

Pair Wed Saturday At Church

Miss Barbara Brundige, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Brundige, was married Saturday evening to Keith Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Evans, the ceremony being solemnized at 8 o'clock in the First Congregational church with the Rev. Seth R. Huntington officiating.

The church altar was decorated with bouquets of white and pink stock, snapdragons and calla lilies for the wedding. Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Dwight Runner, in blue, and Mrs. Robert Kuenzli in pink.

For the wedding music, Miss Donna Satter sang, Jean Hobson Rich playing the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a gown of pearl pink slipper satin in period style, the full gathered skirt terminating in a court train. The bodice was fitted with a flesh colored nylon net yoke edged with a wide ruffle of chantilly lace.

A row of tiny satin buttons extended from the neckline to the waistline in back, and the sleeves were long. The fingertip veil of silk illusion was arranged from a Mary Stuart cap of lace. The bride carried a bouquet of white camellias and pink bouvardia with a white orchid in the center.

The family was prominent in social and civic work in Silverton during their several years' residence here before moving to Lebanon.

Mrs. Glessnor Brundige was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Douglas Armstrong and Miss Arleen Frogley. They all wore dresses of white tissue faille styled with nylon net yokes, the berthas caught to the bodice and edged in lace; full skirts finished with bustle bows, and tiny buttons down the backs of the waists.

The three wore mitts matching their gowns and their Mary Stuart caps each had a bow at the side. The attendants carried cascade bouquets of red carnations.

Best man for Mr. Evans was his cousin, Ray McCoy, and ushering were Gale Besse and Douglas Armstrong.

The bride's mother wore a gray lace over satin gown with a matching taffeta hat trimmed with maline and pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua gown that had a lace yoke edged in beading and lace sleeves. The accessories were black. The two mothers wore corsages of orchids.

The reception following the service was in the church fireplace room. Mrs. Kenneth Prince poured and Miss Jane Murray of Portland cut the cake. Assisting at the reception were Miss Shirley Parker of Roseburg, Miss Bonita Miller of Coquille, Miss Leola Huddleston, Mrs. Thomas Stevenson and Mrs. Ferris Gilkey.

For going away the bride wore a light blue traveling suit with short pink coat, navy blue hat and accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Salem.

Student Aided—Miss Aida Fabiero, at left, who arrived by air from Manila, P. I., just after New Year's, is shown above receiving a check for $800 from Mrs. Charlene Edwards of Philomath, state president of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Miss Fabiero is to use the money for a year's graduate study in home economics extension work at Oregon State college. She is the fifth foreign student who has been assisted in taking graduate work as part of the statewide international relations program of the BPW clubs. Miss Fabiero, a graduate of the University of the Philippines, has been a home economics extension worker for the Philippine government for nine years. Her travel expenses to the United States were paid by her government.

Silver Tea

Hubbard—Approximately 100 guests were present for the annual Children's Farm home tea given by the Hubbard Woman's club. The speaker, Don Smith, "Lelookska," talked on northwest Indians, told a legend sang and danced Indian songs and dances and beat the drum for his brother, Dick "Thunderagle" and sister Pat "Fawn" while they danced. All were in Indian costumes.

Mrs. A. F. de Lespinasse, who briefly reviewed the history of the club's project of helping the Children's Farm home at Corvallis, gave the welcome. Following the speaker Mrs. Harley Piper of Woodburn played a piano solo and Mrs. Robert Evans sang, accompanied by Miss Carmen School, who also accompanied five of her music students in four orchestra numbers. The program was concluded with several numbers played on the accordion by Miss Betty Schifsky.

The tea table was spread with white linen. A centerpiece of yellow daffodils, blue irises and ferns was guarded by tall yellow tapers. Mrs. C. L. Welch and Mrs. C. R. Sult presided at the silver trays. The hall was decorated with pussywillows and greens.

A silver offering of $29.10 will be sent to the Farm home. Guests were present from Woodburn, Salem and Aurora as well as Hubbard.

Next time you make homemade yeast rolls sprinkle them with poppyseed just before baking.

