portland.

MISS GINGER CURRIER

MISS JOAN MARIE MILLER

MISS ALICE GIROD

MISS MARILYN POWER

MISS PEBBLE DeSART

Formal Military Ball Next Saturday

Highlight social event of mid-winter season for a large group will be the annual formal military ball sponsored by the Marion county chapter, Reserve Officers' association, next Saturday evening, February 18, at the Salem armory.

The dance begins at 8 o'clock, the grand march to be at 10 o'clock.

Elaborate decorations are planned, carrying out the patriotic and military themes.

Many out-of-town visitors are expected, several being among the distinguished guests for the evening, other guests of members attending.

The affair is invitational, but all officers appearing in uniform will be welcome. Captain Dewey Rand, USAR, is general chairman for the ball. Commander Carl H. Cover, USNR, is president of the Marion county chapter of the Reserve Officers' association.

Parties with Dance

Among the parties being arranged in conjunction with the dance will be the one for which the Salem Women's Army and Navy league will entertain at the Marion hotel. The affair is for all members of the league and their husbands and guests, and for all Reserve Officers' association members and their wives and guests. The party will begin at 8 o'clock preceding the dance and the room will be open at intermission.

Mrs. Bert A. Walker, Mrs. Farley Morgan, Mrs. Francis T. Wade and Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., are the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mohatt are among those entertaining guests preceding the dance, their guests to include Mr. and Mrs. Bon Chary, who are to be their guests at the ball. Lt. Col. and Mrs. Frederick Brennan, Major and Mrs. Henry Medinger and their guests, Lt. and Mrs. Robert S. Denton, Commander and Mrs. Carl H. Cover and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bollons of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Getzlow.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Eugene Laird have invited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ragan, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie O. Lewis and Commander and Mrs. Carl W. Nelson for an informal gathering at their home preceding the dance.

Mrs. Douglas McKay will be entertaining for her usual at home afternoon, Tuesday, local friends and out-of-town visitors being invited to call that afternoon.

An event for next Tuesday evening will be the benefit card party to be sponsored by Cherry court, Order of the Amaranth, the event to be at 8 o'clock in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. Mrs. James Tindall is general chairman.

Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church is to meet next Tuesday at the parish house, the no-host luncheon to be at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. W. C. Gabriel, Mrs. Eugene Foster and Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Sr., are on the committee. Guest speaker is to be Mrs. I. M. Schuman of Portland, a former guild member, who is to talk on her European trip.

Chapter G of P.E.O. Sisterhood is to be entertained by Mrs. Ivan Stewart, Mrs. Guy Eades and Miss Buena Stewart at the Stewart home next Thursday afternoon, luncheon to be at 1 o'clock.

Chapter BC, P.E.O. Sisterhood, is meeting for the meeting, telling of her travels in Europe with her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Jr., Leo Reimann, E. Burr Miller, Carl Asechenbrenner, Leo Henderson, Dr. Earle Delaney, Richard Denton and Dr. D. D. Voigt.

Salem Lions club auxiliary has changed its monthly meeting from the third Thursday to the fourth, the group to be entertained on February 23 at the home of Mrs. Evert Givens.

Phi Beta Phi Mothers club is meeting at the chapter house on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. C. L. Carson and Mrs. Paul Morse will be the hostesses.

Mrs. Merrill D. Ollins is to be hostess for the meeting, telling of her travels in Europe with her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Jr., Leo Reimann, E. Burr Miller, Carl Asechenbrenner, Leo Henderson, Dr. Earle Delaney, Richard Denton and Dr. D. D. Voigt.

State board of the University of Oregon Mothers club is to meet Monday at the Marion hotel, a luncheon being planned at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. George H. Swift is the state president.

Cards went out to 45 members to attend the gathering, scheduled earlier in the winter but postponed because of the weather.

The group will consider granting some emergency scholarships for students at the university.

Salem members of the board include Mrs. Swift, Mrs. Robert M. Fitzmaurice, state recording secretary; Mrs. George Alexander, a state director, and Mrs. Grant B. Faller, president of the Salem unit of UO mothers.

A NO-HOST supper and social evening have been arranged by members of Solourmers club for next Friday evening at Mayflower hall, the supper to be at 6:30 o'clock for all club members and their husbands and guests.

