Couple Wed Here Tuesday

The First Evangelical United Brethren church was the scene for a pretty wedding Tuesday evening when Miss Barbara Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Richardson, was married to George Bartruff, son of Mrs. Lena Bartruff, the 8 o'clock rites being read by the Rev. W. N. Brown.

The service took place in the church parlor before the fireplace banked with greenery. A candelabrum with lighted tapers stood at either side of the fireplace and on the mantel was a long low arrangement of acacia, pink and white carnations. On the piano was another arrangement of the acacia and carnations.

For the music, Mrs. W. N. Brown played the piano and Mrs. Gerald Jaffe sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dusty pink street-length dress with navy blue hat and accessories and long navy blue gloves. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid.

Miss Dorothy Richardson was attendant for her sister. She wore a cocoa brown dress with matching accessories and natural straw hat. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow carnations and rosebuds.

E. David Bartruff was best man for his brother, and ushering was Robert Bartruff, another brother.

Miss Sharon Hoxie lighted the candles.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Richardson wore a beige suit with light green blouse and brown hat and accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua dress with black accessories and corsage of gardenias and pink carnations.

The reception following was at the Richardson residence. Mrs. V. R. Ballantyne assisted at the reception. Mrs. J. V. Fry-