Party for School Group

Misses Beth Scharback and Joanne Clark were hostesses Saturday evening at a Valentine party for a group of school friends, the party being at the Lions den. Following the evening of games late refreshments were served. Chaperons for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. McArthur Proebstel and Mrs. C. B. Johns.

Attending the party were Miss Nadine Woodruff, Harry Burke, Miss Karen Morley, Larry Keppinger, Miss Anna Mae Lockenour, Gary Parker, Miss Scharback, Dick Hornaday, Miss Sandra Anderson, Bob Joy, Miss Sherrle Brinkley, Lowell Pierce, Miss Judy Foreman, Derald Knittle, Miss Beverly Johns, Clarence Boyous, Miss Barbara Seaber, George Casper, Miss Margaret Barge, Howard Messmer, Miss Joan Seamster, Dennis Garland, Miss Sally Greig, Corky Brown, Miss Shirley Bier, Otis Phillips, Miss Jackie Jones, Dick Langdon, Miss Mary Lou Zumwalt, Dave Hara, Miss Clark, Norman Henderson, Bob Engle, Miss Patricia McBeth, Miss Helen Beck, Stanley Frize, Miss Nancy Jenks, Tommy Frigard.

WOODBURN—Members of the Woodburn Junior Woman's club will operate a home made candy booth at the Martha Washington tea next Wednesday afternoon at the Episcopal hall. Mrs. Lyman Seely is in charge of arrangements and requests all members to bring their candy to her home, 620 Garfield street, by Tuesday evening, February 21. Proceeds from the candy sale will be added to the funds taken in at the tea.

"YUMMY for Sandwiches"
Mrs. Emma Neal aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake which was served with other refreshments to 73 guests. Misses Margaret Pepperling, Wilda Gray and Linda Riley, served.
Mr. and Mrs. Bunker are at home in Adair Village, near Corvallis where he is attending Oregon State college.

For Nancy Jenny

Nancy Jenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jenny, celebrated her sixth birthday Friday a party being given at the Sunset drive home of the family.

Feting Nancy were Rosemary and Jimmy Manion, Lewie Davies, Karen Hughes, Marylouise and Susan Footer, Janet and Shirley Evtetson, Judy and Sandy Gell, Claire Mumau, Billy Laird, Nancy and Billy Walker, Jimmy Fox, Judy Brookens of Milwaukie, and Marcia Jenny, sister of the honoree.

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the TPM club and their husbands were entertained Thursday night at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Terrill. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hein, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neuman, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. William Damery, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartley, Mrs. Rex Peffer, Mrs. William McKinney and Mrs. Laura Pangle. Honored birthday guests were Mrs. Brandt and Mrs. Damery.

Goldenweds Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Beier are to observe their golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday. An open house is planned at their residence, 1086 Third street, between 1:30 and 5 p.m. that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Beier were married in Mountain Lake, Minn., February 22, 1900. They have lived in Salem since 1936.

Six of their nine children are living, including Mrs. Otto (Nettie) Gerdes of Mountain Lake, Minn., Henry E. Beier and Mrs. Jake (Hilda) Martin, both of Frazer, Mont., Dr. Earl Beier of Portland, Leland Beier of Seattle and Harry O. Beier of Tampa, Kans. Mrs. Gerdes is already here for the golden wedding event and the other children will be here, except the son in Kansas, who will be unable to attend. The couple have 15 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Cater Hostess

Roberts—Mrs. Austin Cater assisted by Mrs. Keith Austin, Mrs. L. F. Zielke, and Mrs. A. H. Kleen entertained the members of the G. T. club. A dessert luncheon was served at one o'clock to the 21 members present and five children. After the business session there were interesting contests from which Mrs. E. E. Jones won two prizes and Mrs. Henry Query a prize.

Leaders Club Hosts

Sublimity—The leaders of the 4-H club girls gave a party for the seventh and eighth grade classes. Games were played and refreshments served to the girls. Hostesses of the party were: Mrs. George Tate, Mrs. Grace Ditter and Mrs. Cecelia Ditter.

