

Red Cross Accepts Faherty Resignation With Regret

Resignation of Miss Susan M. Faherty as manager for Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, was accepted by the chapter board Monday night.

The group voted the formal release with regret, stating Miss Faherty had made an outstanding record here and has assisted in building the chapter in a program of service.

The resignation is effective March 31 at which time Miss Faherty will leave to assume her new position as assistant administrator for the southern Arizona regional blood center with headquarters at Tucson. She will have completed four years with the local chapter the first of April. Announcement was made the area office has recommended a successor for Miss Faherty, the personnel committee to make an announcement later.

Plans for the opening of the annual Red Cross fund campaign on February 27 were discussed at the board session and it was reported organization is completed in the city for the drive and much headway made in completing the county-wide organization. Walter Musgrave is general campaign chairman.

Mrs. Mark Astrup in reporting as Junior Red Cross chairman stated Mrs. Donald Burke is working with her now to organize the program in the elementary schools and Mrs. Ridgley Miller in the junior high and senior high school units.

Announcement was made the mobile unit from the Portland regional blood center will visit Mt. Angel on February 27, sponsored by the American Legion post there.

Invitation was received by the board members for chapter representatives to attend the first anniversary observance of the Portland regional blood center next Monday, February 20, Marion county is one of the participating counties in the center. Rear Admiral Ross E. McIntire, Salem native, as head of the national blood program, is to be a speaker on the program that day.

The home service department reported a caseload of 195 for the month of January with $601.95 given out in assistance. Four cases were disaster ones, two families having been affected by floods, two families losing their homes by fires.

Legion Has Talent Search

Hollywood, Feb. 14 (AP)—The American Legion announced a nationwide talent search today for men and women veterans to appear in its $300,000 musical revue "Red, White and Blue."

The Legion, going into show business for the first time, signed a contract with Movie Director Leroy Prinz and Producer Owen Crump to produce the show.

The harp is believed to have been developed from the twanging of the strings on bows used for war and hunting.

Printers Ask NLRB To Reconsider Ruling

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—The AFL International Typographical Union, backed by the AFL National organization and by the CIO, today asked the National Labor Relations Board to reconsider its Taft-Hartley act rulings against the union in the printing industry.

All three labor organizations told the board that part of the ITU said, decisions in a number of cases arising from the two-year-old labor dispute over a closed shop have a "crucial" importance to the labor movement in general.

The ITU petition noted that board member J. Copeland Gray, whose term has since expired, voted with the majority in the 3 to 2 board decision which found the ITU guilty of a Taft-Hartley act violation by demanding discriminatory hiring practices in the printing industry.

People May Be Asked to Vote Airport Improvement Money

The people of Salem may be asked in the May election to approve about $46,000 for further improvements at McNary field with government assistance.

City Manager J. L. Franzen told the city council Monday night that $90,000 in federal money is available for runway extension and improvement of taxiways and aprons. The allocation is good only until June.

6000 is possible through the civil aeronautics board in Washington. Airline pilots who use the Salem field want the main runway increased in length from 5000 to 6000 feet for the reason that the Salem field is often substituted for the Portland field in bad weather. This improvement is projected only for 5500 feet, but a waiver that would make it
