

Milk Funds to Be Given Boost

School milk funds are going to get a boost and Salemites an evening of entertainment the night of March 31.

That evening at 8 o'clock in the Leslie Junior High school the cannery local union No. 670 will present its annual milk fund show, "Cannery Scandals of 1950."

The show is to have 16 vaudeville acts, which will include kits, solos and specialties. Musicians local No. 315 will furnish the orchestra.

Chairman for the program is Mary Bourke. She is assisted by Ada Price, Ellen Rauk, Caroline Miller, Arlo McLain, Merle Curtes and Margaret Sheaffer.

All proceeds from the show are to go to the public school milk fund with the fund available in the Willamette valley. Admission charge to the show is to be 50 cents, including the tax.

Rehearsal dates announced for the show are February 18 at 10 a.m. "Bachelor's Dream," and general rehearsal February 20, at 8 p.m. Both rehearsals are to be held at the Labor Temple hall, which is being donated by the Salem Building Trades.

Elected King Bing—Paul Hale, who Monday night was elected King Bing of the Salem Cherrians. Hale previously was the Cherrians' keeper of the rolls. (Bishop-Moderne studio)

Paul Hale Is New King Bing

Salem Cherrians Monday night elected Paul Hale as the new King Bing of the Cherrians, the election was necessitated by the death recently of King Bing Cedric Reamey.

Hale, who has been the Cherrians' keeper of the rolls, is president of Business Service, Inc., an accounting firm here.

Succeeding Hale as keeper of the rolls will be Jerry S. Anderson. Anderson is with the motor vehicle department of the secretary state's office.

During their meeting the Cherrians also went on record as favoring a clean shave instead of the whiskers proposed by the Cherrylend Festival board as a feature of the 1950 Cherrylend Festival.

Calls Einstein An Old Faker

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) said yesterday that Scientist Albert Einstein is an "Old Faker" who should have been deported long ago because of his "communistic activities."

The fiery Mississippian said, furthermore, that Einstein had nothing to do with developing the atom bomb.

At Einstein's New Jersey home a spokesman said the scientist would make no comment on Rankin's statement.

Einstein is generally rated among scientists as the greatest theoretical physicist since Newton. Although he did not work on the atom bomb itself, one of his theories of relativity formed the basis for its development.

The United States embarked on the A-bomb project after Einstein wrote to President Roosevelt during the war saying that a bomb was possible and that the Germans might succeed in producing one.

Rankin had printed in the congressional record excerpts from a report prepared for him by the house un-American activities committee. It listed alleged communist front groups with which Einstein was said to be associated.

Don Walker for Congress

Don Walker, 32-year-old Portland attorney, filed his candidacy today for the republican nomination for congress in the third district (Multnomah county.)

On one of his journeys to Asia, Marco Polo learned the secrets of making water and milk ices and brought back the recipes to Italy in the latter part of the 13th century.

Signs Protect Folk on Foot

A new method to guard persons and property from injury at Salem street intersections will be tried by setting up a couple of dozen moveable stop signs.

They were ordered by the city council Monday night after Alderman David O'Hara had said the flouting of the law at intersections had reached the point where something had to be done.

O'Hara said he wasn't criticizing the police especially, because it would take a lot of officers to enforce the law at all important intersections. But he urged a campaign of some kind to educate drivers and pedestrians as to their duty at intersections.

An ordinance that requires motorists to give pedestrians the right of way was mentioned. O'Hara said he wouldn't be so exacting as to enforce the letter of the law where perhaps only one pedestrian is involved and an actual stop by the car is not necessary, but he cited instances near the State house where "18 or 20 cars whiz by while the pedestrian stands in the middle of the street."

The signs ordered will be similar to those used in California. They will require cars to stop when pedestrians are crossing the street.

The violation of another city ordinance by service station operators came up, and they will be given 90 days in which to reduce their driveway space to ordinance requirements. The ordinance was enacted several years ago, but has been enforced mainly only to new stations or to those being rebuilt.

Reserve Unit To Be Checked

One of Salem's organized Army Reserve units, which probably will be on the new troop list, is to be checked Tuesday night by representatives of the Northern Subarea of the Sixth army, Oregon military district and the senior army instructor's office.

The unit, the Third battalion of the 413th infantry regiment of the 104th infantry division, is commanded by Lt. Col. Eugene Laird.

Among those here to check the unit will be the senior army instructor for the organized reserve corps in this area, Col. Karl C. Frank and Maj. Paul Mielley of the Northern Subarea of the Sixth army. The team will be composed of five or six army officers.

In checking the unit the team will check not only their training program and methods, but their recruiting program and the morale of the unit.