Nightshirt Coat—This brand new spring coat is made of light-weight tweed and designed by Brigance.

PEOPLE ARE RAVING!
—the way Cuticura helps clear up pimples, rash!

Blackheads and "externally caused" pimples and rash usually yield promptly to Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Fragrant, scientifically medicated. Used by many doctors and nurses. Buy at your druggist today.

Judge Kimmell Speaks for Club

Woodburn—Judge Rex Kimmell, Marion county circuit court, and former assistant to the state attorney general, was the guest speaker at the February dinner meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club at the Laurel cafe.

Judge Kimmell was introduced by Mrs. W. S. Scarborough, program chairman, and gave an interesting talk on the present divorce laws and also spoke briefly on juvenile delinquency.

Kenneth Thompson gave a group of vocal solos and also led the group singing with Miss Gladys Adams at the piano. Mrs. Eugene Stoller presided. Mrs. Stoller recently returned from Coos Bay where she attended the state board meeting of the BPW.

Other members of the legislative committee assisting Mrs. Scarborough were Mrs. Jessie Wagerman and Miss Mabel Livesay.

The next club meeting will be the monthly business meeting at the home of Miss Gladys Adams on the evening of March 2.

Saddle Club Guest

Willamina—A small group met at the Littlejohn home near Fort Hill recently for a meeting of the Spirit Mountain 4-H Saddle club. Sharon McGrew, president, was absent, so Jim Glass, vice president, presided. Stanley Fansher, the county extension agent from Dallas and his wife attended the meeting, and was the main speaker. Later in the evening Littlejohn showed moving pictures and refreshments were served.

Eberiuses Are Hosts

Willamina—A going-away party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Eberius, honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McMillian and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jackson, who are returning to Texas. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Manner, Nancy and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cary and Coleen, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson and Lowell Miller of Silverton. Pinochle was played and the hostess served refreshments.

When you make a supper salad using leftover cold meat mound it on a serving plate and frost with a thin layer of mayonnaise; sprinkle the topping with finely minced parsley, and decorate with strips of pimento if you like.

Henry's Things PHOTO graphic
WHERE
Photographic Equipment IS NOT A SIDELINE
Films Printed and Developed in Our Own Laboratory
Henry's Things PHOTO graphic
469 STATE ST.

Checked Career—This slim little suit is made of gay red and white checked worsted, with bias stripes.

Big Night... snapshot night!
Good friends never part... in the pictures they take. Now it's easy to get those shots indoors at night... in gorgeous full color or crisp black-and-white—with Kodak Film. A Kodak Photo Flasher ($1.55, here) is all you need to get good indoor shots if your camera has a "T" or "B" setting. Or you may wish to look over some of our new Kodak flash cameras. Stop in and let us help you.
Kodak Duaflex Camera... a flash camera that makes wonderful snapshots—easily. Negatives, 2 1/4 x 2 1/4. With Kodet Lens, $12.75. With Kodar f/8 focusing lens, $19.85. Flashholder, $3.33.
Prices include Federal Tax.
Quisenberry Pharmacies
that operate as one

Edwards brings you something new in flavor ...coffee that's actually fresher by days!

Edwards' exclusive "Speed-Fresh" method guarantees you the full, natural coffee richness and aroma!

Here's how "Speed-Fresh" works:
1 Edwards is roasted ONLY TO YOUR GROCER'S ORDER...IN SMALL BATCHES.
2 Edwards is rushed by truck to your store. No long weeks in a warehouse. Your grocer gets it FASTER—YOU GET IT FRESHER...BY DAYS!
3 Every pound is fresh when you buy it. Never stocked, never sold, unless at its peak freshness. That's why Edwards is so rich and fragrant—always FRESHER BY DAYS!

EDWARDS COFFEE
REGULAR GRIND
VACUUM PACKED

3 GRINDS: REGULAR, DRIP, OR FINE

ALWAYS RICH COFFEE FRESHER BY DAYS!

EVERY POUND UNIFORMLY RICH...UNIFORMLY FRESH

GET IT fresh AT SAFEWAY