Choking Child Gets in Accident

Seattle, Wash., March 9 (AP)—A Raymond, Wash., child, choking on a piece of carrot was rushed 135 miles to a hospital operating room Wednesday after he, his parents and an attending nurse were injured in an ambulance crash in Olympia, Wash.

The ambulance carrying the four crashed into the back of an escorting Olympia police car, but the damaged vehicle was waved on. It was not immediately learned whether another ambulance was pressed into service.

However, the party continued to Seattle with intermittent police escorts at speeds in excess of 80 miles an hour.

The boy, Malcolm John Edwards, 2, was reported to have suffered cuts and bruises. The nurse, Mrs. Barbara Shilling, suffered facial injuries, hospital attendants said. The extent of injuries to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards, was not immediately determined.

Mexican 'Quickie' Divorces Abolished

Mexico City, March 9 (AP)—Mexican "quickie" divorces to foreigners not legally residing in Mexico were abolished Wednesday by a nine-to-seven supreme court ruling.

Apparently aimed only at foreigners who take advantage of Mexico's lax divorce law, the ruling placed jurisdiction in divorce suits with the civil judge at the couple's legal residence, rather than with the judge where suit is filed.

A Mexican press campaign for a change in divorce law started after recent "quickie" decrees dissolved marital bonds between Movie Actress Faye Emerson and Elliott Roosevelt, and Movie Actress Ingrid Bergman and Dr. Peter Lindstrom.

The towns of Cuernavaca and Ciudad Juarez for years competed for the title of "Mexican divorce capital," both places eager for tourist dollars brought in by unhappy married persons.

the faculty and as willing to vouch for it in contractual letters. Holding that the special oath was discriminatory and a threat to academic freedom, the 900 voted unanimously last night against it. It has been ordered by the board of regents on a sign-or-quit basis by April 30 for all the university's 11,000 employees. Most of them, other than the faculty, already have signed.
