Receipts Using Canned Foods

When you want to serve something very different, yet very special, try this distinctive dish of tuna in a half avocado. Its magnificently rich flavor is something to rave about. And incidentally, it is a good Lenten dish that is easy as well as elegant.

Chunks of tuna and canned peas are blended into a creamy almond sauce. This piping hot mixture is heaped onto the avocado halves which have been baked.

For your special luncheon, serve with it, surprise cranberry relish, ripe olives, and potato chips.

Baked Avocado Tuna
2 tablespoons butter, or margarine
¼ cup sliced green pepper
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
¼ cup diced pimiento
1 cup canned peas
1 7-oz. can tuna
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
2 avocados
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons slivered almonds
Melt butter, add green pepper; cook over low heat about 5 minutes until soft. Add flour and stir until blended. Add milk slowly to flour mixture. Stir until thick and smooth. Add pimiento, peas and chunks of tuna. Add Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Peel, cut in half, and remove pits from avocados. Brush with lemon juice. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 20 minutes or until heated through. Fill cavities with hot tuna mixture and sprinkle with almonds. Serve at once. Four servings.

Surprise Cranberry Relish
2 tablespoons orange rind
2 tablespoons coarsely chopped walnuts
2 tablespoons pickle relish
1 1-lb. can whole cranberry sauce
Cut orange rind in strips. (Use just the orange portion of the peel.) Mix with nuts and pickle relish. Combine with cranberry sauce. Chill for 1 hour, or overnight. Serve with any meat or poultry—especially good with rich meats.

This light, delicate dessert has a festive air. Canned crushed pineapple offers a crisp texture and a delightful flavor to Bavarian cream.

Pineapple Bavarian Cream
1 8-oz can crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin
1 cup milk
2 eggs
Dash salt
¼ cup sugar
½ cup whipping cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
Drain syrup from pineapple and add gelatin. Let stand for 5 minutes. Scald milk. Add slightly beaten egg yolks, salt, and 2 tablespoons sugar. Cook until mixture coats a spoon. Remove from heat; add gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Beat egg whites stiff. Add remaining sugar and fold into gelatin mixture. Add whipped cream, vanilla and pineapple. Turn into a 1½ quart mold or bowl. Chill until set. Six servings.

A delicious and unusual way to cook rice is to use a can of consommé for the liquid. It gives zest and a new rich flavor to the rice.
