

Wife, 33, to See Husband, Children for the First Time

Atlanta, Feb. 16 (AP)—A delicate operation performed as 1,000 doctors watched promises to enable a cotton mill worker's wife to see her husband and two children for the first time.

It was the surgical transplant ten days ago of a cornea from a still-born baby to the left eye of Mrs. Mary Ella Sams, 33, of Manchester, Ga.

Named—Gov. Earl Warren's crime commission has named Jack Dragna (above) as an important rival of mobster Mickey Cohen. The commission identified Dragna as a 55-year-old Mafia member of Los Angeles. (AP Wirephoto)

Color television picked up minute details and displayed them to physicians at a southeastern medical meeting.

Mrs. Sams' sight was tested with a flashlight beam.

She smiled as her husband, children and relatives clustered around her and told them she could detect the light.

Her doctors at Grady hospital were silent on the final results. But she herself said joyfully:

"You know, they think I'll probably have 80 per cent vision in this eye. Isn't that great?"

Mrs. Sams has been blind since an infection at the age of 18 months. If sight is restored to her left eye, a similar operation may be performed later on her other eye.

Cold War End Election Issue

London, Feb. 16 (AP)—Winston Churchill's suggestion for new Big Three talks to end the cold war has pushed the debate on the hydrogen super bomb into the British election campaign. Churchill mentioned the bomb—but not by name—last night in a speech at Edinburgh. Then he called for east-west talks on the "highest level" in a "supreme effort to bridge the gulf between two worlds so that each can live their life, if not in friendship, at least without the hatreds and maneuvers of cold war."

It was the first attempt by either conservatives or laborites to inject the east-west issue into the Feb. 23 election campaign that so far has been fought solely on domestic grounds—more or less socialism.

This suggested that conservatives may end up their campaign by claiming that Churchill—if he becomes prime minister—could deal better with Russia's Generalissimo Stalin than could Laborite Prime Minister Clement Attlee.

The cow was milked twice daily and was 6 years 4 months when she began her test period.

Red Pact Aimed At America

Washington, Feb. 16 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities said today Soviet Russia and Red China apparently had designed their new treaty of alliance in part as a weapon for cutting the ground from under American policy toward China.

That was the initial interpretation placed on the annex to the pact, announced last night.

Under this, Russia promises to hand over to Communist China within two years the South Manchurian railway, which the Soviets now operate, and the port of Dairen. Moscow also says it eventually will withdraw Soviet troops from the "jointly used naval base" of Port Arthur.

American policy, as stated by Secretary of State Acheson Jan. 12 is based on the hope of a conflict of interest between Russia and China in North China and particularly in Manchuria.

If Russia actually returns the railways, Dairen and Port Arthur the effect would be to minimize this conflict.

Meanwhile, state department officials are certain that both Moscow and the Chinese Red regime will make propaganda capital of the fact that Russia has entered into a treaty to relinquish the special rights which the United States has assailed as a form of old-fashioned imperialism in China.