Dragon Dies Being Unloaded

San Pedro, Cal., Feb. 14 (AP)—Animal hunter Noel Rosefelt's plan to give the United States its first live Komodo dragon misfired Monday by a few minutes when the eight-foot lizard died just before it was unloaded from a freighter.

Rosefelt said the dragon was alive 15 minutes before it was lifted from the hold of the S. S. President Tyler and lowered to the dock. When he went to examine it, however, it was curled in the corner of its narrow crate, dead.

The "dragon" was preceded by his press clippings. The China Mail described him as "a killer, looking like a monstrous shore lizard."

Rosefelt captured his dragon on Komodo Island, off Borneo. The hunter said it was the first of his type ever taken alive.

The eight-foot long reptile has a forked tongue and vicious-looking talons.

The dragon preys on wild pigs, birds, and even humans. Rosefelt was told in the East Indies.

Tracts Petition For 2 Streets

Development of Glenview Tracts on the west side has reached the point where streets are necessary, the city council was informed Monday night.

The tracts lie south of Orchard Heights road and along the west boundary of the city.

Elmer M. Amundson, representing Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kern, offered the city, without cost, ground for the dedication of two streets, which would have the names "Westway" and "Larkspur lane." They would be 50 feet wide.

The council referred the matter to the planning and zoning commission.

On motion of Alderman Walker.

Thirteen boys interested in woodworking selected Paul F. Parker, 1186 Sixth, to be club leader. The club will be known as "Woodie Woodworkers."

Bruce Davis was elected to wield the gavel as club president; Ronny Baker, vice president; Ronny McCormick, secretary; Freddie Parker, reporter; Macy Hadley, song leader, and Danny Quinn, yell leader. Other members: James Dodge, Tommy Jackson, Jimmy Newberry, Jimmy Walls, Ronnie Bates, Richard Castle and Donald Nordone.

Thornburg Talks On Religion

Dr. Amos Thornburg, pastor of the Hollywood Methodist church of Hollywood, Cal., in giving the first of a series of three sermons Tuesday forenoon in connection with religious emphasis week at Willamette university said that a good valid religion must "always be growing, must have concern for the whole of life and must be universal in its scope."

Speaking before a capacity audience of students in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Thornburg said that merely having faith was not sufficient. "The character and object of your devotion makes all the difference in the world concerning the nature of your life and work."

The clergyman said that "religion can be so Christian it can develop hypocritical that we cannot see the inconsistencies in our own lives." He added that too many do not see religion as an abundant and changing thing.

In touching upon the phase that religion must always be growing, Dr. Thornburg pointed out that the life of Jesus was one of cumulative work. Yet, he said "one of the most important aspects of religion is that it must come of age in our own lives."

Dr. Thornburg will speak on the subject "The Possible You" at 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon at the First Presbyterian church and on "The Victorious Capture" at the First Methodist church Thursday forenoon.

Plan to Reopen Harvest Camp

Salem Agricultural Housing, Inc., which sponsors the Salem harvest labor camp, held its annual meeting Tuesday and re-elected directors for the coming year.

The directors went on record for operation of the camp through the coming harvest season, and authorized a special committee to work out the matter of disposal of the ground and buildings if and when the camp is disbanded. Whether the camp will be maintained after the 1950 season is to be decided.

Members re-elected were: For the business interests and the Chamber of Commerce, Guy N. Hickok, chairman; Linn Smith, Bruce Spaulding.

For the farmers, Larry Goss of West Stayton, Homer Goulet, Jr., and Frank Crawford.

For the packers and cannery, George Paulus, O. E. Snider and W. J. Linfoot.

Tax Statement Puts Two in Jail

Portland, Feb. 14 (AP)—Taxes put two young men in jail last night, but it was an indirect assist.

Last week the Earl C. Spinney home on N. Albina avenue was entered by three men. Spinney was held prisoner for several hours while an unsuccessful search was made for money. The robbers then took $6 from Spinney's wallet and forced him to write a check for $300 to Donald R. Baker, an alias.

While detectives were investigating, they found a tax withholding statement. That statement led to Stanley L. Holman, 26, and his half-brother, Charles E. Satterfield, Jr., 17 They were arrested last night and implicated a third man who still is at large.

Spinney stopped payment on his $300 check.

Defense Plans Said Approved

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—Defense Secretary Johnson said today that plans for the defense of America are drawn up in detail and have been approved by President Truman, the joint chiefs of staff and himself.

Addressing a gathering of U.S. district attorneys from all parts of the country, Johnson said that if the need arises "we are ready to go at five o'clock in the morning."

He added:

"I can tell you that the defenses of the United States, as of today, are in the opinion of the joint chiefs, the president and myself, sufficient unto the needs of the hour."

The defense secretary emphasized that while his department is necessarily concerned with the problems which would arise from a possible war, "we are seeking in this department to secure the peace of our country and the peace of the world."
