Herseys To Be Feted At Party

Honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Hersey (Carol Fallin), who are here for a time, Mr. and Mrs. Grant B. Fallin are to entertain Saturday evening at a family party. Cards will be in play and a late supper served. The affair is arranged in observance of the first wedding anniversary of the Herseys, which was Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hersey have completed their work at San Francisco college, returning north from San Francisco recently.

Out-of-town relatives attending the party will include Mrs. George Bayless and Mr. and Mrs. George Bayless, Jr., of Seattle, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Fuller of Camas, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Willard Frasier and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillies of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur McDonald of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Renner of West Linn and their daughter, Joan. Other guests will include Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Laudahl, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Espin, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fallin and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chapman. The out-of-town relatives are to be guests at the C. M. Williams home for the weekend.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Fallin at the party will be their younger daughters, Misses Ann and Kathleen Fallin.

Miss Upjohn Home

Miss Barbara Upjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Upjohn has completed her work at University of California at Los Angeles, and is now home for a stay. She will receive her degree of bachelor of science next June at the regular commencement program at the university. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority at UCLA.

Another daughter of the Upjohns, Mrs. J. G. Walker, and her son, Douglas, of McMinnville, returned to their home last evening following a week's visit at the Upjohn home.

Johnston-Armstrong

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Joyce Armstrong, to Larry Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Johnston. All are of Jefferson. No date is announced for the wedding.

Hatchet Cakes Add Magic Touch

Whether or not the hatchet and cherry tree legend has any claim to truth, it's a good story to remember when you plan a Washington's birthday party. Cherry desserts are many, and they're pretty to look at, too—pale pink ice cream, for instance, with finely chopped cherries or crushed peppermint stick candy added for flavor, garnished with whole maraschino cherries. Use red cherries for the cherry-flavored kind, green cherries with the peppermint stick flavor.

To add an amusing as well as delicious note to your refreshments, make mock angel cake hatchets—of bread, dipped in sweetened condensed milk and coconut, and then browned in the oven. They're an easy and thrifty sort of cake or cookie, and they are really good to eat. Cut the hatchet shapes from slices of day-old bread.

You can make the ice cream with sweetened condensed milk, too. This form of milk is a rich, creamy blend of whole milk and sugar, specially adapted to all sorts of interesting dessert-making. Don't confuse it with evaporated milk, which contains no added sugar, and cannot be satisfactorily used in recipes calling for the sweetened condensed variety.

Week-end Guests

Miss Suzanne Huggins and four University of Oregon friends will arrive from Eugene Friday afternoon, the group to accompany Mrs. Huggins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Huggins and her brother, Charles, to Neskowin for a week-end at the Huggins beach cottage.

Guests of Miss Huggins for the week-end will be Miss Dana Lind and Miss Ann Case, both of Portland; Miss Ann Gillenwaters of Monrovia, Calif., and Miss Jane Carlisle of Eugene. All are Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters of Miss Huggins.

Auxiliary Meeting Event of Monday

Marion auxiliary to post 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met Monday evening at the VFW hall for a regular business meeting. Initiation was conducted for Mary E. Gilhuly and Mrs. Nelson Hickok.

Committee reports given were: Finance, Mrs. Al Aschlimann; Americanism, Mrs. Elmer Forbis; membership, Mrs. Mel Clements; publicity, Mrs. Joe Hopmans.

The auxiliary voted to give a ham dinner on February 23 with proceeds to go toward sending the top ranking scout of troop 12 to the national jamboree at Valley Forge in June. A dinner will also be served in March to the Federated Patriotic Society of Fraternal Organizations with the proceeds to go to the Boy Scouts also.

Mrs. Margaret Lewis was presented with a 25-year membership pin by the auxiliary. The past presidents of 661 will meet Thursday, Feb. 16, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lewis and the Sewing club will meet Friday night, February 17, at the home of Mrs. Ivell Haley.

