

Mr. Laird Talks for AN League

Eugene Laird, lieutenant colonel, USAR, was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of Salem Women's Army and Navy League, Tuesday, when the group met at Chuck's Steak House. Mr. Laird discussed the Reserve Officers Association and its purpose.

Following the luncheon, the group enjoyed canasta, Mrs. Lynn M. Hammerstad and Mrs. Stephen Fouchek winning honors.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Richard Denton, Mrs. E. A. Meola, Mrs. Howard Sargent, Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. Nell Stevens, Mrs. Courtney Johns, Mrs. Dewey Rand, Mrs. Eugene Laird.

Miss Tinsley Is Bride March 5

Independence — Miss Dotis Tinsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brewer of Kansas City, Kan., and Homer Robinette, son of Mr. Virgil Robinette of Salem, were united in marriage at a 2 o'clock service Sunday afternoon, March 5, in the First Baptist church of Independence. Rev. Vernon O. Eggebraaten officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Carl Friessler sang, accompanied by Mrs. Eggebraaten, who also played the wedding marches.

The altar was decorated with large baskets of snapdragons and lighted tapers. Candle lighters were Mrs. James Drew, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a white eyelet formal, and Miss Wanda Buyers, attired in a blue taffeta gown.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white satin with a fitted bodice and full skirt that ended in a train. The illusion veil was arranged from a head piece of seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and white freesia.

Donna King and Carol Anne Kosanke, the flower girls, were dressed in pink and green taffeta and carried small old-fashioned bouquets.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Vera Robinette, wore a yellow taffeta gown. The bridesmaids were Millie Robinette, dressed in a blue formal and Lucile King wearing an orchid gown. All attendants carried old-fashioned bouquets of assorted flowers.

Ralph Robinette, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

The ushers were Jimmie

Plan for Dance

Members of Eta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, are busy with plans for an informal dance and card party planned for the evening of March 17 at a St. Patrick's day event in Mayflower hall. Wayne Meusey's orchestra is to play for the dancing. Mrs. Burl Cox is president of the chapter. Misses Wanda Ringland and Tina Duerken head the social committee in charge of the party.

Mrs. Bishop Speaks Here

Members of the Salem unit, Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, were urged to learn about the candidates in order to assure that high caliber officials be elected, in a talk by the state president, Mrs. Bishop, before a meeting of the local group last evening in the courthouse.

Also, Mrs. Bishop called upon the members to write short letters to the president and to congressmen urging execution of the Hoover commission plan. Mrs. Bishop, too, encouraged the women to become informed on the Columbia Valley administration plans.

For the music, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. William Burns, Portland, sang a duet, the state piece of the organization.

At the business session of the Salem unit the revised constitution was adopted.

Announced for April 10 was the meeting for candidates.

Standing committee chairmen named include: Mrs. Ralph E. Moody, program; Mrs. Donald Madison, membership; Mrs. M. M. Magee and Miss Elizabeth Porter, publicity.

Drew, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, who wore his army uniform, and John Inlow, dressed in his marine uniform.

Receiving and arranging the wedding gifts were Misses Barbara Hamaan and Grace Hildebrand. A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Pat Pierce poured and Mrs. Eva Girard and Mrs. Margaret King, sisters of the bridegroom, served.

Most of the bride's relatives live in Kansas, and could not attend the wedding. The only relatives of the bride present were Earl Palan of Falls City, Oregon and Mrs. Fern Slater of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Robinette will reside near Salem on the Salem-Dallas highway.

Wedding at Local Church

At an 8 o'clock ceremony, Friday evening, March 3 at the First Congregational church, Miss Shirley Sonderman was wed to Kermit Burson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sonderman of Salem and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Burson, also of Salem.

White tapers flanked with baskets of yellow acacia, daffodils, white snapdragons and carnations decorated the altar for the wedding. Dr. Seth R. Huntington performed the ceremony. Mrs. Henry Grogan sang, accompanied by Jean Hobson Rich.

Lighting the tapers were Dennis Sonderman and Ronald Barnard.

Preceding the bride to the altar was her honor attendant, Mrs. Vernon Sonderman. Her dress was of ice blue satin and she carried a flower ring centered with the letter K. Miss Alna Sherman was the bridesmaid and her gown, patterned the same as that of the maid of honor, was in dusty rose satin. She also carried a flower ring which was centered with the letter S.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with long pointed sleeves, double Peter Pan collar and fitted waist which buttoned down the back. The full skirt, with bustle effect bows, terminated in a train. A Juliet cap of seed pearls held the finger tip veil in place. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow roses centered with gardenias.

Clarence T. Burson was his brother's best man and the groomsmen was a brother of the bride. Allen Sonderman of Portland.

Mrs. Sonderman wore for her daughter's wedding a black dress with rose and blue flower print, black hat and rose accessories. Mrs. Burson wore a black dress with aqua trim, black hat and aqua accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony the reception was given in the church parlors with Mrs. H. C. McCormick of Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, cutting the cake. Mrs. Ray Barnardy assisting. Miss Emma Brockway of Toledo poured. Assisting were Mrs. Donald Summers, Miss Marilyn Waters, Miss Mary Alice Jenkinson and Miss Bonnie Jenkinson.

The bride wore a navy blue suit and hat with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias

Accorded Honors

Woodburn — Mrs. A. G. Cowan of Woodburn has been selected as "Woman of the Week" because of her many contributions through work with various social, civic, fraternal and community organizations.

Mrs. Cowan served two years as president of the Woodburn Woman's club and is state safety chairman of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. She also taught school in Marion county for a number of years and was active in 4-H club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. Helen Emilie Bowers, a graduate of Maryhurst and Oregon State college.

