

Patients Tell of Kindnesses Of Dr. Hermann N. Sander

By ARTHUR EVERETT

Manchester, N. M., March 6 (AP)—"A good name is rather to be chosen than riches."
That's what they wrote beside Dr. Hermann N. Sander's name in his high school year book many years ago.
Now he is on trial for first degree murder in the alleged mercy slaying of one of his patients.

They came today in a long parade—the rich and the poor, young and old, tall and short to testify for Dr. Sander—to try to prove the class prophecy was true.

They were his patients, the men and women of Manchester to whom he gave a doctor's quiet aid in a moment of great peril.

"We had 100 more begging for a chance to take the stand," said defense attorney Ralph E. Langdell.

This is what these men and women said and it sounded so straight from the heart that it brought tears to many an eye in the courtroom:

High school headmaster Carl P. James, Sr.:

"He always spent a great deal of time, interest and sympathy on his patients."

Insurance man Robert S. Perkins:

"He's got a heart like a bushel basket."

John L. Conides, whose wife is an invalid:

"A very kind-hearted man—a good physician."

Grocer John Burke: "I think he's a perfect geolykan."

Helen Maiolek, his secretary, who called and got Doctor Sander to treat her dying brother although the physician had two broken ribs at the time:

"He didn't pay very much attention to the money end of it."

Amos C. Lyford, his neighbor:

"We always put him on the top of the list (in community fund-raising drives) because we always were sure of getting a large contribution."

Mrs. Helen Fitzpatrick, whose baby Dr. Sander delivered:

"He asked us if we needed any money."

Maud (CQ) Delaney:

"He's a doctor that you've got awful lot of faith in. He's kind and he's good."

Rita Parker, who had called on and got aid from Dr. Sander when the physician had a broken leg of his own:

"If I am here today, I have Dr. Sander to thank for it."

Mrs. Martha Henderson, who labored in childbirth for 42 hours with Dr. Sander by her side:

"Bills meant nothing to him. His patients came first."

Mrs. Mildred Whalen, whose husband was away in service when she was stricken:

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Sander, I may not have been alive today."

And Mrs. Frederick Preston, who called Dr. Sander away from his Christmas dinner to treat her husband:

"He has never failed us. He has seen us through some very difficult times."

When the last one stepped down. Somebody said to Dr. Sander:

"Quite a fine tribute, doctor." His throat was too tight for words. His eyes said them for him.

2 New Areas for Valley Tree Farms

Eugene, March 6 (AP)—Williamette Valley Tree Farms Inc., today reported the addition of two new areas to its conservation program.

The 26,000-acre Valseltz tree farm, owned by Saginaw Timber Co., Dant & Russell Inc., and Inman-Poulson Lumber company, were elected to full membership in the corporation.

Their addition brought to 495,000 acres the area covered by Willamette Valley Tree Farms and operated on a sustained yield plan.

Tragic Mistake—That big "crying mama doll" two-year-old Carolyn Thompson (left) loved so well had a part in her death at Oklahoma City. Carolyn was sleeping in her bed with the doll when Fireman Bob Coley (shown with doll) rushed in to save her from smoke and flames. He grabbed the doll by mistake and Carolyn was left to suffocate. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thompson. (AP Wirephoto)

Demonstration Offered

Monmouth—The Monmouth home demonstration unit met in the city hall with Miss Elsie Marco, county demonstration agent, demonstrating step-save kitchen and meal planning.

Man's Suit in Russia Costs About $277 in American Coin

Washington, March 6 (AP)—State department officials figure it costs about $277 to buy a man's suit in a Soviet store these days, despite the price cuts Moscow announced Tuesday.

Last week the Russians (1) fixed a gold value for the ruble at four to the American dollar; (2) cut prices on a wide range of commodities. Only the percentages of the price cuts were announced abroad.

To find out what a dollar will now buy in Moscow stores, state department experts applied the announced reductions to price lists on file here. Some of the results:

White bread, six rubles per kilogram (2.2 pounds)—or 65 cents a pound; black bread, 23 cents a pound; potatoes, 10 cents a pound; sweet butter, $5 a pound; rice, $1.67 a pound; second grade beef, or soup meat, $2.40 a pound; pork, $4.00 a pound; chicken, $3.04 a pound; sausage, $3.65 a pound; milk, 38 cents a quart.

On other commodities, the rate of one dollar to four rubles figures out this way:

Man's suit, $277.25; man's shoes, $85; woman's suit, $128.75; woman's dress, $111; silk stockings, $8; woman's shoes, $87.50; table model radio, $272; package of 25 cigarettes, Kasbek brand, $1.08; Soviet-made portable typewriter, $249.50; wrist watch, $100.

By American official calculations, Soviet wages average something less than 600 rubles eral level is still substantially above that which prevailed under wartime rationing.

Homemakers Invited

Sheridan—All homemakers of Yamhill county have been invited to attend a Home Canning Judging school, March 7 in McMinnville. Arrangements have been made by W. M. Perry, county extension agent, for Mrs. Vivian Freeman, well known and popular education representative for the Kerr Glass company to conduct this school.