Mrs. O. A. Olson is chairman and on the committee with her are Mrs. A. P. Collins, Mrs. Stuart Thede, Mrs. Gilbert Greiff, Mrs. Robert Corey, Mrs. Richard A. Smith, Mrs. James Mosolf.

Plan Silver Tea

McKinley School Mothers club members are to be hostesses at a silver tea next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mike Steinbock, 370 Fawk street.

The event is to honor Mrs. Lyle Rea, principal of the school, and the teachers.

Hours are between 3 and 5 o'clock. Invitation is extended through the press to all parents of the school and interested friends. Proceeds from the silver tea are to be used by the club in purchasing a slide film projector for the school.

Honoring Miss Mary Kowitz, who is to be wed to Pfc. George Zivkovich of Pittsburgh, Pa., a shower was given this week at the Louis du Buy home with Miss Jeanne du Buy, Miss Lucille Proctor and Miss Joyce Rautenkranz as the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Louis du Buy and Mrs. William Tanner.

Guests included Miss Kowitz and her mother, Mrs. Chris Kowitz, Mrs. Norma Brown, Mrs. Homer Conklin, Mrs. Delbert Long, Mrs. Fred Roberts, Mrs. Robert Fitts, Mrs. Zina Sharpnack, Mrs. Joe Croacroft, Mrs. William Dunnigan, Mrs. Royce Linhart, Mrs. Del Tripp, Mrs. Louis du Buy, Mrs. Sidney Van Dyke, Mrs. William Tanner, Mrs. J. F. Rautenkranz, Miss Beverly Roberts, Miss Joan Fitts, Miss Joyce Rautenkranz, Miss Aileen Croacroft, Miss Joan Croacroft, Miss Mary Croacroft, Miss Lucille Proctor, Mrs. Charles Van Dyke, Mrs. Geraldine Radcliff, Miss Dorothy Kaspell, Miss Gayle Juye, Miss Donna Lou Lambert, Miss Lucille Allen, Miss Marian Sayre, Miss Jeanne DeBottle, Miss Edith Tripp.

Rotana club's February meeting is scheduled for Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Grant Farris, Roberts district.

Members will assemble at the Marion hotel, to leave there in a group at 7:45 o'clock for the Farris home.

Mrs. Oliver B. Huston is to be guest speaker for the meeting, telling of her travels in Europe with her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Jr., Leo Reimann, E. Burr Miller, Carl Asechenbrenner, Leo Henderson, Dr. Earle Delaney, Richard Denton and Dr. D. D. Voigt.

St. Vincent de Paul Mothers club is to meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the school hall. Second grade mothers are to be hostesses. An attendance award will be given the room with the most mothers attending.

Mrs. Grace Wilson will entertain Monday evening for the meeting of Chapter BQ of P.E.O. Sisterhood.

Delta Zeta alumnae are to meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Virgil Sexton, 535 Waldo avenue.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae will entertain at the home of Mrs. Richard C. Nelson for their February meeting, Monday evening, a dinner to be served at 8:30 o'clock. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Nelson are Mrs. Alton Brannon, Miss Martha Taylor and Mrs. Walter Barchus. Mrs. Leonard Kephart, Mrs. L. E. de Weese.

Marion auxiliary to post No. 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet Monday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall for a regular business session. There will be initiation.

Executive board of the Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, is meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Manning, 336 Oak street.

Initiation is slated for the meeting of Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple. Miss Dorothy Pederson, worthy adviser, and Mrs. Wayne Henry, mother adviser, will be in charge.

Plan Silver Tea

McKinley School Mothers club members are to be hostesses at a silver tea next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mike Steinbock, 370 Fawk street.

The event is to honor Mrs. Lyle Rea, principal of the school, and the teachers.

Hours are between 3 and 5 o'clock. Invitation is extended through the press to all parents of the school and interested friends. Proceeds from the silver tea are to be used by the club in purchasing a slide film projector for the school.

Honoring Miss Mary Kowitz, who is to be wed to Pfc. George Zivkovich of Pittsburgh, Pa., a shower was given this week at the Louis du Buy home with Miss Jeanne du Buy, Miss Lucille Proctor and Miss Joyce Rautenkranz as the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Louis du Buy and Mrs. William Tanner.