Mr. McCall Club Speaker

Lawson McCall, secretary to Governor McKay, was guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Cascade chapter of the National Secretaries association, Monday evening at the Marion hotel. His topic of discussion was "A Word About Women." An interesting point Mr. McCall brought out was the fact that women should take a more active interest in politics and problems of the day, both locally and in the government, if they wish to achieve the equality with men they seek. Also on the program was a vocal solo by Miss Joyce Ballinger, accompanied by Mrs. Colmar Bjerke on the piano.

One of the current activities of the local chapter of the National Secretaries association is a charm course given under the direction of Easterly school of Portland. This course consists of voice culture, individual hair styling, proper use of cosmetics, correct choice of clothing for business women, and physical culture.

SILVERTON — The Silver-ton Woman's club will meet Monday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock at the First Christian church social rooms for the monthly program and business meeting. Their sponsored Girl Scout troop No. 30, will present the entire program and the mothers of the girls are to be special guests. Tea hostesses are Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. Lowell Brown, Mrs. Harry Riches, Mrs. Charles Hoyt, Mrs. V. E. Pettit, Mrs. C. B. Anderson and Mrs. Lulu Dedrick.

MACLEAY — Mrs. M. M. Magee will be hostess to members

For Mr. Rose

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Jensen & son John entertained at their home on McArthur avenue Saturday, in honor of the 66th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jensen's father, B. E. Rose.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rose & daughters LeVerne and Nancy and son Paul, and Mr. Bob Nepple of Portland; Verle Theurer of Philomath; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rose, daughter Patricia and son Ronnie of Valsest; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaffer and daughters Charline and Kathy, David Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Riggs and son Ray and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Rose, all of Salem.

Birthday Party

Shirley Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moe, observed her 14th birthday Saturday, a party being given in the afternoon at the Kingwood drive home of the family. Games were played and refreshments served. Mrs. Walter Erickson assisted Mrs. Moe in serving.

Honoring Shirley were Dixie Eby, Gail Watson, Arleen Macbarlane, Sally Erickson, Mary Lou Wilkerson, Doris Phillips, Marlene Phillips, Curtis Gurmarmar, Bill Jacobson, Mar-nard Loewen, Joy Lewis, Nancy Owens, and the three sisters of the honoree, Joyce, Donna and Delores Jacobson.

MRS. C. S. KEENE is to be hostess at her Silverton home Thursday for the Town and Country club members, luncheon being planned at 1 o'clock.

Get Marian Bell's New Flavor Ideas at Cooking School

EXCITING NEW RECIPES! New flavor ideas—with Crescent true, rich, full flavors! Latest methods in expert cookery and home baking! You'll learn them all from Marian Bell, widely known home economist at the Cooking School.

Time: 2:00 P.M., Friday, March 10

Place: Elfstrom's Appliance

For real spice artistry, for more tempting flavored foods, use the products Marian Bell uses — Crescent spices, flavors, coffee and other foods with the familiar blue and white quality label. See her demonstrate clever and timely decorations for cookies, cakes and other desserts, too, with Crescent's popular Sprinx!

CRESCENT

is the word for FLAVOR

Holiday . . .

to enjoy the TWEEDIE Circienne, sling pump with high heels. Kid in varying beige shades; Suede and Kid in varying Blue shades

AAAA to B. 4-9.

12.95

this is CAEMAR

MOTHER!

Let's Go to MARILYN'S

For Another Pair of LAZY-BONES

FLEXIBLE SHANK OXFORDS

THE ULTIMATE IN COMFORT AND QUALITY.

$4.95 and $5.95

Little Elbee says: "Hey, Mom, look at Lazy-Bones for the whole family."

No wonder Lazy-Bones Shoes are such favorites with every feminine member of the family! They're SO comfortable...because the flexible shank gently massages the foot every time it touches the ground. They're unlined...no inside seams to pinch or rub. And they are as attractive as they are serviceable.

MARILYN'S

387 Court Ph. 3-8155

GENERAL ELECTRIC'S

FREE COOKING SCHOOL

Comes to Elfstrom's Friday, March 10th at 2 P.M.

and will be held in the model General Electric kitchen of the Appliance Dept. Downstairs

Presented by these...

3 NOTED HOME ECONOMISTS

★

Betty Jane Christensen
of
General Electric

★

Marian Bell
of
Crescent Mfg. Co.

★

Celia Lee
of Crown Mills

If you are bored with fixing the same old things the same old way...like something new and different...and are interested in saving money on your food budget... Drop in to Elfstrom's Friday afternoon Cooking School.

BIG RANGE VALUES!

G-E "SPEED COOKING" WITH "PUSH-BUTTON" CONTROLS!

As little as 46c A DAY!

Here's a miracle range that gives you all the wonders of General Electric "Speed Cooking" with push buttons! See it today—ask for a free demonstration!

- PUSH BUTTONS, TIE-A-COOK LIGHTS • FAMOUS CALROD® UNITS
- AUTOMATIC OVEN TIMER • BUILT-IN PRESSURE COOKER
- HUGE TRIP-OVEN!

New! An Extra Hi-speed Calrod unit—right rear unit—the fastest heating Calrod unit ever made. Be sure to see it on the G-E Stratoliner!

The complete New 1950 line of General Electric Appliances will also be on Display for You.

R. L. Elfstrom Co.

Admission is Absolutely FREE!

FREE PRIZES!

PLAN RIGHT NOW TO COME, Bring a Friend, and Join the Fun.