After the meeting the auxiliary joined the post to hear talks given by Mark Hatfield, political science instructor of Willamette university, who gave a Lincoln day address, and Norman Howard, department VFW legislative chairman, who outlined the new Oregon bonus bill. The next meeting will be February 27.

Bridge Group

Mrs. Richard Chambers was hostess last evening to a newly formed bridge club. Early dessert was served followed by the card games.

In the group are Mrs. Merle Brown, Mrs. Donald Freil, Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. Wilmer H. Page, Mrs. Edward Schiess, Mrs. Lewis Scott, Mrs. Alan A. Stewart, Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Jr. and Mrs. Richard Chambers.

Recent Bride—Mrs. George Folz, the former Dorothy Klein, was married December 31. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klein, Mr. Folz the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Folz. (McEwan studio picture)

Boots and Spurs

One of the largest crowds yet participated in the fun night put on by the MacFarlanes and the Wieders last Friday evening. Everything was fast, there were good games and competition, and a wind-up with plenty of rolls and coffee.

Sunday, just about every calf roper in the club took advantage of the warmer weather and, with Mrs. Don Hantze and Sharon DeWitt acting as hostesses in the club room, one of the best mornings was recorded as far as calf roping was concerned.

Sunday afternoon Governor McKay got into the saddle again. Quite a number of the younger set took advantage of the milder weather to at least exercise their horses.

Monday night the number of riders participating in the called drill amounted to almost 40. A shorter than regular time was spent drilling on account of the regular monthly meeting that took place immediately afterward in the club room. President Al Inglis presided, with both Treasurer Sherman Bostack and Secretary Joan MacFarlane present. It was agreed that in order to prevent accidents, a signboard would be placed on the wall in the arena covering the general rules of the riders while in the arena. It was further agreed to see if something could be done to improve the performance of the public address system, by either the arrangement of the horns or addition of others.

On February 22, there will be a meeting called to elect officers for the drill team and all riders interested in riding with the team are urged to be present at the stadium for this meeting. It is nice to note that now that the McCormicks have returned from their island vacation, their daughter, Glenda Lou, has joined the club and is keeping pretty buckskin filly at the barn. This part Arab is quite frisky and is a recent acquisition from the Flying E Ranch, as well as one of the few remaining colts to be raised by the Everlys.

The members at large will be pleased to know that the Bert Karrs of Lazy Maple ranch above Lyons are riding with the group again. After leaving Salem in December for southern California the old regulars, Blanche and Fred Anunsen are home and riding again. From Covina, they drove to Warm Springs, Georgia, and returned with Fred's son, Jack, who has been a patient there for several months. He is now well on the way to recovery and his friends will be pleased to hear that he now can have visitors at any time.

Ray Garlick has charge of fun night this Friday and the newest members to the Tan Barkers this past week are Wanda O'Brien and Graham Sharkey.

Miss Geisler Wed Tuesday

At a quiet home wedding Tuesday evening, February 14, Miss Lenore Geisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Geisler of Hopewell, was wed to William Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Lee of Amity. Rev. William F. Morse, pastor of the Christian church of Amity, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Bouquets of daffodils, white snapdragons, acacia, ferns and potted hyacinths were arranged about the house.

For the ceremony, the bride chose a navy blue suit with a white rose corsage. Mrs. Geisler gave her daughter in marriage. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Melvin Wilkinson of Salem, wore a gray suit with pink carnation corsage. James Lee, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride's mother wore black moire with gardenia corsage and the bridegroom's mother was attired in blue wool with gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Delbert Shipman, of Salem, sister of the bride, poured coffee. Mrs. Donald Bornick, sister of the bridegroom, served punch, and Miss Bonnie Lee served the bride's cake. The lace-covered table was set in the sunroom. The pink and white cake and white candles centered the table.

Those who attended the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Lee, parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. John Geisler, parents of the bride, Miss Bonnie Lee, James Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Fred May, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bornick, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wilkinson, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. F. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. William Lee will make their home in McMinnville.