Guests included Miss Kowitz and her mother, Mrs. Chris Kowitz, Mrs. Norma Brown, Mrs. Homer Conklin, Mrs. Delbert Long, Mrs. Fred Roberts, Mrs. Robert Fitts, Mrs. Zina Sharpnack, Mrs. Joe Croacroft, Mrs. William Dunnigan, Mrs. Royce Linhart, Mrs. Del Tripp, Mrs. Louis du Buy, Mrs. Sidney Van Dyke, Mrs. William Tanner, Mrs. J. F. Rautenkranz, Miss Beverly Roberts, Miss Joan Fitts, Miss Joyce Rautenkranz, Miss Aileen Croacroft, Miss Joan Croacroft, Miss Mary Croacroft, Miss Lucille Proctor, Mrs. Charles Van Dyke, Mrs. Geraldine Radcliff, Miss Dorothy Kaspell, Miss Gayle Juye, Miss Donna Lou Lambert, Miss Lucille Allen, Miss Marian Sayre, Miss Jeanne DeBottle, Miss Edith Tripp.

Rotana club's February meeting is scheduled for Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Grant Farris, Roberts district.

Members will assemble at the Marion hotel, to leave there in a group at 7:45 o'clock for the Farris home.

Mrs. Oliver B. Huston is to be guest speaker for the meeting, telling of her travels in Europe with her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Jr., Leo Reimann, E. Burr Miller, Carl Asechenbrenner, Leo Henderson, Dr. Earle Delaney, Richard Denton and Dr. D. D. Voigt.

St. Vincent de Paul Mothers club is to meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the school hall. Second grade mothers are to be hostesses. An attendance award will be given the room with the most mothers attending.

Mrs. Grace Wilson will entertain Monday evening for the meeting of Chapter BQ of P.E.O. Sisterhood.

Delta Zeta alumnae are to meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Virgil Sexton, 535 Waldo avenue.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae will entertain at the home of Mrs. Richard C. Nelson for their February meeting, Monday evening, a dinner to be served at 8:30 o'clock. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Nelson are Mrs. Alton Brannon, Miss Martha Taylor and Mrs. Walter Barchus. Mrs. Leonard Kephart, Mrs. L. E. de Weese.

Marion auxiliary to post No. 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet Monday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall for a regular business session. There will be initiation.

Executive board of the Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, is meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Manning, 336 Oak street.

Initiation is slated for the meeting of Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple. Miss Dorothy Pederson, worthy adviser, and Mrs. Wayne Henry, mother adviser, will be in charge.

Among newcomers recently arriving to make their home in Salem are Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius W. Lofgren and family. They came from Glenwood City, Wisconsin. Mr. Lofgren being in the insurance business, Mrs. Lofgren and Mrs. Lofgren are interested in the writing and editing of a book, "The Story of Eugene," a book published last spring. The Lofgrens temporarily have taken a residence on Cascade Drive.

UO Parents Meet

University of Oregon Dads and Mothers clubs will gather for their February supper meeting Monday evening, the no-host affair to be in Mayflower hall at 6:30 o'clock.

Parents of all students and alumni of the university are invited as well as interested alumni and friends. Each family is to take its own table service as well as a hot dish.

Dear Karl W. Onitank of the university faculty is to be guest speaker and is to discuss placement of graduates in jobs.

Mrs. Karl Becke heads the committee in charge of the supper. Assisting are Mrs. Edna Olson, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Lora Taylor Hawkins, Mrs. John R. Coughell, Mrs. B. E. Owens, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Dolph Craig.

The Salem Christian Business and Professional Women will meet for their dinner Tuesday evening, February 14, at the Golden Pheasant restaurant.

Rev. E. G. Malyon, teacher from Powellhurst Bible school in Portland, will be the speaker. Rev. Malyon was active in the Twin Cities, Minn., where he directed a radio broadcast and was director of a youth for Christ rally and regular speaker at youth camps and conferences. Other features for Tuesday evening will be Miss Evelyn Bartlett and Miss Mary Hammack, and special music. Women from all churches are invited to attend.

