All aboard the plane were killed, Doughty's home was demolished and two of his children killed. In all at least 15 persons were killed and possibly 19. (AP Wirephoto.)

Exhibit by Boulter Drawing Attention

The watercolor exhibition by Larry Boulter at the Elfstrom Galleries is drawing attention this month from gallery goers. Most of the paintings deal with the Oregon scene except four paintings which depict the South Carolina swamp land. Most outstanding among the works is "Freedom," an atmospheric painting of the coast. Because of the interest evinced in this painting the artist is encouraged to send it east to a major exhibition in April. Other popular pieces are "Springtime on River Road," "Low Tide," "Southern Atmosphere" and "Rhythm in Wood." Boulter has been conducting a series of watercolor demonstra-

Judy Garland Plans Physical Check, Rest

Hollywood, March 9 (AP)—Film actress Judy Garland plans to leave in a week or so for Boston for a complete physical checkup and rest, MGM studio said today. The pug-nosed star spent about 11 weeks in Boston last year for a rest and returned to Hollywood in good spirits, a studio spokesman said. She may spend two or three weeks in Boston this trip. Miss Garland recently completed a picture, "Summer Stock,"

Family of Eight Die in Cabin Fire

Sandy, Ore., March 9 (AP)—A family of eight died in a flaming one-room mill cabin near here Thursday. The roaring fire apparently started on the small building's north side—the only one with a door. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy A. Ludwig and their six children died in the trap. The cabin was one of 14 housing workers at the Wilson sawmill off the Mount Hood Loop highway about 11 miles from here. Sandy is 20 miles east of Portland. Carl Wilson, owner of the mill, said his barking dog awakened him at 1:15 a.m. and he looked out to discover the fire. He ran to the cabin, ripped away boards covering a window, and flame billowed out. The interior was all ablaze. "It all happened so fast there was no chance to do a thing," Wilson said. He called the fire department, but the cabin was leveled when firemen arrived. Wilson said he assumed the fire started from a heating stove on the north side of the 16 by 16-foot building, near the door. The dead were listed as Ludwig, 34; his wife Wanda, about 32; Rebecca, 15; Jerry, 13; Dennis, 10; Michael, 7; Ronnie, 2, and Kathleen, 5 months. Coroner Ray Rilance took the bodies to Oregon City after preliminary investigation.

More Trout Liberated

Portland, March 9 (AP)—The state game commission is getting ready for the fishing season again. Some 82,000 yearling cutthroat trout have been released in southern Oregon coastal streams and lakes; and more small fish will be released in mountain waters as soon as snow melts.

Morse Urges Balanced Budget

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Senator Morse (R-Ore) said today "constitutional liberal republicans" will urge the republican party to adopt policies calling for a balanced budget in the 1950 political campaign. "I am convinced a great political awakening is sweeping the country in support of constructive, affirmative, forward looking policies which the constitutional liberals in the republican party are urging the republican party to fight for in the 1950 campaign," Morse told a reporter. "We believe America's greatest defense is a sound domestic economy. "Therefore we are urging the adoption of the major recommendation of the Hoover committee for economy in government. We are recommending the adoption of the major tax revision recommendations of the committee for economic development. We are fighting for a balanced budget. "We are supporting a bipartisan foreign policy. We are opposing isolationism because we are convinced isolationism will mean war. "We are insisting the American people recognize that unless peace is won, freedom in America will be endangered by the spread of Russian police state methods in Asia and elsewhere in the world."

Source of Horse Meat Is Puzzle

Dallas, Tex., March 9 (AP)—State and federal officials today sought the answer to a number of questions in the case of high priced beef tenderloin that turned out to be horsemeat. They wanted to know first of all where it was produced. Thousands of pounds of horse meat — processed to resemble choice beef tenderloin — were seized in Houston and Dallas yesterday. At Fort Worth, the city health department confiscated 3,600 pounds of meat but wouldn't label it horse meat. "We are not sure what it is," said City Health Director W. V. Bradshaw. Results of tests on the meat are expected today or tomorrow. Most of the meat shipments came from Kansas City. A federal investigation was launched there. An unconfirmed report at Dallas said it was believed the meat was shipped to Kansas City from Chicago. Dr. R. S. Martin, chief of Houston's city health department meat inspection division, said an estimated 3,000 pounds of horse meat had been sold to 12 high class Houston restaurants since December. "It was good, clean meat," he said, "but it was horsemeat." New Zealand soldiers call marines "Cobbers," meaning pal or buddy.