The list of officers to be installed for the local Degree of Honor includes: Mrs. Harold M. Cook, president; Mrs. Gladys Miller, past president; Mrs. Henry Henderson, first vice president; Mrs. Carl Freim, second vice president; Mrs. Wesley Zellner, usher; Mrs. Ralph Beach, assistant usher; Miss Joanne Fry, color bearer; G. E. Zell, inside watch; Mrs. Violet Fry, outside watch; Mrs. George Parsons, first assistant to vice president; Mrs. Leo Folz, second assistant to vice president; Mrs. Lewis McKinney, treasurer; Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, financial secretary.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Social afternoon for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is arranged for Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock in the Masonic temple. For the program, Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Dallas is to review "So Dear to My Heart," and Miss Grace Ashford is to sing.

The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. H. McClung, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, Mrs. Lee H. Wetherby, Mrs. Leo C. Dean, Mrs. Adolph Bonbeck, Mrs. Benjamin Knight, Miss Ulva Darby, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy.

Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary is not scheduling its regular meetings for this month, the group to meet instead on Tuesday evening with the Medical society for a dinner at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Guests at the meeting will include Dr. James Buckley, state president of the medical group, and Mrs. Varney, state president of the auxiliary.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Salem members of the Daughters of the Nile are interested in announcement the next ceremonial for Nydia temple, Portland, is planned for February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Regular meeting for Unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, is planned for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the downstairs room at the Salem Woman's club house.

The conference with the governor's committee will be in Salem, April 13 and 14, and the program such as the Wednesday one here are being arranged in various parts of the state preceding the conference.

The interested public is invited to attend the Wednesday program.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baldoek were among those in Eugene last evening for the Oregon-Oregon State basketball game.

The Salem Writers' Club will meet Wednesday, February 15 at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, 1065 S. Liberty st.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Regular meeting for Unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, is planned for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the downstairs room at the Salem Woman's club house.

The conference with the governor's committee will be in Salem, April 13 and 14, and the program such as the Wednesday one here are being arranged in various parts of the state preceding the conference.

The interested public is invited to attend the Wednesday program.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baldoek were among those in Eugene last evening for the Oregon-Oregon State basketball game.

The Salem Writers' Club will meet Wednesday, February 15 at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, 1065 S. Liberty st.

Many Dancing Parties Scheduled

February continues to be a month of dances. St. Valentine day and the patriotic holidays making it a colorful month for entertaining. Several of the dancing clubs have their parties scheduled for next week-end.

Bonheur Party

On Friday evening, February 17, Bonheur club will stage its February dance at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, dancing starting at 9 o'clock with Wayne Sirach's orchestra playing.

On the committee for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hall, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. W. Woodin, Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Vogt, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bartsch.

Cama Club Event

Cama club has scheduled its monthly dance for Friday evening, February 17, at Crystal Gardens.

The snack bar will be set up at 9 o'clock with Mrs. Maurice Eber, Mrs. A. C. Newell, Mrs. George Rich, Mrs. Clarence C. Felt, Mrs. Tom Bowdoin, Mrs. Lawrence Moorman, Mrs. Glen Savage and Mrs. Dale Johnson in charge. Greeting guests at the door will be Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Jarvis and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Mosolf. Dancing will start at 9:30 o'clock, Claude Bird's orchestra playing.

Saturday Dance

Monday Night Dance club plans its party for next Saturday evening, February 18, the group arranging a buffet dinner dance at the No-Name ballroom, formerly Club Combo. The buffet will be at 7:30 o'clock, dancing at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Grant C. Rogers, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. Carl W. Chambers and Mrs. A. J. Crose are the committee for the evening.

For Town Club

Town club's February dance is slated for next Saturday evening, February 18, at 1:15 o'clock with decorations on "Opening the Book of Books," led by Mrs. Kermit Clemans.

On the decorating committee for the dance are Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Quistad, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Mellem.

Among those entertaining preceding the dance are Mr. and Mrs. James Walton, who have invited a group to their Superior street home. Assisting the hosts will be Dr. and Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Helzel, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Social afternoon for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is arranged for Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock in the Masonic temple. For the program, Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Dallas is to review "So Dear to My Heart," and Miss Grace Ashford is to sing.

The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. H. McClung, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, Mrs. Lee H. Wetherby, Mrs. Leo C. Dean, Mrs. Adolph Bonbeck, Mrs. Benjamin Knight, Miss Ulva Darby, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy.

Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary is not scheduling its regular meetings for this month, the group to meet instead on Tuesday evening with the Medical society for a dinner at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Guests at the meeting will include Dr. James Buckley, state president of the medical group, and Mrs. Varney, state president of the auxiliary.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Social afternoon for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is arranged for Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock in the Masonic temple. For the program, Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Dallas is to review "So Dear to My Heart," and Miss Grace Ashford is to sing.

The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. H. McClung, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, Mrs. Lee H. Wetherby, Mrs. Leo C. Dean, Mrs. Adolph Bonbeck, Mrs. Benjamin Knight, Miss Ulva Darby, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy.

Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary is not scheduling its regular meetings for this month, the group to meet instead on Tuesday evening with the Medical society for a dinner at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Guests at the meeting will include Dr. James Buckley, state president of the medical group, and Mrs. Varney, state president of the auxiliary.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Social afternoon for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is arranged for Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock in the Masonic temple. For the program, Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Dallas is to review "So Dear to My Heart," and Miss Grace Ashford is to sing.

The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. H. McClung, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, Mrs. Lee H. Wetherby, Mrs. Leo C. Dean, Mrs. Adolph Bonbeck, Mrs. Benjamin Knight, Miss Ulva Darby, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy.

Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary is not scheduling its regular meetings for this month, the group to meet instead on Tuesday evening with the Medical society for a dinner at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Guests at the meeting will include Dr. James Buckley, state president of the medical group, and Mrs. Varney, state president of the auxiliary.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Social afternoon for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is arranged for Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock in the Masonic temple. For the program, Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Dallas is to review "So Dear to My Heart," and Miss Grace Ashford is to sing.

The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. H. McClung, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, Mrs. Lee H. Wetherby, Mrs. Leo C. Dean, Mrs. Adolph Bonbeck, Mrs. Benjamin Knight, Miss Ulva Darby, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy.

Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary is not scheduling its regular meetings for this month, the group to meet instead on Tuesday evening with the Medical society for a dinner at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Guests at the meeting will include Dr. James Buckley, state president of the medical group, and Mrs. Varney, state president of the auxiliary.

Regular meeting for the Salem YWCA board is an event for Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the YW. At this time new officers for the board will be elected, directors having been chosen at the recent annual meeting of the membership.

Following the meeting there will be an informal social for the retiring and incoming boards.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

Following the ceremonial there will be a formal dinner dance honoring the candidates, the event to be at the Compositors club, 614 S.W. 11th.

Reservations for tickets for the dinner dance should be in to Mrs. Melvin Propp, 35749, or before February 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

A large group is planning to go from Salem.

Social afternoon for Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is arranged for Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock in the Masonic temple. For the program, Mrs. O. E. Anderson of Dallas is to review "So Dear to My Heart," and Miss Grace Ashford is to sing.

The hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. H. McClung, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, Mrs. Lee H. Wetherby, Mrs. Leo C. Dean, Mrs. Adolph Bonbeck, Mrs. Benjamin Knight, Miss Ulva Darby, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy.

Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary is not scheduling its regular meetings for this month, the group to meet instead on Tuesday evening with the Medical society for a dinner at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock. Guests at the meeting will include Dr. James Buckley, state president of the medical group, and Mrs. Varney, state president of the auxiliary.

LUNCHEON meeting for February for Salem branch, American Association of University Women, is scheduled next Saturday, February 18, at the Marion hotel at 1 o'clock.

Miss Eloise Ebert, assistant state librarian, is to be the guest speaker. She returned this past year from Germany where she was supervisor of library service for the American forces in the occupied zone for four years. Her topic for the luncheon will be "Mission and Accomplishments of the American Occupation Forces."

Also on the program for a short talk will be Miss Laura Koeler, elementary school supervisor, state department of education, to briefly review the Atlantic Division.

Reservations for the luncheon should be telephoned to either Mrs. R. H. Bonner or Mrs. Paul Wilson.